RUSSIANS IN FLUSH OF SUCCESS SWEEP ON

Troops of General Letchitzky Are Within Three Miles of Stanislau, and Austro-German Defense Is at Stake

BALKAN SITUATION IS NEW CAUSE OF ALARM

Central Powers Fear That Allies' Victories Will Convince Rumania Time Has Come to Strike at Hungarians

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The capture by the Russians of the railway station of Kryptin on the Stanislau-Nadvorna Railroad was announced officially today from Petrograd.

Russian troops under General Letchitzky were approaching the Bistritza river, only three miles east of the Galician city of Stanislau, yesterday, according to despatches today.

The Austro-Germans were expected to make a final stand on the west bank of the Bistritza. If they are driven from these positions by the advancing Slavs the fall of Stanislau and an Austro-German retirement northward to the Dniester is considered certain. It is barely possible that Stanislau already has been captured by the troops of the czar, officials believe.

LEIMBERG IN BALANCE.

If Stanislau does fall to the Russians, the retreating right wing of General von Bothmer's army is expected to take up positions behind the strongly fortified Dniester river bridgehead north of Halitz. At this position the decisive battle for Lemberg may be fought.

Delayed despatches from Bucharest today reported that the Rumanian war party, favoring action on the side of the allies, has been stirred to great action by Russia's unexpected stroke in Southeastern Galicia and the surprising victory of the Italians on the Isonzo. Pro-ally demonstrations followed news of the Russian successes against the Austro-Germans and the early Italian gains on the Isonzo. News of the fall of Gorizia had not reached Bucharest when the despatches were filed.

BULGARS AGGRESSIVE.

Alleged acts of aggression by Bulgarian soldiers along the Rumanian frontier have heightened the ill feeling against the central powers. The situation became so tense that a special cabinet meeting was held this week.

A despatch from Amsterdam today asserted Germany again is uneasy over the Balkan situation, though satisfied that Rumania will take no immediate action. The chief concern in Berlin is that the allies will begin a great offensive from Salonika while the Russians are closing in upon Lemberg and the Italians driving southward toward Trieste, convincing the Rumanians that the hour has come to join the allies and invade Hungary.

REPULSE, SAYS BERLIN.

BERLIN, Aug. 10.—Heavy attacks have been made by the Russians at various points along the Stokhod line in Volhynia, east of Kovel, the war office announced today. All the Russian advances were repulsed with heavy losse, it is declared.

In Galicia southeast of Brody, new engagements were developing this morning, adds the statement, which says:

"Front of Field Marshal von Hindenburg: South of Smorgon there has been lively firing and patrol activity. Repeated Russian attacks were sanguinarily repulsed on the Strumen near Dubczeze and on the Stokhod near Lubieszow, Berezycze, Smolary-Sercze and Witoniez. Near Serczewe made two officers and 240 men prisoner as a result of counter attacks. Operations by small enemy detachments and an attempted surprise attack on the Stokhod salient.

"South of Saloeze new battles developed early this morning."

Mississippi Breeze to End Heat Wave

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Cooling winds from the Mississippi valley were moving eastward today, promising to sweep away completely the heat wave that has been scoring in the middle west for weeks. The weather bureau forecasts lower temperatures in the middle plains States within 36 to 48 hours. At the same time an area of high pressure over New England is sending down fresh northeast winds to cool the Atlantic Coast districts north of the Carolinas.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. — It was cooler here at 9:30 o'clock this morning than at any time the same hour during the last three weeks. The end of the period of record heat and humidity was marked by a drop in temperature of 19 degrees and a relative decrease in humidity. The mercury in the weather bureau's thermometer registered 69 degrees at 9:30 a. m., 10 degrees cooler than yesterday. The humidity was 78, or 15 degrees lower. Cloudy skies and a sharp breeze made the weather "almost chilly," according to New Yorkers, who have suffered with heat and humidity during the last 21 days.

Italians Continue Advance Gorizia Fall Is Complete Austrians in Full Retreat

ROME, Aug. 10. — The Austrian aviation station of Aisovizza, six miles east of Gorizia, has been captured by Italian troops, who are continuing pursuit of the Austrian force that retreated from Gorizia, according to reports received here today.

Cavalry detachments and Bersagileri entered Ansovissa after putting to flight the Austrian rear guard, which attempted to make a stand in the eastern suburbs of Gorizia. In this section a body of Austrian troops is reported to have been cut off from the main force.

The Italians also have pierced the strong Austrian entrenchments northeast of Monte San Michele on the Isonzo front and near the village of San Martin, the war office announced today. They have occupied Boschini, the statement says, more than 12,000 Austrians having been captured.

A total of 21,750 prisoners have been taken on the Gorizia front, according to despatches from army headquarters today. The guns and other booty have not yet been counted.

REMARKABLE SCENE.

A remarkable scene greeted the Italian troops when they entered the city of Gorizia. Several thousand Italian residents who for weeks had lived underground rushed out, bringing flowers and Italian flags from concealed places and cheering the conquerors. In other underground caverns several thousand Austrian soldiers were found and made prisoners.

Notwithstanding the desperate fighting around Gorizia, the city itself was not burned by the Austrians or destroyed by the Italian artillery fire, nor were the inhabitants injured, these to the number of 20,000 having previously evacuated the city.

Pursuit of the Austrian army has been somewhat hampered by the necessity of repairing damaged bridges and roadways destroyed before the retreat from Gorizia. Infantry detachments, however, are in close contact with the Austrian right wing, striking unceasing blows and attempting to cut off and surround bodies of Austrian troops moving southward toward the Carso plateau.

Large numbers of heavy guns, some of which the enemy had made ineffectual attempts to destroy, fell into the hands of General Cadorna's forces at Gorizia. King Victor Emmanuel is understood to have been at the Isonzo front when Gorizia fell, though he has not yet entered the Austrian stronghold.

GREAT DEMONSTRATION.

Great street demonstrations occurred in Rome last night when the capture of Gorizia was announced. Crowds marched through the streets singing the Italian and allies' anthems and cheering the king, the Italian commanders and the army.

The public accepts the capture of Gorizia as only the beginning of a great move southward, which they believe will culminate in the taking of Trieste. It is believed here that the whole Austrian Isonzo front from Tolmino southward eventually will be broken.

Correspondents report that the capture of one of the heights surrounding Gorizia was affected by a daring enterprise. Italians dug along underground tunnels to the Austrian lines. After a heavy bombardment several hundred Italians suddenly swung from the mouths of these tunnels and fell on the Austrians, who were taken completely by surprise.

The operations which led up to the capture of Gorizia by the Italians are described in the following official narrative given out here last night:

BEGINS AUGUST 4.

"The attack began on August 4 in the Monfalcone section against hills 85 and 121, east of Rocca. We stormed a very powerful enemy works there, taking 143 prisoners, but the adversary had placed in abandoned trenches quantities of bombs, which exploded, giving off clouds of poisonous gases just as our troops entered the captured lines. Heavy masses of the enemy then made counter-attacks and our troops, stupefied or asphyxiated by the gas, were forced to fall back to their own trenches.

"On August 6 the artillery sounded the enemy's whole front with the object of distracting his attention and fixing the ranges accurately. On the morning of August 6 our batteries opened fire simultaneously on the rocky barrier which, from Sabotino to Cavario, defends the Isonzo and Gorizia to the west and against Montesan Michial, which forms the northern edge of the Gorizian Carzo. The artillery action of the day, long and carefully worked out, represented a perfect example of concentrated fire against fortified lines.

"Thanks to our aviators and to the observations of battery officers, the positions of the enemy had all been marked off clearly on target maps and ranges for the extension and lengthening of fire had been calculated with the greatest nicety. Thus at the approaching time a veritable tempest of shells fell in a wholly unexpected manner on the positions of the enemy, demolishing everything systematically.

ADVANCE WITH DASH.

"Infantry colums then advanced with customary dash, well supported by a curtain fire of our artillery and carried the entire formidable Sabotino rampart, which forms the base of the Gorizia bridgehead. On the heights which cover the city to the west they stormed the defenses of Oslavia and of the summit of hill 206, which command Graffenburg. On the plain they drove in a defensive line between the southern border of Podgera and the Isonzo.

"They also attacked on the right bank of the river as far as Saint Andre. On the southern border of the Carzo Italian troops captured very strong lines on the summit of San Michele and the intrenchments running into the San Martino zone. Finally, in the Monfalcone section, a battalion of Bersaglieri cyclists from the Third, Fourth and Eleventh regiments, after a desperate struggle, stormed all the defenses on hill 85 and held out there against violent concentrated artillery, repulsing furious counter-attacks by Austrian infantry.

"Possession of the lateral pivots of the Gorizia bridgehead being assured by the conquest of Monte Sabotino and Monte San Michele, it remained to take the imposing barrier formed by the heights immediately to the west of the city. The battle ebbed and flowed incessantly for three days. The ground was fortified strongly and supported by a great number of lines of defense thrown up by the adversary close to Gorizia, an important center which rendered it easy to offer stubborn resistance and enabled the Austrians to make violent counter-attacks.

INCH BY INCH.

"Inch by inch and at the cost of generous sacrifices our infantry, with the admirable co-operation of our artillery, conquered first the crest and then the southeastern slopes of the heights and stormed innumerable trenches, gradually driving the defenders before them, notwithstanding repeated counter-attacks.

"As a result of all of these continuous efforts all the heights on the right bank of the Isonzo, forming the bridgehead of Gorizia and Monte San Michele on the left bank, were captured and securely held by the Italians. The line of the Isonzo below is secured to them and their guns, dominating Gorizia, drove out the enemy lurking among the ruins. This uninterrupted three-day fight covers with glory the troops of the third army, commanded by the Duke of Aosta."

MANY INJURED IN PANIC ON CROWDED CAR

Short Circuits Cause Double Explosion, and Fire Results.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Many persons were injured here early today, four of them probably fatally, when a double explosion, caused by short circuits, wrecked a Halsted-street car. Windows were smashed, wire guards on windows bent and the woodwork set afire. Forty passengers making a dash for the exits jammed in the doorways and many were hurt. Several leaped through the windows.

Motorman Arthur J. Heyden, caught in the rush to the platform, had to fight to use his controller and put on the airbrakes. He managed to set them as the crowd swept him from the car.

Sparks from the second explosion set the car afire and the blaze spread rapidly. A call for help brought fire apparatus. Firemen and policemen joined in getting the injured from the blazing car.

"Let the car burn. Take care of the injured," the firemen were ordered, and the fire was allowed to blaze for twenty minutes before it was extinguished.

A dozen persons whose injuries were not considered serious were given first aid treatment and sent home. Had it not been for the panic, traction officials said, none of the passengers would have been hurt.

LUMBERMAN SUED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Jacob Plyer, a wealthy lumberman of Chehalis, was made defendant in a divorce action filed today by Mrs. Gertrude J. Plyer of 1600 San Jose avenue. Cruelty is the ground.

COUNTY CLERK WAITS BORDWELL BALLOT RULING

Judge Has Mandamused L. A. Registrar of Voters to Remove Name.

Pending the decision of the court in the mandamus procedings filed by Judge Walter Bordwell in Los Angeles county against the registrar of voters there directing that officer to take Bordwell's name off the primary election ballot, no action will be taken by County Clerk George Gross on the wired instruction from Bordwell asking him to take the name off the ballot in this county.

Gross, in common with Secretary of State Frank Jordan and the other county clerks of the state, today received a wire asking immediate action. However, Jordan had certified the name to the clerks and they appear to have no power in the matter until the courts rule on the present pending mandamus suit.

"I have referred the matter to the district attorney," said Gross when seen this morning, "and will do nothing until he advises me. It is very probable that I will wait until the court makes a ruling in the Los Angeles case. Then I can be guided by the rule as announced.

JORDAN REFUSES CHANGE.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 10.—Walter N. Bordwell, who withdrew from the race for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, sent a telegram yesterday to Secretary of State Jordan to do what he could to eliminate his name from the ballot.

"It is impossible for us to withdraw the name," Deputy Secretary Cory wired back.

The secretary of state, it appeared, has finished his duty by certifying the names to county clerks. If Bordwell now hopes to have his name off the ballot he will have to resort to court action, it is said.

DEATH AND RUIN TOLL OF FLOOD

From 30 to 200 Killed; 1500 Homeless and Property Loss $5,000,000 Estimate of Result of Great Cloudburst

Zone Thirty Miles in Area Is Devastated, and Railroad Traffic Is Demoralized; Thirty Bodies Are Recovered

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Governor Hatfield ordered two more companies of the Second Regiment into the West Virginia flood district today when reports of great loss of life and suffering apparently confirmed early estimates.

A report reached here this morning to the effect that Jarolds Valley, a town of 500 inhabitants in Boone county, at the head of Coal river, was washed away, and that 75 of its population had lost their lives.

More than thirty bodies have been recovered and on Cabin Creek the death list is placed at more than 100. Among the bodies were twenty-three recovered at Cabin Creek town. Others are being taken every little while from the creek above that town.

DEATH REPORTS VARY.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Although reports from Huntington, Montgomery, St. Albans and other points estimate the dead in the cloudburst which swept a flood down Cabin, Paint and Coal creeks yesterday at from thirty to 200, state officials said at 11 o'clock today reports of their investigators showed only fourteen known dead.

The number of homes carried from their foundations is not definitely known, but there were hundreds of them. At least 1500 persons were camped through the night shelterless or with poor cover on the drenched ground back of their former homes.

Property damage in the stricken district estimates as high as $5,000,000. Hundreds of miners and members of their families are homeless, huddling on the mountain slopes.

Many homes of employes of the Wyatt Coal Company and the Cabin Creek Consolidated Coal Company were destroyed.

Two companies of militia were sent from the mobilization camps at Kanawha City with tents and supplies.

Floods, started by cloudbursts at the head of Paint Creek, Cabin Creek and Coal River, affected a zone of thirty miles radius from Montgomery. All branch lines of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad were damaged so badly traffic was impossible. The main line bridge at Mount Carbon, four miles east of Montgomery, was destroyed when ten houses struck it.

LOOTERS AT WORK.

Torrents poured down the narrow mountain gorges, flooding tracks in the Cane Fork yards to a depth of five feet. Houses, farm products and equipment were stripped from the territory.

Property loss may reach $2,500,000 in the Coal river, Cabin creek and Paint creek valleys.

All stories from the scene agree that it was a real cloudburst that swept the stricken district. The town and villages are built mostly upon the sides of steep, rocky hills, barren of trees. The storm had a clean sweep through the region and simply flooded down everything in its path.

Looting was begun shortly after the worst of the storm had passed. Railroad police, local constabulary and others quickly organized to protect the hundreds of homeless huddled on the bare hillsides. They were relieved this morning in some localities when a company of militia arrived.

TORNADO IN NEBRASKA.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 10.—A tornado which struck Oxford, Neb., early today, destroyed the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy round house, unroofed the opera house, damaged many other buildings and injured three persons, according to a report received here. A heavy rain which accompanied the wind flooded nearly all the cellars in town.

Italian Naval Raid Is Success

ROME, Aug. 10.—An Italian naval raid recently on the Albanian port of Durazzo, held by the Austrians, is announced in the following statement issued here today:

"Italian light cruisers on the night of August 1-2, avoiding the new permanent defenses prepared by the enemy, again penetrated the port of Durazzo. They torpedoed a steamer.

"On August 2 French and Italian destroyers attacked four enemy destroyers, protected by the cruiser Aspern, which had bombarded the Apulian coast, and pursued them under the guns of Cattaro, shelling them vigorously. The French and Italian warships were undamaged, although opposed by the heavier gun power of the enemy's ships."

The official Austrian account of the sea battle of August 2 said the Italian warships were hit and retreated, and that the Austrian vessels were undamaged.

Nine Villistas and Four Carranzistas Killed

LAREDO, Texas, Aug. 10.—Nine Villista bandits and four constitutionalist soldiers were killed in a skirmish last Thursday between Cardenas and Tamazope, Mexico, according to information brought here today by T. D. Hornbeck, a rancher from San Luis Potosi. He said he learned no details of the battle. Besides Hornbeck nine other American refugees arrived here today. All told of hardship and the loss of their property.

WAR COSTS BEST BLOOD OF NATION

Race Weakened by Toll of Finest Strain, Declares Chancellor Jordan in Address on Effects or War on Eugenics

Europe to Face Dearth of National Leaders as Result of Response of the Brave to Call of Duty, Says Savant

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 10.—Future generations of European countries now at war with each other will have to pay the costs of that war not only in material wealth, but also in the lowered standards of their physical, mental and moral efficiency, according to Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor emeritus, Leland Stanford Jr., university, who today addressed the members of the Pacific division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science on "War and Eugenics." "That war weakens the breed by depriving it of its finest strain is now an unquestioned fact in biology as in history," he said.

"Every army insists, in its enlistments, on obtaining men above the average in physical efficiency. Its ideal is the red-blooded man with dash and daring, a bit of an adventurer to begin with, to be reduced to a cog in a great machine by the pressure of military discipline. In general, those who fight best are most likely to be killed.

"'The bravest men,' says Darwin, 'who were always willing to come to the front in war, and who freely risked their lives for others, would on an average perish in greater numbers than other men! Better men would make better history. The demands of battle and camp cut off men from parenthood in the prime of life. This leaves the men war cannot use to be the fathers of coming generations.

BIRTHRIGHT IS STOLEN.

"By the laws of heredity, like the seed is the harvest and the future of the races rests with those who are its actual ancestors. 'Lions breed lions,' says the Spanish proverb, 'a brave man has brave sons.' Of like import is the Moorish proverb: 'Father a weed, mother a weed; do you expect the daughter to be saffron root?'

"A nation does not miss that which it has not had. If it did, it would realize that the longest cost of war is that of impoverishment of the breed. 'War's greatest cost,' says Paul Danzinberg, 'reaches down into the very life blood of the nation, taking the life from the generation yet unborn and robbing them of their birthright—sound mind in sound body.'

"Mr. Stead used to speak to the university men of Great Britain as the 'picked half million,' those who in the future are to command and the world will obey. If there be a half million of these today, fully two-thirds are in the camp or the trenches. Three-fourths of the students of Oxford are there, and three-fourths of those of Cambridge. The same percentage holds good in the universities of Germany and France.

"They are all engaged in the great race suicide which will leave the Europe of the next generation with less than ½ half million of strong men in each nation to prole from. The millions that have been slaughtered mean far more than the death of a certain number of men. When a man, in this fashion, mostly heedlessly, and often thanklessly, 'gives his life for his country,' he gives more than his life; he gives the lives of all those who in ages to come should be his descendants.

BEST LEADERS ARE TAKEN.

"I have seen the university men of England and Scotland; fine, vigorous upstanding fellows, the very cream of humanity, going off to the slaughter. I have seen the 200,000 more or less, left at home in London to be the fathers of the next generation.

"These are correctly described by General Ian Hamilton, who states that an inspector could not endure the tens of thousands of weak eyes, incipient deafness, rotten teeth, relaxed throats, hammer toes, flat feet and knock-knees, which the army leaves behind. These infected by vice and saturated by drink are set aside for parenthood, while the 'picked half million,' just as their mature life begins, are shoveled into the trenches along the Yser and the Marne, and in the swamps of East Prussia.

"All this may be necessary, for the Great War is on and the nations involved have no choice but to fight on. But nothing more ruinous to our race or more abherrent to our consciences can be conceived. George Fitch warns that we shall see in all Europe, when peace comes, 'a startling dearth of ruling class material. * * * You cannot improve the chivalry and the flower of a nation by shooting out its brains.'

"That war weakens the breed by depriving it of its finest strain is now an unquestioned fact in biology as in history. This is becoming more and more widely accepted as the crucial argument against the war systems of the world, standing second only in importance to the final argument of the human conscience that murder remains murder even done on a large scale under the sanction of the State and with the blessing of the State church."

Anti-Aircraft Guns for New Battleship

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The battleship Nevada will be equipped with four anti-aircraft guns, a lot of which have been received at the New York navy yard. The Pennsylvania also will carry four of these guns, and it is stated that the rest of the larger warships of the Atlantic fleet will mount two of the new guns.

The Oklahoma is now the only vessel in the navy carrying such weapons.

Injuries Fatal to Berkeley Victim

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—John Anderson, an employee of the National Ice Company, residing in Berkeley, died at the Hahnemann hospital following injuries received July 22 in an elevator accident at the factory. Following his being hurt Anderson was taken to four hospitals, the Harbor hospital, Central Emergency, St. Francis and finally Hahnemann. He was 52 years old and married.

SENATE TOLD OF DEMOCRAT RAID ON FEDERAL JOB

Redfield Statement on "Resignation" of Durand Is Corrected.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. — Senator Townsend, Republican of the Census committee, made a statement in the Senate today supporting the declarations of Charles E. Hughes that E. Dana Durand, former director of the census, was removed from office to make a vacancy for political reasons and taking issue with Secretary Redfield's rejoinder that Mr. Durand retired voluntarily.

"The secretary of commerce says Mr. Durant resigned," said Senator Townsend. "That is not correct. The fact is that Secretary Redfield called on Durand in April and stated that he desired his position. Durand replied that much important work was in progress and that he ought to be allowed to finish it. The next day Mr. Harris' (William J. Harris) nomination was sent to the Senate and the next day it was announced that Mr. Durand had resigned."

HAD EXPLAINED FACTS.

Senator Townsend said he had explained the facts to the census committee and delayed the confirmation of Harris.

"I believe it is well for the country to know the facts," continued Senator Townsend. "Mr. Durand was practically removed. He resigned under pressure after he had stated he ought to remain until the census reports were completed. The telegrams sent out by Secretary Redfield absolutely was unfaithful to the facts. Mr. Harris was appointed for political reasons and his name sent in after Mr. Durand was forced out of office."

Senator Smith, Democrat of Georgia, said he desired to congratulate the other side in that they have at last found an issue. "My criticisms of the President and Secretary of Commerce in this matter," Senator Smith continued, "is that they did not remove Mr. Durand frankly and openly from office.

ALLEGES INEFFICIENCY.

"He was inefficient as an executive officer. There was waste of money, duplication of work and carelessness of management in his administration. He was a man utterly without executive capacity of the kind needed in a director of the census."

Senators Stone and Hardwick retorted that the Republicans seemed pleased at having found an issue. Mr. Harris is now a member of the federal trade commission.

Senator Penrose said that Durand was not the issue.

"The issue here," he said, "is that the Secretary of Commerce deliberately and publicly stated that Durand resigned and was not removed and it later turns out that he was removed and the Secretary of Commerce, to put it mildly, is detected in deliberately misrepresenting the facts to the American people. I am not a fanatical civil service reformer myself, but I abhor the hypocrisy which characterizes this whole transaction."

Sentenced for Shot That Blinded Man

PLACERVILLE, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Mary Weston, aged 33, was sentenced to ten years in the San Quentin penitentiary here today for shooting out the eyes of Harry Stephens recently when he trespassed on her property. Mrs. Weston can neither read nor write and testified at the trial, at which she was convicted of assault with intent to commit murder, that she thought she had the right to shoot Stephens when he came on her land. She is the first woman ever sent to San Quentin from El Dorado county. A woman deputy sheriff, Miss Lulu Cook, leaves with her for the penitentiary tomorrow.

Car Shortage Is Told to Shippers

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Carriers, shippers and consignees were warned today by the Interstate Commerce Commission of a threatened car shortage, and their attention called to the need of close supervision of loading and unloading. The commission urged that cars be not used for storage purposes, and suggested that the carriers return cars to their home lines as quickly as possible. Heavy movements of grain are said to be partly responsible for threatened shortage.

French Cruiser Watches Galveston

GALVESTON, Aug. 10.—A large cruiser with four funnels appeared off Galveston shortly before noon today, cruising for a few minutes within the three-mile limit. It is reported that a German submarine merchantman is expected to dock here.

The cruiser disappeared east by south and did not signal the shore. Port officials have taken no action, and would not discuss the cruiser's appearance. She is believed to be a French craft, as she had two funnels forward and two aft.

President Signs Lassen Park Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—President Wilson has just signed the recent act of Congress creating "the Lassen National Volcanic Park" in California. Included within its area are Lassen Peak, the only active volcano in the United States, and Cinder Cone, which also showed volcanic activity at one time. Both were set apart as national monuments in 1906. The new park contains 82,880 acres.

$3,500,000 SHIP ORDER FOR PLANT ON ESTUARY

$30,000,000 to Be Invested in Steamer Construction at Union Iron Works' Yards on Alameda Waterfront

EXPENDITURE CALLS FOR TWO 10,000-TON BOATS

Completion of Additions to Yards Will Place It in Rank With Greatest Competitors for Sea Trade in Country

Two 10,000-ton steel steamers will be built on its account by the Union Iron Works as a speculative investment, it was announced today. When completed they will be offered to any prospective purchaser for about $1,750,000 each.

This announcement, following the granting of a 25-year lease to the company on waterfront land in Alameda, is regarded as significant. When the Union Iron Works' Alameda plant is completed it will include ways on which six steamers can be built simultaneously and will make the company's plant on the east side of the bay larger than that on the San Francisco side.

It is reported that today's announcement means that the Schwab interests, controlling the Union Iron Works, propose to build a big fleet of steamers on its own account.

President MacGregor of the Union Iron Works, in a letter today to the Alameda Chamber of Commerce, announced that the Alameda plant of the company, when completed, will be one of the largest and best equipped in the United States.

OTHER SHIP CONSTRUCTION.

The two ships certain to be built at once mean the expenditure in Alameda and Oakland of $3,500,000 and marks at once the entrance of the Alameda plant into the field as one of the great shipbuilding establishments of the country.

With the latest additions to the ship orders now being filled all told nearly $30,000,000 is represented in ships now building or actually ordered at the Union Iron Works on this side. The Union Iron Works at present is building two steel steamers of 9500 tons each for the Standard Oil Company, a 9300-ton steamer for F. D. Strahan of Georgia, a 9750-ton steamer for the Matson Company and a 6000-ton steamer for C. H. Smith of San Francisco. In addition the yards are at work on a large number of oil tankers of capacities from 70,000 to 90,000 barrels of oil.

Moore & Scott are building two 7300-ton steamers and one 10,000-ton steamer for Norwegian capitalists and are also constructing a number of oil tankers.

LAW AID TO OAKLAND.

Uncertainty created by the ship export law recently passed by the Dutch parliament is responsible for the placing of many shipbuilding contracts in Oakland and will continue to work to the advantage of American builders, according to complaints of Dutch investors, who say that the United States has, almost in a moment, taken away the cream of their business.

In Oakland orders given to the Union Iron Works and Moore & Scott by Norwegian firms are orders, according to the Dutch view, which would naturally have been tendered to Holland.

That a large Spanish transportation company will send a fleet of steamers to the Pacific Coast and that this port will be made in regular service is an announcement today. John Wesley Dolby, Spanish vice-consul at Puget Sound, has received word from the Spanish Trans-Atlantic Steamship Company that it will send steamers to the Pacific Coast from Barcelona. They will stop here and at Puget Sound and will make regular runs with freight.

ANOTHER NEW LINE.

With the announcement of the entrance of the Spanish company in the field comes word that another new steamship line, to open up trade with Africa, will be operated through the Golden Gate. Incorporation papers have been filed by the Andrew F. Mahony Steamship Company, capitalized at $500,000. The officers and directors of the new company are Andrew F. Mahony, president, and Henry A. Jacobs, attorney, secretary; directors, Charles Van Damme, president of the Richmond and San Rafael Auto Ferry Company; Thomas Crowley, head of the Crowley Launch and Tugboat Company, and John Elliott, wholesale grocer.

The two motorships, Rose Mahony and Andrew Mahony, being constructed at Benicia, will be taken over by the company and it is planned to build two other vessels of similar design. The company is said to have already been offered attractive inducements to carry lumber to Africa.

Shipping men see in the new line closer relations with buyers in Africa and the direction of trade to the Pacific Coast of which Europe is now receiving the benefit.

COMPETITION VAIN BEFORE.

A. Schippers, who represents large shipbuilding interests in Holland is quoted in Rotterdam regarding the parliamentary act which is said to have worked to the advantage of Oakland over that city, as saying:

"It is remarkable that America has never been able to compete with

HUGHES IS WELCOMED BY FARMERS

Agriculturists Drop Plow and Seize Steering Wheel for Chance to Hear Candidate at Fargo and Grand Forks

Value of Protective Tariff to the Country Interests and Fallacy of Free Trade Is Feature of His Address

By PERRY ARNOLD.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Aug. 10.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, told an audience of farmers in the auditorium here today that he believed in a protective tariff that would protect them as well as the men in the factories.

"I believe in a protective tariff," Mr. Hughes said. "I believe in protection without abuse. I think that is possible.

"Our opponents, who for generations have told us that it was contrary to the Constitution of the United States to have duties except for the purpose of revenue, are now telling us that there is an economic revenue and that perhaps we can have a duty on dye stuffs and a non-partisan commission. But I believe in trusting those who really accept the doctrine of protection with its enforcement. And I believe in protection for the farmers just as I believe in protection for the men in the factories."

Mr. Hughes repeated his views on preparedness, saying that he stood for reasonable preparedness.

"Weakness breeds insults and insults breed war," he said. "I stand for the protection of American rights. Firm insistence on American rights backed by reasonable preparedness means peace and security."

Shortly after noon Mr. Hughes left for Fargo, N. D., where he will address a meeting tonight.

AFTER FARMER VOTE.

FARGO, N. D., Aug. 10.—Charles Evans Hughes set out today to capture the farmer vote. The Republican nominee got his first glimpse of hickory shirt and the gallus as a presidential candidate today. Fargo gave him a royal welcome. Farmers from everywhere about came in their automobiles to hear the former justice of the Supreme Court of the United States expound his doctrines of Republicanism.

Particular interest centered in Hughes' appearance in North Dakota today because of the suspicion of politicians that the G. O. P. candidate is setting out deliberately to kidnap North Dakota's famous farmers' nonpartisan league. Up in the northwest the farmers' alliance represents a new thing in politics. According to ex-Representative James Manahan, who stumped North Dakota recently for the league, just before it carried the nomination of practically all its candidates in both old parties at the primaries, the league will again be successful in the fall. Elections so far as the state ticket is concerned will eject professional politicians from control. Then, according to Manahan, they will enact laws for state-owned elevators, not revision of the tax laws, mutual insurance against hail and other progressive plans.

WANT THE EXAMPLE.

Sponsors for Hughes are hoping that the Republican candidate will carry such a convincing message to the farmers in North Dakota tomorrow that, being already well organized, they will swing their strength to the G. O. P. With such a swing they count on further farmer strength from other states.

Hughes has a busy program today and tomorrow. Only two set speeches were scheduled for today—at Fargo and Grand Forks—but it was expected that the candidate would find opportunity for several rear-platform talks.

NATIONAL POLITICAL NEWS STATE

Hughes Renews Charges Refutes Wilson's Denial

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 10.—Charles E. Hughes hit back hard at the administration's attack upon his Detroit speech. Before a cheering crowd of 10,000 persons in the parade grounds at Minneapolis, he first read a telegram from Secretary of Commerce Redfield denying that E. Dana Durand had been removed from the post of director of the census, then, drawing a second document from his pocket, the Republican nominee read a letter from Durand assrting that his resignation had been forced at a personal interview with the Secretary, because the administration desired "to create a vacancy."

Hughes thereupon reiterated his charge that the Wilson administration has used public office for political purposes, has raided the civil service and prostituted the government to party advantage.

In his Minneapolis speech Hughes said:

In my speech at Detroit I took occasion to refer to the fact that in a very important bureau, the Bureau of Census, an eminent statistician, a man of conspicuous experness and fitness for the place, had been retired, and a man had been appointed in his place without qualifications for that important technical work.

Now, my statement that E. Dana Durand was retired, as I said, in effect, and his place given to a politician, has been challenged by Secretary Redfield. Secretary Redfield telegraphs me that I was greatly misinformed. He says: "Durand was not removed or retired, but resigned voluntarily unasked. I was glad to endorse him for present employment.

Hughes then read Durand's letter to him, saying that his retirement had been forced. The speaker continued:

In that same speech I referred to a technical bureau known as the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and to the fact that in place of an eminent scientist there had been appointed a man whom I regarded as without proper qualifications.

CHARACTER OF SUCCESSOR.

Exception also has been taken by the distinguished secretary with regard to that man. Now I am not in a position to state of my own knowledge and circumstances with reference to the retirement of the eminent scientist who occupied that important place. But if I may assume that he retired voluntarily my point is not so much the retirement of the man who went, but the character of the man by whom he was succeeded.

I am now told that Mr. Jones, who succeeded him, was promoted after being deputy commissioner of fisheries. But he was appointed to that place, also involving the need of technical skill and training, by this administration. He went there from his stock farm and took charge of the bureau.

After he had been there a couple of years he was put in charge of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Now the administration says that he is a wonderfully competent man.

In that speech I called attention to the manner in which the principle of our civil service law had been disregarded, and after going over a number of matters which I shall not now undertake to repeat, I referred to the specific exemptions by executive order on the operation of the civil service rules; that is, appointments taken out of the civil service by executive order.

I stated that in the year ending about April, 1916, there had been removed from the operation of the civil service rules by special executive exemption about 104. That of those 104, twenty were appointed without requesting the opinion of the Civil Service Commission; that in twenty-two cases the Civil Service Commission was asked for its opinion and approved, and that in 62 cases the executive order was made directly in the teeth of the disapproval of the Civil Service Commission.

PROPER OBJECTION.

Unfortunately in the published report of those remarks, by running two sentences together, that statement was made to refer to the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and to the fact that in place of an eminent scientist there had been appointed a man whom I regarded as without proper qualifications.

Bordwell's Retirement Disappoints Johnson

SALINAS, Aug. 10.—In a speech here last night Governor Johnson expressed disappointment at the retirement of Judge Bordwell, whose candidacy for United States Senator on the Republican ticket would have split the vote and rendered the governor's chances brighter. It has been the general opinion that Johnson's friends were largely instrumental in inducing Bordwell to enter the fight. Johnson attacks Bordwell for getting out.

"Booth and the bosses have bullied Bordwell out," he asserted. "The judge," Johnson continued, "fought gamely for a few days for the American right to be a candidate before the people. He wrote two admirable letters, declining to submit to the dictation of a few petty bosses. Then his courage failed him and he quit."

Committeemen Plan to Receive Hughes

At a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee held last night in the Syndicate building, the time of the committeemen was devoted to a discussion of plans to bring Governor Hughes, Republican Presidential nominee, and former justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, to Oakland during his Western tour. Pending some announcement from the State Central Committee, no definite action locally will be taken to receive Governor Hughes. Chairman Dodge and the executive committee of the county committee are at work bringing every possible pressure in the State organization and the campaign managers to fix a date for Oakland.

Should such a date be arranged, it is probable that the meeting will be held at the Auditorium, unless the Macdonough Theater can be secured for the occasion.

Supervisors Asked to Reconsider Fair Ban

Reconsideration of the recent refusal of the board of supervisors to appropriate $250 for an Alameda county exhibit at the Stanislaus county exposition to be held in Modesto on September 23, was requested this morning by Fred Boegle of the manufacturers' committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce at the regular committee meeting of the supervisors. The appropriation will be allowed, as the members of the board based their refusal on the misapprehension that the fair in question was merely a livestock show. It was explained by Boegle that industrial exhibits will be included and that this county should be represented.

Bill Boards, Election Vehicle of Women

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Bill board advertising will be used extensively in an effort to defeat the Democratic party for its neglect to adopt the National Woman Suffrage amendment, it was announced at headquarters of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage and the National Woman's party. The campaign will be waged particularly in western states having equal suffrage. In the districts of representatives who oppose votes for women, posters will advertise the legislators' attitude, it was said, with pleas to defeat them.

Senate Democrats to Caucus on Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Recommendations of the Senate finance committee on the House revenue bill will be passed on tonight by a caucus of Senate Democrats. Among the amendments suggested are those to reduce the exemptions on income taxes, increase the tax on large inheritances, continue in effect a number of present stamp taxes and revise the wine tax schedule. The committee today had before it for discussion proposals for munitions taxes which have been opposed vigorously by the manufacturers.

Honor Convict at Road Camp Escapes

REDDING, Aug. 10.—John Buker, one of the honor convicts at the road camp near Round Mountain, escaped from the camp last night. He is the sixth convict to escape from the camp within three weeks.

William Saunders, a convict from Los Angeles county, who escaped Sunday, was recaptured last night at Anderson.

WOMEN'S PARTY TO PICK POLICY

"No Hope for Democrats," Is View Expressed at Colorado Springs.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Aug. 10.—What the new woman's party will do at the polls November 7 will be settled at the conference of the party's national executive committee opening here today.

With scores of conferences, all leading up to a decision on their choice for President, leaders from the twelve suffrage states composing the party met here today to decide which way to throw the 4,000,000 votes they claim to control.

Four speakers will turn their guns on the male politicians tonight—Miss Maud Younger, California, secretary of the National Council of the Congressional Union; Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles, Delaware, chairman of the Delaware Branch of the Congressional Union; Mrs. William Kent, California, of the national executive committee of the Congressional Union and wife of Representative Kent of California, chairman of the recently formed Wilson Non-Partisan League, and Mrs. Sarah Bard Field of Oregon.

The conferees here have just one motive—to force passage of the Constitutional amendment permitting women to vote. If the Democrats don't show signs of passing it quickly, they declared today, those 4,000,000 votes are going to go Republican or Prohibition, or Progressive, or Socialist or wherever they will do the most good or harm.

HAVE FIGURES READY.

To back up their threat to rock the boat in the coming election, the women have a lot of figures, which, they say, ought to frighten even the most healthy Democrat. One of them is that they control enough votes in each of the twelve "suff" states to elect either a Republican or a Democrat.

Miss Martin of Reno, chairman of the national committee of the party, will preside tonight at the opening of hostilities. The reception this afternoon was called at Austin Bluffs, home of Mrs. Leonard E. Curtis.

"The Prohibitionists and Socialists are clamoring for our support," said Miss Mabel Vernon, secretary of the Woman's party, "but we do not want to lose our votes and we do want to punish our enemies. The conference will decide the question."

Miss Vernon, who attracted national attention by heckling President Wilson at the dedication of the labor temple at Washington, is "mad on" the Democratic party.

BOURBONS OFFER NOTHING.

"From the Democratic administration we have gained nothing—we do not expect we ever will. From the President down the party is opposed to the passage of the amendment.

"The one plank of the Woman's party is the enfranchisement of all women on equal terms with men and we stand with those who will lend us their aid.

"Every state has enough independent women voters to turn the balance in favor of one party or another, if such women are organized. The Democratic platform is an insult to the intelligent voting women of America, offering only a suffrage sop.

"The Democratic party, like a dying man undergoing deathbed repentance, may retrieve the past by passing the Anthony amendment through the present Democratic congress. This would enable many of our members like Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, Mrs. Sara Bard Field and others to campaign and vote for Mr. Wilson.

"We are not depending on the party-bound women to help us out because they are as partisan as men. We are counting on the independent women voters."

"Dry" Pastor Queries Senate Candidates

BAKERSFIELD, Aug. 9. — George Ringo, who is pastor of the First Christian Church here, and also has been admitted to the bar, and who has been urged to make the race for United States senator on a dry platform, has sent an open letter to Governor Hiram Johnson, Willis H. Booth and George S. Patton, senatorial candidates, wherein he requested that they define their position on the following "three distinct measures" involving prohibition, which he said will come before the Federal Senate in the next term:

"First, a bill forbidding the issuance of United States internal revenue license in dry territory.

"Second, an inter-state commerce law with adequate penalties abolishing the shipment of liquors into prohibition states.

"Third, national constitutional prohibition."

Ringo said that "prohibition is the paramount issue in California this year," and that he would become an independent candidate in the event none of the duly nominated candidates came out in favor of the three foregoing measures.

Ringo was the Democratic candidate for Congress from the Tenth (Los Angeles) district in 1912. He has been active in the California dry movement.

G. O. P. Nine to Face Democratic Battery

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—With the House not in session today, all the members in town prepared to attend the annual Democratic-Republican baseball game at the American League park this afternoon. CARRIERS RESPONSIBLE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The Senate bill to make common carriers legally responsible for the full value of freight for which they issue bills of lading, passed the House without a roll-call. Minor amendments will make a conference necessary. A determined fight was made against the measure by the railroads.

PRESIDENT AMENDS CIVIL SERVICE RULE

Executive Order Makes Possible Employment of Paroled Convicts.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—By executive order, President Wilson has amended the civil service rules to permit paroled prisoners in federal penitentiaries to fill civil service positions in such institutions, where they are recommended for the employmetn b ythe federal parole board and the department of justice. Under previous rules prisoners were ineligible to hold office under the civil service.

The President's order was the direct result o fan effort on the part of Department of Justice officials to provide work for Philip Gosbee, a 63-year-old prisoner in the McNeill Island penitentiary, Washington. Gosbee was convicted of murder as a result of a dispute over an Alaskan mining claim in February, 1901, and sentenced to life. He was paroled last February, but the authorities realized that he would have a difficult time obtaining work outside the prison. Gosbee had filled a position in the mechanical department of the prison many years without pay and it was decided to give it to him after his parole.

Rancher Balked, She Says, Sues for $15,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Peter Matzen, a wealthy Santa Rosa rancher, was given twenty-four hours' grace after arranging to wed Miss Emma Peterson, balked and refused to lead her to the altar, according to her claims in a breach of promise action for $15,000 damages begun today. The young woman, who is here with her parents, has retained Attorney Steve Costello.

He recites that on July 12 she accompanied Peterson to his attorneys in Santa Rosa for the purpose of making a property settlement. A disagreement arose and the matter was put over one day for consideration. Then, she says, Matzen repented his proposal and declined to wed her.

Latin-American Trade Passes Billion Mark

NEW YORK, Aug. 10. — Commerce between the United States and Latin-America in the year ending June passed the billion dollar mark, as shown in figures compiled today by the National City Bank. This, said a statement issued by the bank, denotes a growth of 50 per cent since 1913 and of more than 100 per cent within the last ten years. Exports reached a sum of $410,000,000 and imports $750,000,000. In 1900 the total trade of this country with South and Central America was only $378,000,000.

Halt Senatorial Boosting, Plea

Wait Till After Hughes' Visit, Says Wilcox

William R. Wilcox, chairman of the Republican National Campaign Committee, makes some observations on the California political situation in which he states that the visit of Hughes is no time "to attempt to boost the candidacy of any man for United States senator or any other office.

"Here in Chicago," continued Wilcox, "where bitter contests are being waged by various factions, an agreement was reached whereby a large committee was made up of all wings of the Republican party, and the meeting was a huge and triumphant success. No one heard any echo from the forces of one candidate for governor, or from one or the other of any other candidate for governor. For one day at least all these differences were laid aside and a united support was given to the candidate for president.

"Any attempt to organize these meetings in the interest of any candidate for any local office should receive the condemnation of every man who is supporting the national ticket, headed by Hughes. I still hope that the good sense and diplomacy of yourself and William H. Crocker will able to bring to pass for these two days a harmonious program with reference to these meetings."

Adjustment Had in Guardianship Case

Disagreements over the guardianship of Mrs. Mary Ellen Adams, mother-in-law of Judge T. W. Harris of the superior court, which led to legal action through the objections of her nephew, John Rice, have been quietly adjusted out of court, and the case will probably be dropped from the calendar when it is called next Monday morning.

Conferences between Judge Harris, his son and attorney, Myron Harris and Attorney John McNab of San Francisco, representing John Rice and others who did not agree to the guardianship have resulted in the drawing up of an agreement by the terms of which a trust company will take charge of the $200,000 estate and administer the expenditures.

This ends a disagreement which has extended over a year. Mrs. Adams, who had been taken from Agnews Asylum, was living in East Oakland under the care of Mrs. Washington Dodge. When Rice arrived from the East and entered his objection to the arrangements, she was returned to Agnews, where the expert alienists disagreed n their views as to her sanity. She is now residing in Judge Harris' home.

NOTE PUBLICATION TO ALLAY FEAR

Lusitania Case Reply Said to Assure Diver Warfare Modification.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Announcement that the last German note on the Lusitania case, submitted to the State Department nearly six months ago, is to be published, is the direct answer to those who feared a return to power of the Von Tirpitz element in Germany, with a consequent renewal of ruthless submarine warfare, officials asserted today. The publication is to be made with Germany's consent.

The note declaring the killing of Americans on the Lusitania was unintentional and expressing profound regret for loss of American life, is declared to be a complete guarantee in the name of the German people against any such submarine campaign as that which precipitated the recent German-American crisis. It declares a campaign of reprisal against other than enemy subjects to be a "mistake" and is said to agree entirely with this country's view that non-combatants and particularly neutrals must not suffer.

Acceptance of the principles in the note is declared by its proposed publication. It is expected to clear up any fear that the U-boat warfare of a year ago will be reopened—containing, it is said, tacit admission that the campaign was a mistake.

COUNCIL IS TO TAKE UP FRANCHISE

Opinion on Indeterminate Grant Is Heard Today as Part of First Consideration of Proposals for Street Car Line

With Three Commissioners Favoring Submission of Disputed Amendments, Matter Is Allowed to Rest for Day

Although City Attorney Paul C. Morf declared it to be his opinion that the proposed resettlement franchise charter amendments are illegal, the city council today indicated that it will place them on the ballot at the general November election.

The matter will be finally acted upon at tomorrow's session of council to which time it was postponed that Mayor John L. Davie might give it further consideration. Morf in his opinion held that he considered the proposed charter amendments illegal in their provisions relating to indeterminate franchises.

B. A. Forsterer, chairman of the special committee which framed the amendments, told the council that the body is willing to have the proposition placed on the ballot and take its chances on having it declared legal or illegal later.

"All we want," said Forsterer, "is to have this council place these amendments on the ballot in November, relieving this committee of the necessity of circulating initiative petitions. We desire the opinion of the people on the question of whether or not they want the council to enter into this resettlement plan. This action, gentlemen, will save us trouble, expense and time."

"WON'T WORK ANY MORE."

Forsterer's statement was followed by a wrangle between Morf and Commissioner W. H. Edwards on the question of whether or not the amendment could be placed on the straight ballot without expense to the city. Edwards wanted Morf to look into the law and give the council an opinion on this point.

"You gave me forty-eight hours in which to draw up this opinion," said Morf, "and I have had to work until 1 o'clock in the morning the last two mornings. I refuse to work any more on this proposition between now and Sunday."

The argument was finally settled by former Assistant City Attorney C. A. Beardsley, who explained that the state constitution had been amended in 1914 expressly to provide for proceedings of this nature. Edwards said that he was satisfied and was ready to vote to have the amendment placed on the ballot as did Commissioners H. S. Anderson and W. J. Baccus, but on complaint of Mayor Davie that he had had insufficient time to consider the proposition, the matter was laid over until tomorrow. Tomorrow will be the last day on which the council may decide whether or not the initiative shall have to be resorted to.

MORF'S STAND.

Morf said in his statement:

"I am of the opinion that the proposed amendments are illegal and beyond the power of the legislature to approve in the charter of Oakland. The city, in my opinion, is powerless to enact such charter legislation. The matter can only be reached by general law and by amending the existing law of the state with which the proposed amendments conflict."

The opinion continues to state that the indeterminate franchise clause is in conflict with the state civil code which provides for street railroad franchises "for a term of years not exceeding fifty." Morf declares the question to be whether or not the maximum term of fifty years is a "municipal affair" as distinguished from the matter which properly should be dealt with by the state legislature and by general law of the state, because it is a state affair. He declared that he did not believe that it was a "municipal affair."

Corporations Must Pay Huge Fee Bill

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 10.—With only four days remaining in which to pay the state corporation tax, 8000 corporations have failed to pay and will be penalized unless they send their money to State Treasurer Richardson before Monday night. These 8000 companies are to pay $5,000,000. If they don't come across by Monday night a penalty of 15 per cent will be added. In order to expedite business during these last few days, Richardson is accepting payment in drafts or certified checks.

Poison Brings to Woman New Life

Baser Personality Slain, Say Physicians

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Louise La Salle is dead, but the woman who was Louise La Salle is recovering at the San Francisco Hospital.

A bottle of poison that was intended to end all life, merely killed her baser personality, doctors say, and left the loving mother, yearning for her children, for her friends and her relatives.

Three days ago this woman wanted to die. Life had held too much that was bitter and too little that was sweet. But on the threshold of death came the desire to live. She wanted to forget the woman that was and start living for her two pretty children.

"Please make them bring the kiddies," she begged of nurses today. "I want to forget all those things that were—all those horrible days. When I am well I want to leave here to take the children again. I am going to start all over."

PLAGUE GRIPE ON N. Y. SLACKENED

Fewer Deaths Reported From Epidemic; Situation Dormant.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Fewer deaths, but little change in the development of the epidemic of infantile paralysis was noted in today's bulletin of the health department. During the twenty-four hours preceding 10 o'clock today the plague killed thirty-eight children and 175 new cases were reported in the greater city. Yesterday's deaths numbered fifty-eight and new cases 183.

MANY CASES REPORTED.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—Two deaths from infantile paralysis and sixteen new cases were reported here yesterday. This is a new high record for the number of cases in a single day. Four new cases were reported in the state outside of Philadelphia. Unless the disease is checked the authorities say it may be necessary to postpone the opening of the schools.

BILLINGS, Mont., Aug. 10.—Two new cases of infantile paralysis were reported in Billings yesterday, each in a part of the city where the malady has not appeared before. This makes a total of six recent cases, one of which has proved fatal.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The public health service, aroused over the inability to check the infantile paralysis epidemic in New York, has called a meeting of state health authorities here for next Thursday. Plans will be developed to combat the spread of the disease.

ROSLYN, L. I., Aug. 10.—Prominent residents and physicians of Nassau county have subscribed $40,000, which it is planned to increase to $100,000 to fight the infantile paralysis epidemic in the county. A laboratory is to be established.

U. S. Asked to Bar Enemies From Estate

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—The British government, probating the will of Samuel Leak, former San Francisco accountant, who died in the trenches in France, leaving large properties in England, has directed that none of a small estate in California shall fall into the hands of her enemies.

In a letter of permission to probate received by Public Administrator Hines and presented today to Judge Graham, the English court stipulates that in allowing Hines to act they must restrict him from disposing of the estate to a German, Austrian, Bulgarian or Turk. Leak is survived by a father, now in England.

"WIFE BEATER," SHE ALLEGES.

Naming four separate dates upon which she alleges that her husband struck her, and declaring that on "many other occasions" he beat and bruised her, Dora Hoppes filed suit for divorce this morning against Herbert Hoppes. The marriage of the couple was celebrated in Oakland on February 9, 1913. They have a son of the age of nineteen months. The plaintiff states that her husband earns $90 a month, and of this amount she asks the court to award her $50 a month alimony.

PAPER CRISIS IS DUE IN OCTOBER

National Survey Indicates Scarcity of Materials for Manufacture.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. — The crisis in the news print paper situation, which already has cut down newspaper profits enormously, will not be reached until late in October, when contracts come up for renewal, according to reports received from many sources by the Federal trade committee. The Presidential election, together with the European war, is expected to increase an already unparalleled demand for news print, which manufacturers tell the trade commission they will hardly be able to meet. This year, for the first time, they have not been able to lay up a large reserve during the summer.

The trade commission's report on its investigation of news print prices, it was announced today, will be published not later than October 1, regardless of whether Congress still is in session. Probably a brief report will be given two weeks beforehand, summarizing the findings. As yet the mass of material has not been sufficiently digested for officials to indicate definitely its trend.

The great question in deciding whether there has been collusion among the manufacturers to boost prices unduly is said to be whether the increased demand for paper has been entirely disproportionate to the increase of production. Manufacturers claim that publishers are using 20 per cent more paper than ever before. Consumption figures presented to the commission, however, vary widely. G. F. Steele, secretary of the Newspaper Print Manufacturing Association, has estimated that figures for June show "the largest daily production of news print ever recorded." Shipments, he declared, represented 99 per cent of this production.

None of the substitutes for pulp recently suggested is commercially feasable, according to officials of the various bureaus interested. Cotton stalks, most frequently mentioned, would be prohibitively expensive to collect, they say. The same situation holds for corn stalks, broom corn, rice straw and flax. As yet the experiments have not passed the laboratory stage, and so far as is known no commercial use of the discoveries is contemplated anywhere.

More Russian Troops Are Landed in France

BREST, Aug. 10.—Another contingent of Russian troops has been landed here. The soldiers were given an enthusiastic welcome.

The first Russian troops to land in France arrived at Marseilles on April 20, having sailed half way round the world from Vladivostok. They were followed by three other contingents and after a short rest were sent into the trenches in Champagne. Nothing has been made public officially as to the numbers of this Russian expeditionary force, but unofficial estimates have placed the strength of the first contingents at not less than 20,000 men. The earlier arrivals had no arms and were equipped by the French.

State Controls Fishing Rights

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 9.—Danger of California facing a crab famine passed today when the Third District Appellate court decided that Humboldt county has no right to attempt to monopolize crabs. Charles Cencinino of San Francisco hied himself to the fishing grounds of Humboldt county to catch crabs upon learning they were plentiful there, and knowing they were mighty scarce in other parts of the state.

But Humboldt county had sought to protect itself by passing an ordinance prohibiting the shipment of crabs from the county. Cencinino was arrested. He appealed to the higher court and the decision today is in his favor, holding that counties, cities, towns and townships no longer have the authority to legislate upon fish and game matters—that it is strictly up to the state.

Prize Hereford Bull Brings Record Price

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 10.—Fifteen years ago Jim Price was a farm employe at the Shadeland Stock Farm in this county. A few days ago James Price of Onalaska, Wis., sold a Hereford bull at an auction sale in Kansas City for $11,100, the highest price ever pair for such an animal. Jim Price, the farm employe, and James Price, the Hereford breeder, are one and the same.

Price saved a few hundred dollars, bought some cheap land in Wisconsin for $10 an acre and began breeding Hereford cattle. He obtained two fairly good cows and began to build up his stock. His friends here began to hear vague rumors that he was succeeding. But they heard little definite news until they learned he had raised a Hereford bull that had broken the world's record for value.

Price now has one of the finest Hereford herds in the world.

Weds Brother of Her Dead Husband

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 10.—John Politzer was on his death bed. His wife and 7-year-old son were at his side, as was his brother, Richard Politzer, 23 years old.

Suddenly the dying man summoned all his strength and sat up in bed. Grasping the hand of his wife, he placed it in that of his brother.

"I want you to marry him," he said to his wife. "Richard is a good man. He is four years younger than you, it is true, but he cares for you. And he loves our little boy."

John Politzer sank back on the bed and died.

Two days after Richard Politzer and Mrs. Ernestine Politzer, widow of Richard's brother, entered the office of the marriage license clerk, Matthew Egan, and obtained a license to wed.

Preparing for Other Guardsmen

EL PASO, Aug. 10.—Camping sites are being prepared here today for 15,000 more militiamen. It is understood that many regiments still at mobilization points in their respective states will be sent to the border.

Only 3 per cent of the militiamen and regulars along the border are ill from any cause, according to reports to General George Bell Jr. In most cases the illness is of a minor nature. The percentage is considered remarkably low. A specially constructed hospital train will be run along the border to pick up the disabled cases and bring them to base hospitals.

SENATE MEMBERS CONSIDER TREATY

Purchase of Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 May Be Rushed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. — The treaty by which the United States would acquire the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000, recently signed by Secretary Lansing and Danish Minister Brun, now is before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and probably will be considered early next week. It became known today that the treaty was sent to the Senate in executive session Tuesday and referred to the committee without discussion.

At the request of the Danish foreign office, the terms of the convention are to be considered confidential until both governments agree to have them announced. It is understood that in return for the cession of the Islands of St. Thomas, St. Croix, St. John and "adjacent islands and rocks," with all public buildings, fortifications, public funds, rights and concessions belonging to the Danish government, the United States is to pay in gold the sum of money stipulated within 90 days after ratification of the treaty, maintain certain grants, licenses and concessions granted in the islands by Denmark, and guarantee the rights of Danish citizens residing in the ceded territory.

Senator Stone, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, said consideration of the treaty would be hastened and that it would be ratified by the Senate before adjournment of this session. He will call a meeting of the committee early next week.

$3,500,000 to Be Spent On Estuary Shipbuilding

Dutch shipbuilders, neither before or doing the war, but that so soon as Holland was closed to the export of ships for European firms, at prices that are fabulously high — much higher than the prices which our shipbuilders would ask if there were a free export of ships built in this country."

The Dutch shipbuilding industry cannot exist without foreign orders, and the livelihood of 16,000 workmen is at stake. On December 31, 1914, less than 10 per cent of the tonnage building at Rotterdam was being constructed to foreign orders, this proportion had risen on June 1, 1916, to about 34 per cent.

It is petitioned that the royal decree on the export of ships shall be so amended that ships may at all times be exported, except if it should appear that at the time of their completion the state has need of such tonnage.

PACKERS ENTER FIELD.

Libby, McNeil & Libby, meat packers of Chicago, who have entered the salmon and pineapple business to a large extent, have ordered a four-masted schooner which is to make this port. With their entrance into the merchant marine it is announced that they expect to have built several more vessels, some of which probably will be built here. The first of the fleet is being built at Astoria because local yards were so filled with orders.

England Accused of Trade Interference

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 10. — At a meeting of the American Export Chamber of Commerce today the increased difficulties of trade between America and Holland were discussed and it was decided to formulate a statement to the British government pointing out that since October, 1915, American goods sent to Holland under Netherlands overseas trust conditions were frequently not permitted to reach the consignees here.

The chamber suggested that a British official or board be appointed at American ports of shipments to examine and certify the neutral destinations of consignments with a view to insuring delivery upon arrival here.

Famous Engineer to Confer on Bay Bridge

Wilbur J. Watson, noted engineer of Cleveland, who is making plans for the proposed bridge across the bay between Oakland and San Francisco, has arrived here to attend the meeting of the board of engineers, August 15.

Watson, who has built the longest and highest bridges in the world, and who at the present is building bridges for a new terminal line in Ohio, at the cost of $20,000,000, declares that a cross-bay bridge is needed.

"I have studied the project for a year," said Watson today, "and I find it a crying need of the bay cities. "It would be the longest and greatest bridge in the world, a double-decker, with room for four tracks and three roads. Great benefits are to be derived from such a bridge, beside timesaving."

According to Watson's estimate, the cost of the bridge will not exceed $22,000,000.

COOKS' HELPERS WILL PICKET

Not Served With Temporary Restraining Order: to Continue Boycott.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Cooks' helpers' union officials announced today that the Hofbrau cafe would continue to be picketed until they had been served with the temporary restraining order issued yesterday by Judge Hunt. Service was made on the other unions involved, but cooks' helpers had not been served up to 10 o'clock today.

Interest in the strike situation today centered on the hearing of Supervisor Hayden's anti-picketing ordinance before the police commission, the circulating of the law and order committee's petition placing an anti-picketing ordinance before the voters, and a meeting of hotel men with representatives of the restaurant owners and the law and order committee.

Petitions on the anti-picketing measure were circulated late yesterday. The police committee's hearing today was attended by representatives of the culinary workers, the restaurant owners and the law and order committee.

On the petition of the striking culinary unions, Superior Judge Hunt today shortened the time to show cause in the anti-picketing injunction proceedings brought by the Hofbrau. The case will be heard Monday.

LETTERS OF MEN TELL OF BLAST

Suspect Wrote of "Fright When Black Tom Blew Up," and Two Are Held in $10,000 Bail Pending Investigation

Design for Torpedo Envelope for John D. Rockefeller and Memorandum Concerning President Held as 'Evidence'

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Aug. 10.—A drawing of what at first was thought to be a submarine and later was said by the designer to be a self-propelling torpedo, together with an envelope addressed to John D. Rockefeller and a note book containing the name and address of President Wilson were found today among the effects of Erling Iverson, who, with Axel Larsen, was arrested yesterday on suspicion of complicity in the disastrous munition explosion on Black Tom island two weeks ago.

Although the two men produced persons who declared they were with them in another part of the city at the time of the explosion, they ware held in $10,000 bail pending investigation. The drawing of the torpedo bore the inscription, "Aprroved by Captain J. Howard, chief of the U. S. submarine department, June 26, 1916," there was a notation "to be built by Iverson & Co., London," and another, "revolutions 150 miles an hour. For U. S."

Iverson told the authorities that he planned and designed the torpedo and said "Iverson & Co." referred to himself.

Underneath the heading "President Wilson" in his note book appeared a meaningless paragraph which Iverson said he wrote "to amuse himself."

One letter which Iverson wrote to his mother and did not post told of "the fright he got when Black Tom blew up," and said there were "still eight cars of ammunition in Black Tom yard."

Dead Body Raises Robbery Suspicion

OCEANSIDE, Aug. 10.—The decapitated body of Ernest Johnson, 45, Santa Fe employe, was found here today on the railroad track, the Owl train having severed the head. Alongside the body was found a whisky bottle, almost full. Welts on the head led the police to believe Johnson was assaulted, robbed and thrown on the track. Johnson appeared on the streets last night with a big roll of bills. No money was found in the pockets when the body was found. The authorities are investigating the case.

POET GODIN KILLED.

PARIS, Aug. 10, 8:30 p. m.—Andre Godin, Egyptologist and poet, has been killed in service at the front by an aerial torpedo as he was leaving a communication trench at the back of the French line. His unpublished papers, the result of prolonged research, are to be edited by his fiancee, Madame Berthe de Nyse, assisted by some of Godin's scholarly friends.

NATIVES PLAN TO INVADE ROSE CITY

Ten Thousand Expected to March at Santa Rosa on September 9th.

Ten thousand Native Sons and Daughters, representing Northern California parlors, will be in the line of march on Admission day, September 9, when the order celebrates California's birth into the states at Santa Rosa, according to late estimates of committees in charge of the celebration. Brass bands and symbolical floats will also lengthen the parade.

Santa Rosa authorities, business men and residents are collaborating with the committees in their plans; a general scheme of official decoration will be carried out and the city is prepared for a session of carnival and fun. Street entertainments, band concerts, night parades, auto races, tugs of war, baseball games, athletic sports, literary exercises and banquets will help fill up a busy program.

Local parlors which have signified their intention of representing this side of the bay include: Alameda, No. 47; Oakland Parlor, No. 50; Eden Parlor, No. 113; Wisteria Parlor, No. 127; Halcyon Parlor, No. 146; Brooklyn Parlor, No. 151; Washington Parlor, No. 169; Athens Parlor, No. 195; Berkeley Parlor, No. 210; Richmond Parlor, No. 217; Estudillo Parlor, No. 238; Claremont Parlor, No. 240; Fruitvale Parlor, No. 252, and Niles Parlor, No. 250. Although San Francisco parlors have not reported their intentions to the organizations on this side of the bay, it is thought that they will be represented at Santa Rosa in full complement, together with the parlors from the interior counties.

BANK PRESIDENT FOR SMITH LEASE

Details of Agreement Can Be Arranged After Amendment Passed, Says Lowry.

Russell Lowry, president of the First National Bank, has expressed to Mr. F. M. Smith and his associates approval of the proposal to lease Oakland's western waterfront.

"Without passing upon the details of the lease that is proposed by F. M. Smith and associates," declared Lowry, "which, of course, can be arranged by negotiation after the people have decided to permit the making of a lease, I am in favor of having the western waterfront improved by private capital. When a proposition is made to the city to have the mud flats that have been lying idle for 5000 years converted into an industrial and business center, bringing increased population and increased prosperity, I am in favor of it. Oakland will have its improved harbor and its modern docks without cost of a cent to the people, and this will be in payment of the lease of the land. Otherwise it is unlikely anything will be accomplished for many years, for the city has no money with which to develop the waterfront, and the people are in no mood for new bond issues.

"The expenditure of $5,000,000 in improvements means immediate work for many people and future employment for many more, all of which will tend to increase the business of Oakland from a retail standpoint; while the building of a great terminal where rail and water meet will mean that we shall have a world commerce that we cannot get in any other way.

"Decision as to the details of the lease may be made after the election, and I feel sure that such details can be worked out in a manner whereby the interests of the city will be safeguarded and at the same time the lessees may be assured of a reasonable profit on their investment."

ALDEN CLUB TO MEET.

"Bear" Afloat; Tugs May Save Ship

EUREKA, Aug. 10.—Hopes of saving the steamer Bear, which went aground on a reef near here in June, with a loss of five lives, ran high today, when it was learned that the tugs which gave the first pull to the vessel last night had succeeded in getting her afloat in a basin that had been dug around her. It was at first believed that the final pull would not eb made until Sunday, but last night's effort was so successful that it is believed the tugs may attempt to bring her to deep water before that time.

Oakland Is "Sweet" to Filipinos

Oakland is the sweetest city in the world, according to H. S. Martin, vice governor and secretary of public instruction in the Philippine islands, in an address before the women's bureau of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce yesterday in the Hotel Oakland.

"This is the sweetest city in the world, at least that is what we think in the Philippines," he said. "Oakland sends us practically all of the candy that we consume. We have tried the sweets of other cities, but there are no sweeter sweets than the sweets of the city of Oakland."

Early Withdrawal of Pacific Fleet From Southern Waters Contemplated by Officials; Situation Reported Improved

Apache Scouts, With Pershing Expedition, Find Peace Irksome; Make Day and Night Hideous for Uncle Sam Boys

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 10.—Early withdrawal of the majority of vessels of the Pacific fleet from Mexican waters is contemplated by the Navy Department, according to word received here today from Washington. Admiral Caperton has been ordered to submit to Secretary Daniels a statement of the locations of the several warships, it is reported, and at least three of the vessels will be sent to this port at once.

Continued improvement in the Mexican situation is understood to have prompted the Navy Department to recall a large part of the fleet north.

The destroyer Whipple, the only warship now in the harbor, will leave for Mazatlan today.

LO IS OUT OF LUCK.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY PUNITIVE EXPEDITION, Mexico, Aug. 10 (by motor truck to Columbus, N. M.)—Lo, the poor Indian, is out of luck. There is no longer call for him to trail the elusive Villistas. Paralyzing peace has wrought dissension in his camp, and he is unpopular with his neighbors.

The score of Apache scouts accompanying the expedition are placed in a camp by themselves. There, war dances with yip-piy trimmings and vociferous disputes over the number of notches each is entitled to cut in his pistol stock, disturb the peace of the entire base camp. The old scouts who herded Geronimo in the old days have coalesced against the younger element. One of the chief trouble-makers, Jesus Valesquez, who laid claim to nine "kills," has gone, no one knows where, but rumor says his departure was due to official invitation.

Besides disputes and war dances, it requires close watching to keep beverages with more than three per cent alcohol out of the Apache camp. On one occasion, Lieutenant J. J. Shannon, who is responsible for the good conduct of the Indians, had to call upon his boxing ability to subdue two scouts who had gone on a celebration.

To reconcile the Indians to their lot, hunting is allowed. The other day a party brought in ten antelope. Metal work serves to pass the dull hours. Loco Jim hammered out the silver stars for Colonel George A. Dodd when the Colonel's promotion to Brigadier-General was received. But peace proves irksome and the scouts go on the warpath at intervals either with a quarrel or a war-dance.

Velvet Chief Fall Hat Need

Purple, Brown or Black, Matters Not

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Her hat will be purple velvet. Fashion dictators at today's session of the Chicago Garment Manufacturers' Fall Style Show at Bismarck said so.

If it isn't purple velvet, it will be brown velvet, or black velvet. There will be a great deal of velvet in women's hats this fall, especially for the milliners.

Women's fall wearing apparel continued the center of attraction today for Chicago visitors attending the show.

Not the least of this show was the display of hats. The purple one seemed to attract the most attention, probably because the wholesalers had whispered that "Women will like the purple ones" and "They're all the rage," and a few other well directed remarks that make "this year's styles" always the prettiest.

After the purple velvets, buyers planned to take home with them for their trade brown velvets, black velvets and a lot of chic, wide-brimmed white hats with a bright colored crown and a narrow ribbon to match the crown, on the brim.

The sport hat this fall is a floppy felt affair with not much of anything on it but a band.

"They'll take, though."

ALL-NIGHT PARTY FOR GOOD FELLOWS

Funds to Be Devoted to Aid of Bomb Victims and Families of Killed.

"Eight hours of fun" is the slogan adopted by the Goodfellows' Club for the big ball and entertainment planned for the evening of September 1 for the benefit of families of those who were injured or killed in the San Francisco bomb explosion. The Goodfellows are planning to fill the big arena of the Municipal Auditorium, where the benefit will be held.

Enthused over the project by the particular appeal of the cause, members of clubs and organizations throughout the east bay section have offered their aid to make the benefit the most successful yet held about the bay. The fun will commence at 9o'clock, and "something doing every minute" is promised until 6 o'clock the following morning.

The following appeal to the people of the east bay cities and Alameda County to assist in the cause has been issued over the names of directors, officers and members of the Goodfellows:

"We, the undersigned officers and representatives of the Goodfellows' Club, do earnestly appeal to the people of Alameda County to assist in some small way to make the grand ball a success. The funds acquired are to be subscribed to a fund to relieve the distress of the beloved children and wives of those who so innocently and unfortunately were the victims of the recent bomb explosion in San Francisco. Let Oakland do her part is the earnest wish and prayer of the officers and members of the Goodfellows' Club."

The following committee has been appointed: Sheriff Frank Barnet, chairman; Joseph Robinson, P. H. Blake, F. Barkmeyer, C. M. Todhunter, J. Donde, W. Meyer, Owen Paul, Charles Hyde, A. J. Woolsey, J. Wenk, Harry Williams, N. Boyson, L. Leal, E. Wythe, H. W. Wheatley, W. H. Dunlap, R. F. Driscoll, Ed Lemeiux, J. J. Hannifin Jr., W. G. Thornalley, J. Cardoza, L. Busich, W. E. Umphred, Phil Carey, A. Gouig, E. L. Arnest, J. M. Kelly, Fred S. Lewis, M. Goldwater, Joe Adams, L. W. Rood and Joe Lannels.

FEARS TO FACE OAKLAND VICTIM

Antonio Romanio Pleads Guilty Rather Than Be Confronted by 12-Year-Old-Girl.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 10.—"I don't want to be confronted by that little girl on the witness stand and hear her relate that story," said Antonio Romano, a farm hand, when he pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting 12-year-old Alda Berry at Coyote July 23.

"I couldn't bear to see her again. I can't listen to her story. I want to plead guilty," he added.

Romano's remarks were in answer to the explanations of John P. Fitzgerald and Eugene M. Rosenthal, his attorneys, that he could be sent to the penitentiary for fifty years for the crime.

The efforts of the attorneys to explain the seriousness of his predicament had no effect upon Romano and he pleaded guilty to the charge.

Superior Judge Beasly set tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock as the time for sentence. The maximum penalty for the crime for which Romano is being held is fifty years.

Romano on the night of July 23 broke into the home where Alda Berry, an Oakland girl, was stopping at Coyote. He cut his way through a screen door and entered the child's bedroom. He wrapped her clothing about her head to prevent her screams from being heard and carried her nearly a mile away, where she was attacked.

Romano then led the girl part way back to the house, released her and endeavored to escape.

DEMOCRATS' PROGRAM IS IN DANGER

Republican Senators Decline to Accept Legislative Plan and Adjournment as It Is Offered by the Majority

Schedule of Measure Fails to Include Important Work, and Prospect Is Bright for Fight When the Vote Is Attempted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Republicans of the Senate in conference today declined to accept the executive program submitted yesterday by the Democratic steering committee with a view to adjournment of Congress before September 1. Those who were inclined to agree were outvoted by Senators demanding action on the immigration bill at this session.

After two hours deliberation on the Democratic proposal that no contested legislation be taken up except the shipping, revenue, workmen's compensation, appropriation bills and conference reports the Republican conference adopted a resolution declaring: "The power to control both legislation and adjournment rests with the Democratic majority in Congress. The Republican Senators reserve the right to support or oppose or request action on any legislation now pending, and they further urge that the immigration bill shall be taken up, considered and acted on at this session."

The compromise program offered by the Democrats yesterday would have eliminated from the legislative program one measure in which many Progressive Senators are much interested, the corrupt practices bill, and they are said to have insisted in the conference today that they would be a party to no agreement which would prevent them from demanding a vote on that measure.

No mention of this bill was made, however, in the conference report.

Senate Democrats have already determined in caucus that the immigration bill should be made the unfinished business of the Senate when Congress meets in December. Whether the action of the Republicans today will proiong the session beyond September 1 could not be foretold. Democratic leaders said they thought it would make no difference with plans for bringing the session to a close and was taken merely to emphasize the fact that the Republicans did all in their power to get a vote on the immigration bill before the national election.

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 10. — Three masked robbers gagged and bound Mrs. Joe Klafki, more than 60 years of age, in her apartments here and robbed her of diamond rings and earrings said to be worth $2000. After taking $31 from her purse which they found on a dresser in the room, the robbers made their escape and no trace of them had been found.

News and Views of Oakland Theaters

PANTAGES

Breaking all records for summer shows and for summer houses at the Oakland Pantages, the mammoth bill this week at the Twelfth street temple of vaudeville has established a new mark in Oakland's theatrical history. It solves the mystery of the Laughing Mask, for that mysterious individual takes off his mask, discloses his identity, and brings the wonderful picture serial, "The Iron Claw," to an end. But, perhaps best of all, it has brought to Oakland the wonderful court artists of the Shah of Persia, in the big Al Golem Company of Oriental pantomime, gorgeous in coloring, in which the most remarkable whirlwind acrobatic features and necromancy are blended. The act is a riot of color and whirlwind feats.

There are other big features on the bill—Joe Roberts, king of the banjoists, who offers real music, Mabel Harper, the celebrated "Nut" comedienne, and Storm and Marston, in their unique sketch "His Alibi," the Brown Fletcher Trio in a novel musical offering.

Next week comes Rita Gould, the inimitable. Miss Gould, a Winter Garden star in New York, is one of the celebrated women of stageland, she and Al Jolson making the two record hits at the great New York show-shop. She will offer some of her greatest successes next week in her Oakland engagement. Miss Gould is unique among American comediennes. She can impersonate any type of woman, and get fun out of her—or tears, if she wants to, for she is a true artist, and can play on the human heartstrings as she will. Lepinski's canines, in a splendid trained dog act, and several other interesting features are scheduled.

OAKLAND PHOTO

Marie Doro, in "Common Ground," is known as "The Kid," an expert "slipper-on" in a paper flower factory. Brought up in the misery and squalor of the slums, she has procured for herself a huge velvet hat which she trimmed with lace, flowers, fur, ribbon and a large, waving plume. The hat is a monstrosity, but she loves it. None of the other girls possesses a hat of such magnitude and grandeur. The Kid is removed from her slum environments and placed in the charge of a sincere and competent middle-aged woman, who by her careful training, instills into the heart and mind of the child the elements of refinement and simplicity.

During the twelve months of her mental and spiritual metamorphosis, the hat remains with the girl but it undergoes as many changes as does its possessor. Many housewives who would learn a few tricks in simple millinery had best see this wonderful photoplay. All of these different hats that she wears in this picture is in reality one. She has worked out all these different changes and trimmings with her own quick mind and nimble fingers.

On the same program is Billie Burke. Her name, and no more, is necessary to let one know that a treat is in store for all who see her wonderful series of pictures of the life of an heiress, entitled "Gloria's Romance." It is the thirteenth chapter that Miss Burke appears in this show, which is at the Oakland Photo Theater for the rest of this week. In this chapter she is arrested by the police in a mid-night raid on a saloon and brought up before the judge, the father of her sister-in-law. Until they discover that she was searching for the assassin of her lover in that place, her parents can not understand why she could have been arrested in such a place. During all her trials Dr. Royce is her constant aid and protector. There is no doubt that there would not be many who would not be willing to aid her find the criminal.

MEXICAN OFFICIAL DIES.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 10.—Sub-Secretary of Foreign Relations Amador died today after a ten-days illness of gangrene, which affected his heart. A blood clot in the leg caused gangrene. Two operations were performed in an effort to save his life, the last yesterday.

MACDONOUGH

Dillon and King, two of the most popular comedians that ever graced an Oakland stage, will close their summer engagement at the Macdonough theater next Saturday night. "The Knock-Out," their current attraction, which is proving most appropriate as a farewell vehicle for the skit is by far the funniest comedy with musical trimmings that has been offered theater fans in many moons.

"The Knock-Out" is proving a veritable stage triumph for Dillon and King. The piece is replete with delicious comedy, amusing complication, much real action and a plentiful supply of whistleable song numbers. One of the many laughable episodes contained in the piece is a boxing match participated in by Will King as Ike Leschinski and Will Hayes as Robert Fitzsimmons.

Dillon and King are being assisted by the following cast: Vilma Stech, Hazel Wainwright, Reece Gardner, Jack Wise, Will Hayes and the Rialto Quartet. The following musical numbers are proving exceedingly popular: "In the Old Back Seat of a Henry Ford," "Chinese Blue," "The Greatest Battle Song," "If I Knocked the 'L' out of Kelly," and "The Spaniard That Blighted my Life."

MONTE CARTER NEXT.

Commencing Sunday, August 13, the Monte Carter Musical Comedy Company will begin a special engagement with one of the finest companies of artists ever assembled on the Pacific coast, with such stars as Mindell Kingston and George Ebner, who have just finished a two-year tour of the Orpheum circuit; Alma Aster, dainty soubrette, Blanche Gilmore, Walteer Spencer, George Weiss and Monte Carter's Dancing Chicks.

IDORA PARK

On Sunday afternoon at the inland beach at Idora park will be seen the last fashion show of the season. All of the various forms of outdoor sports will be featured. Golfing, fishing, boating, bathing, hunting and walking are all to be shown "costumed as they should be."

The fashion show will be given on a raised platform on the inland beach at 3 p. m. sharp. The innovation of having photo plays given in the huge Roman amphitheater is proving most successful. The pictures given this week are very good, the first on the program being Anita Stewart in "The Daring of Diana," and the second feature being J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Silent Battle." For the coming week, commencing Sunday night, two entirely new first-run five-reel photoplays are to be given. "The Light at Dusk," which is considered by moving picture experts to be the most attractive movie put before the public in many months, tells of the struggles of the peasants of Russia and of their immigration to this country and their consequent rise and adoption of American ways and customs. Orin Johnston, who plays the feature role of Vladmir Krestovsw, is admirable as the upstart peasant, who soon forgets all former ties made in his little Russian town.

"The Fathers of Men," which features Robert Edeson, is a very strong play indeed and points a striking moral.

Miss Deane is still being featured on the inland beach. Each afternoon at 3 sharp Miss Deane gives her exhibition of high diving and at 9 each evening is to be seen in the skating rink in her roller skating interpretation of the latest New York dance crazes. "Walkin' the Dawg" and "Skinnin' the Cat."

Woman Hurt by Key Route Accident Dies

Mrs. Mary Walters, wife of George Walters, wealthy Petaluma rancher, died at Merritt Hospital last evening from injuries received when a Key Route car left the tracks at Twenty-second and Market streets on July 18. This is the accident in which Mrs. Walters' daughter, Mrs. D. B. Wall, also of Petaluma, was killed, and her granddaughter, Dorothy Wall, 4 years old, was seriously injured. Mrs. Walters received compound fractures of both legs and internal injuries.

The funeral will be held at noon tomorrow, following services at the chapel of the Grant D. Miller Company.

ORPHEUM

One of the greatest character actors of America is at the Oakland Orpheum and theater goers of this city have a chance to see the talent that made Alexander Carr famous in "Potash and Perlmutter." In that play Alexander Carr was the chief comedian. Now he is appearing in a striking playlet from the pen of Edgar Allen Woolf, called "An April Shower." The charm and playing of Mr. Carr suggests some of the work of David Warfield in "The Auctioneer." Mr. Carr is so great an artist that no one would think of considering it an imitation.

There were tears and laughter in evidence as a tribute to the "April Shower" play at the Orpheum and Alexander Carr scores for himself and for his play one of the biggest hits ever checked up to the credit of an Orpheum artist.

Another triumph this week is that of Miss Justina Wayne in "Sadie Love." This young lady is the new leading woman of the Oakland Orpheum Players. She is an Oakland girl who has been leading woman for Cyril Scott, Nat Goodwin and others, and who is perhaps the finest actress that any stock company in this part of the world has ever offered.

Miss Wayne plays the role of "Sadie" in the tabasco dramatic farce that will be the talk of the town before many days. It is the vehicle that Marjorie Rambeau used to make her bow in on Broadway. Oliver Morosco produced the play and it was a sensation. It is full of boudoirs and pajamas, wedding trips and stateroms, Italian princes and French ladies. The crowds at the Orpheum were keen for it. They sit on the edge of their seats at times and at other times indulge in bursts of laughter. That means that the play is a very great success.

"The Boys with the Chairs," Martinetti and Sylvester, are with us again and just as funny and just as daring as ever in their acrobatic comedy stunts.

Jim and Betty Morgan sing their own songs, play the clarinet and frolic about a bit. Mr. Morgan is the author of "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You" and therefore is forgiven for singing it again.

G. Aldo Randegger is an Italian pianist who plays classical things in a way that seems to please everybody.

There are several Paramount motion pictures shown in the bill this week, the Pictograph Magazine features including "A View of J. P. Morgan at the Helm of a big 50-foot Racing Yacht off of Long Island Sound; Treating a Tree for Sickness by a Tree Dentist; A View of People who live on Roofs in New York City; and a picture showing How Better Babies can be Trained."

FRANKLIN

Owing to the trouble this country is now having in Mexico it should be interesting to the average American citizen to see the type of people who once ruled this much reviled land in the days of long ago.

"The Captive God," in which Wm. S. Hart plays the leading role, is laid in Mexico and the costumes and action are of the time of the Aztecs, once the proud rulers of that country.

When the Spanish conquerors came to this continent in search of more wealth and land to claim in the name of their queen, they found a wealthy, artistic, and peace loving people. They were the nation known as the Aztecs. These people were ruled by one who was known as Montezuma and he was all powerful. He received the Spanish invaders with open arms and gave them many costly presents as a token of his good will toward them. These presents only succeeded in creating a lust for more in the hearts of the Spaniards, and they took more—by force, laying waste the land and murdering the inhabitants to further their aim.

In "The Captive God" William Hart is seen as a man captured by the Aztecs and believed by them to be a god. Robert McKim is Montezuma, and Enid Markey is his daughter. Thousands of people were used in the making of the picture. It will be shown at the Franklin theater today, tomorrow and Saturday.

EDITORIAL

A great majority of the merchandise sold by Bowman's is sold regularly at cut prices. These prices are considerably below the advertised price put upon the article by the manufacturer.

For example, the first item among tomorrow's specials in Kellogg's 25c Ant Paste. We sell this right along for 20c. Therefore when we quote a special two-day price of 16c, you get the advantage of a double cut in price—first from 25c to 20c, and then to 16c.

This is generally the case with our two-day specials.

Therefore, please remember that "Regular Price" does not always mean OUR regular price.

For example, here are a few illustrations of our regular every-day cut prices compared with the manufacturers' advertised prices:

"SATISFACTION"

Lynwood Rubber Products.

Bowman's is the only place in Oakland where Lynwood rubber goods can be found.

Of all of the many brands of rubber goods, this line seems to give by far the most satisfactory service in proportion to the cost.

There are brands selling at higher prices which might wear as well, but in all of our experience no bigger money's worth has ever been obtainable in merchandise of this character.

Lynwood hot water bottles, bulb and fountain syringes and rubber gloves are all guaranteed to give good service. Hundreds of people are using them and everyone seems satisfied.

It is therefore with confidence that we recommend Lynwood rubber products. We place the reputation of our store behind every article bearing this trademark, thereby safeguarding every customer.

The hot water bottles sell from $1.25 to $2.00, according to size. The bulb syringes from $1.50 to $2.00. The fountain syringes from $2.00 to $2.75. The gloves for 75c.

"CONFIDENCE"

The Watch Word of Our Kodak Business

One of the most emphatic evidences of the satisfaction our customers are receiving from the kodak printing and developing department is shown in after-vacation work that is now coming in.

No snap shots are more treasured than vacation films. In most cases it is impossible to duplicate them. Those who have taken them are unusually anxious to receive careful printing, because most of their exposures were taken under adverse conditions.

It is therefore a great compliment and an indorsement of our work to have these difficult exposures intrusted to us.

Some of our customers saved their films for weeks until they could bring them personally to us.

Others have sent rolls to our store from great distances, even from the East.

We appreciate this expression of confidence and will continue to do our best to warrant it.

"BOWMAN QUALITY"

Our Greatest Asset

The greatest asset of any permanent business is the good will of its patrons.

Cash in the bank, merchandise upon the shelves, efficiency and location, mean nothing without the confidence of the public.

We realize this fact and with this thought in view we put up certain articles labeled "Bowman Quality."

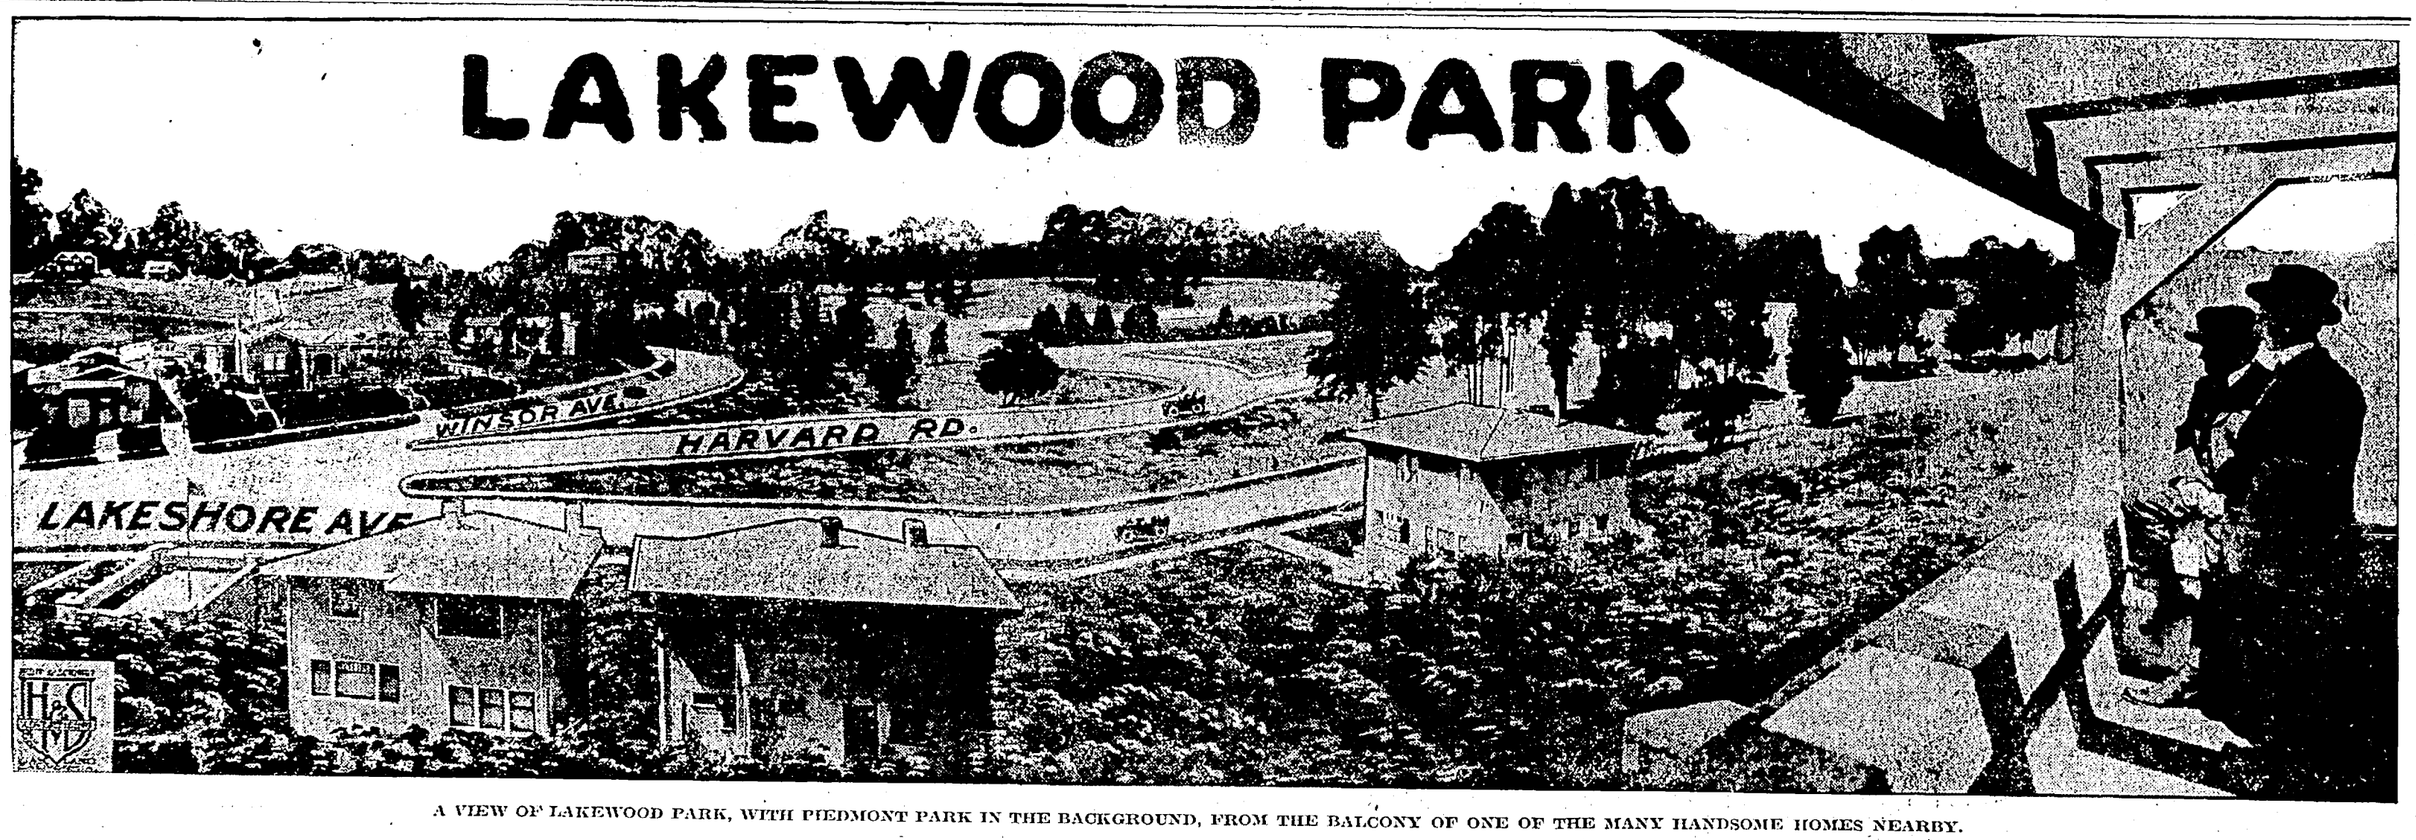

By Bowman Quality we mean "The Best Money Can Buy." If a drug comes in various degrees of merit we select the superlative grade for Bowman Quality.

Therefore, if you want the best Cascara, the best Peroxide of Hydrogen, the strongest Witch Hazel or the purest extracts, try and get the bottles or packages labeled "Bowman Quality."

Among a score or more of these staples are the following, in addition to the above: Epsom Salts, Glycerine, Compound Licorice Powder, Extract of Vanilla or Lemon, Powdered Borax, Castor Oil, Alcohol, Bay Rum, Spirits of Ammonia and Camphor.

CAUGHT IN STEEL ARMS FOUR HOURS

Body of Victim Drawn Into Maw of Machine and Crushed Until Spark of Life Is Gone; Discovered by Employer

Body Pulled Into Huge Bowl and Pounded After Night's Work Is Done; Cries of Dying Man Fail to Bring Relief

Caught in the arm of a dough-mixing machine that he was cleaning early this morning in the bakery of Adolf Kuhn, 4330 San Pablo avenue, Conrad Weidener, a baker, was dragged head-first into the apparatus, hurled up against the side of the bowl-like compartment and crushed to death when the second arm of the mixer caught him under the chin. The accident is supposed to have happened at 1 o'clock, when Weidener was in the habit of scraping the dough from the mixer. The body was not discovered until 4:30 o'clock.

CLEANING BOWL.

According to the proprietor of the bakery, Weidener usually finished his dough-mixing in the neighborhood of 1 o'clock, after which the dough was removed from the mixer, and the cleaning of the machine's interior begun. Weidener evidently stopped the motor, connected with the mixer, and started to scrape the arms of the machine while the wheels were still running on their own momentum. His right hand, extended to full length and engaged in the scraping occupation, was caught in the arm. The wheel, turning all the while, engaged the man's hand and pulled him slowly into the bowl.

The pull of the machine was stronger than Weidener's agonizing attempts to get loose, and he was gradually drawn headfirst into the apparatus, where the second blade, whirling, caught him beneath the chin, threw him against the side of the machine and smashed the breath from his helpless body.

WORKED ALONE.

Weidener was all alone at the time of the accident, and it is thought that the rumblings of the machinery were enough to drown the cries for help, uttered by the struggling man. For three or more hours he was jammed up against the side of the machine, and only the fact that the blades were moving slower than usual kept the huddled body from being cut to pieces. It is the custom of most bakers to stop the motor of the mixer, wait until the arms of the machine are entirely stationary and then clean off the bars of steel. Weidener, according to Kuhn, did not do this, and instead of using his own muscle to turn the blades around for the scraping purpose, he allowed the apparatus to run on its own momentum. It was probably due to his desire to finish his work quickly that death in its most terrible form met him in the back room of the San Pablo bakeshop.

Weidener was 36 years old and had been working at the Kuhn bakery four months. He was unmarried, has no relatives in America and came to this country eight or nine years ago. The body is in the office of the coroner, where an inquest will be held.

Twilight Sleep Is Theme of Pictures

The solution which is being offered for the problem of race suicide and decreasing birth rate in America, painless childbirth, is to be discussed in this city on Thursday, Friday and Saturday mornings for women and in the evenings for men, when a graduate nurse will lecture at the Broadway Theater on "Twilight Sleep," the process which is proving that four-fifths of all births may be without suffering or danger when this method is generally used. Physicians admit that it is a most remarkable state of affairs, that "Twilight Sleep" has been successfully used in Germany for ten years and has been accepted in every country in continental Europe and even as far as Japan, but as yet most American women are unacquainted with it.

For four years Dr. Kurt E. Schlossingk, who prepared the lecture and produced the motion pictures to be given on "Twilight Sleep," was associated with Drs. Kronig and Gauss, the discoverers of the process. In June, 1914, he was sent to this country by the staff of the Frauenklinik at Breiburg for the purpose of teaching gynecologists and obstetricians of this country the technique of the treatment in maternity cases. It was at one of the clinics in Brooklyn that the pictures were made. They show all the details of the treatment in a specific case. Dr. Schlossingk, who himself appears as the attendant in the picture, has, since his arrival in this country, delivered more than 500 twilight babies and has held clinics in many of the principal cities as far west as Chicago.

According to the lecture to be given here, in "Twilight Sleep," the body recognizes pain, but the mind does not register any sensation. The wonderfully rapid recovery of "Twilight Sleep" mothers is pointed out, the death rate of mothers and babies is lower and the babies are healthier than those born under any other treatment.

Girl Flees From Mother Into Wilds

Missing Patient Lost in Mountains, Belief

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Cleverly eluding her mother, who had called to visit her, Miss Agnes Cashion of 1509 Landa street, escaped from Patton Insane Asylum a week ago last Sunday. Yesterday her mother, Mrs. F. E. Cashion, asked the police to look for her.

It is feared she is lost somewhere in the San Bernardino mountains. She started in that direction. This is the second time the girl has run away to the mountains. In August of last year she was lost in the hills north of Pasadena and found after three days.

When Mrs Cashion went to Patton to visit her daughter, she took along a light luncheon, intending to eat under the trees on the grounds with the girl, who was without an attendant, the doctors having pronounced her almost normal.

Miss Cashion begged her mother to go with her to find some peaches in a nearby orchard. On the way the mother sat down to rest while the girl went on. Miss Cashion failing to return, ten minutes later, Mrs. Cashion became alarmed and ran for aid. All the afternoon the surrounding country was searched, but no trace of the girl found.

When she disappeared she wore a white linen dress with a gray and white-striped jacket of ratine. Her hat was dark green trimmed with flowers. Her hair is dark and her eyes blue. She weighs about ninety pounds and is about four feet eleven inches tall.

WOMAN KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

Mrs. Katherine Netland of Oakland Victim of Fatal Accident.

News has reached Oakland of the tragic death of Mrs. Katherine B. Netland, 2720 Garden street, who was killed on the lonesome Joion grade, west of King's City, when the automobile which her husband was driving turned over and pinned both of them beneath. Mrs. Netland was dead when help arrived half an hour later, her fatal injury being a broken neck. Thore A. Netland, head stamping clerk in the local postoffice, who was at the wheel of the car, suffered only slight bruises.

The couple were returning from a vacation spent at Pismo Beach. Approaching the scene of the disaster, Netland found ahead of him a double curve, which is said to be one of the most treacherous in that section of the country. His attention was diverted for a moment, when he answered a query directed at him by his wife, and in that brief period of time the wheels of the machine diverged, the machine turned toward the bank on the inner side of the highway and turned over completely when the radiator hit a huge boulder jutting out. That Netland was not also killed is regarded as miraculous by people acquainted with the dangerous double curve.

CEREAL CROP IS GREATLY DAMAGED

Wheat Shortage Hundred Million Bushels, and Corn 80,000,000, Says Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Continuation of the damage to crops from weather conditions and plant disease, which during July caused a loss of more than 100,000,000 bushels in the prospective production of wheat and 89,000,000 bushels in corn, as indicated in the August crop report of the Department of Agriculture, is reported today in the national weather and crop bulletin of the Weather Bureau. Corn has deteriorated steadily in most sections of the important growing states of Oklahoma, Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas since August 1. Local showers caused some improvement in corn in parts of Iowa, Illinois and Tennessee during the week. The crop, however, is reported in very poor condition in most sections of the four first mentioned states.

Damage by rust and blight continued in the spring wheat areas, the report said, although the spread of black rust was checked to some extent in Minnesota by slightly cooler weather. Rust and blight in North and South Dakota are extensive and there are many fields that will not be harvested. The oats crop was unfavorably affected by high temperatures in the extreme northern districts during the week.

Robbers Get $3000, but Fail to Escape

SALT LAKE, Aug. 10.—While nine customers stood with their faces to the wall in the Highland Boy Store at Bingham three men armed with rifles compelled the clerk, Edward Civizki, to open the safe yesterday. With $3000 in currency the robbers took to the hills. Hardly had they left the store when the proprietor, E. Zwickey, arrived from the bank with $40,000 he had just drawn for the Highland Boy payroll. The robbers, who were Mexicans, were followed by Sheriff Corless and twenty men. They abandoned their horses and were captured in the brush where they had attempted to conceal themselves. The money was recovered.

GOES OVER BANK WITH AUTOMOBILE

Preston Higgins, Secretary to Mayor, Has Miraculous Escape From Death When His Car Plunges Into Canyon

Saves Friends From Injury or Fatality by Ordering From Machine Before Essaying Turn in Narrow Roadway

Preston Higgins, secretary to Mayor John L. Davie, and two young women, Marie Von Gelder and Dorothy Dupont, of Oakland, and Joseph Ayers, son of a wealthy San Francisco manufacturer, had a narrow escape from serious injury and possible death late yesterday when Higgins' automobile plunged over an embankment on the Grant's Springs road near San Jose.

Higgins jumped from the car as it rolled over the embankment. He was hurled 55 feet and escaped with nothing more serious than bruises.

That the women and Ayers were not hurt is due to the fact that Higgins had ordered them from the machine a few seconds before the accident occurred. The automobile plunged down the grade a distance of 180 feet and fell into a tree top, whence it was salvaged this morning.

Higgins and the party were on their way to Oakland at the time of the accident. Desiring to turn his car in the narrow roadway Higgins backed up against the bank on one side. Seeing that his brakes might not hold he insisted that his companions leave the car which they did only after much argument. Higgins then proceeded to continue his maneuvering. The front wheels slipped over the edge of the cliff and the car plunged downward. When Higgins saw that it was impossible to stop it in its flight he jumped from behind the wheel and hurtled through the air fifty or more feet, falling unconscious on a plateau which jutted out from the cliff-side. Ayers rescued him from his perilous position.

A passing automobile took the party into San Jose, where they boarded a train for Oakland.

Banishment to Be De Carlo's Portion

Alfred de Carlo, arrested a week ago on complaint of Salvatore Siragussa, a barber of Twenty-third and Grove streets, who complained that he had threatened to kill him, after he had circulated hand bills accusing Mrs. Siragussa of having broken up the home of a neighbor, will be released from custody on his promise to leave the State.

This was announced today when De Carlo appeared before Judge Robert Edgar, sitting for Police Judge George Samuels, for his preliminary examination. He admitted having circulated the handbills, and agreed to leave the State. He said he would go to New York. The charges of threats against life and carrying concealed weapons will be dropped from the calendar, Prosecuting Attorney W. J. Hennessey announced.

State End Campaign on Diseased Coyotes

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 10. — The campaign that has been waged against rabies in coyotes in Modoc and Lassen counties for the last seven months was ended at the close of June, according to the July issue of the California State Board of Health bulletins. During that time 7162 coyotes, 1091 dogs, 790 domestic cats, 430 bobcats and 496 polecats were killed.

Laboratory examinations made in the State Hygienic Laboratory of the Bureau of Communicable Diseases at Berkeley proved that rabies existed in 200 animals, the heads of which were sent from Modoc and Lassen counties for examination.

The loss in livestock in these two counties totaled nearly $100,000 because of rabies. The entire campaign cost $10,500, while the saving to stock raisers of the counties in sheep and lambs exceeded the amount expended many times over.

U. C. GIRLS PLAN DRAMATIC TOUR SAY RURAL DISTRICTS WANT IBSEN

DOROTHY EPPING and CAROL EBERTS, university actresses, who are planning barnstorming tours to save Mask and Dagger Society.

College Actresses to Urge Club Members to Present One-Act Plays This Winter

BERKELEY, Aug. 10. — When the male members of the Mask and Dagger Society, the University of California dramatic organization, return to college this month they will find awaiting them drawn up in battle line, women members of the organization, two strong.

Dorothy Epping and Carol Eberts, the two embryo Bernhardts, desire to display their talents outside of the university community and incidentally to pay off the debt which hangs over the society as the result of an ill advised venture of last year.

The two women plan a series of Friday night excursions into the interior of the state with high class one act plays. The works of Ibsen, Shaw and Maeterlinck will be interpreted for the benefit of the denizens of the back country if the plans of the two students carry.

The suggestion was made last year at a meeting of the society and the male members of the organization were rather doubtful as to the success of such an undertaking.

During the summer months the two proponents of the scheme have not been idle and they will have statistics to prove that the people are awaiting hungrily the descent of the college thespians.

Both Miss Eberts and Miss Epping have achieved fame in college dramatics, as writers, actresses, designers and generally clever devotees of the art. The outcome of their proposed program for the Mask and Dagger society will be watched with interest by the university public.

Alameda to Get Celebration Money

Acting in response to a petition for a writ of mandate filed by the Alameda Improvement Club, Judge William H. Waste today issued an order directing Auditor E. F. Garrison to draw a warrant for $983.11 upon the county treasurer in favor of the petitioner or show cause on August 18 why he has not done so or why a writ of mandate should not issue.

The sum in question constitutes the amount spent for the celebration of the Fourth of July in Alameda. On April 20 the Board of Supervisors agreed to allow the bills for the celebration, not to exceed $1000. The bills were duly filed and verified, and on July 24 the board adopted a resolution directing the auditor to set the amount in his books as a budget appropriation for the fiscal year 1916-17.

Garrison refused to draw the warrant and the legal action followed. Peter Hollings, president of the Alameda Improvement club, filing the petition.

Women to Wed the Men

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Policeman Lipscomb at Santa Monica concluded today that the trim ankles of Miss Carmel Byron, San Jose society girl, were too much in evidence and he arrested the pretty young woman despite the fact that she wore a long sweater over her bathing suit. She was taken before Police Sergeant Joseph Gough for inspection. She contended that her long sweater took the place of a bathrobe as required by the Santa Monica authorities. She was released.

Miss Carmel Byron is a member of the younger social set of San Jose. She is the daughter of Daniel J. Byron, a wealthy contractor. Mrs. E. C. Singletary, whose husband is a millionaire land owner, is her sister.

Miss Byron is a member of the San Jose Cotillion club and of the faction which precipitated a sensation in that city in 1911 following her introduction at a club dance of the "Texas Tommy," "Grizzly Bear," "Bunny Hug" and "Turkey Trot."

FEMININE UGLINESS SINFUL, SAYS PASTOR.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Dr. Philip Cone Fletcher, pulpit orator of Texarkana, Tex., and famous throughout the country as the originator, defender and advocate of "Cozy Corners for Courting Couples," has just arrived here with his ever interesting views on beauty, modesty, paint and feathers, and taste in dress, especially as applied to the female of the species.

Modesty, Dr. Fletcher declares, is fast becoming a lost art. So is blushing. But while rather positive in some of his beliefs, Dr. Fletcher holds that the use of powder and paint by women is justified.

"With women," he said, "beauty is duty, and a woman has the right to use paint and powder if she needs them to make her more beautiful, but she ought to be more frank about it. Ugliness in woman is a sin in an age like this."

While pastor of the First Methodist church in St. Louis, Dr. Fletcher opened a room for courting couples in the church.

FUNERAL IS HELD OF MINING MAN

Final Honors Are Paid to Frederick Folger Thomas of Berkeley.

BERKELEY, Aug. 10.—The funeral of Frederick Folger Thomas, who died Sunday morning at his home, 2719 Dwight way, was held yesterday afternoon. Thomas was one of the best known of the early mining engineers of the state.

He was 73 years of age and a native of New York. He was graduated from Yale university with the class of 1863 and came to California four years later, working in the mines throughout the Sierras. He was a familiar figure all along the Mother Lode, having been connected with the construction of practically every mine of note along the northern and southern mines. He opened the famous Trinity mine, near Jackson, Amador county, and the well known Gwin mine in Calaveras county.

He was a heavy stockholder and director in the Kennedy mine at Jackson. Not only was he interested in mines of this state, but at one time was connected with copper mines in Arizona and gold mines in Australia.

Seventeen years ago he located here. He is survived by his widow, Nora Peck Thomas and five children, Frederick Folger Thomas, Jr., a prominent attorney of Berkeley; William Shepherd Thomas, John Hudson Thomas, and Maud Angeline Thomas and Mrs. William C. Brady, all of Berkeley.

OVER MILLION IS BERKELEY GROWTH

But Assessor Asks Advisors for Revision of West-of-Grove Values.

BERKELEY, Aug. 10. — Berkeley's assessed valuation exceeds by $1,255,209 last year's figures, according to the report just filed with Mayor Samuel C. Irving by City Assessor Harry Squires.

Exemptions are particularly heavy in Berkeley, including as they do 56 churches and the property of the state university. Squires in his report points out that in the exemptions he has given the land values only, not taking into account the improvements. The exemptions are scheduled by the assessor as amounting to $4,365,351. The actual value of the grounds and improvements is said to be nearly $20,000,000.

The report continues:

"The assessment rolls of the city of Berkeley consist of 11 volumes, totaling 2299 pages of assessment of real estate and secured personal property, one roll totaling 125 pages of assessment of unsecured personal property, and one totaling 47 pages of assessment of property for the bond issue only.

GAIN IS SHOWN.

"The assessment of property is as follows, to-wit:

Real Estate	$26,145,925
Improvements	16,491,670
Personal property	2,414,019
Total	$45,051,614
Veterans' exemption	181,765
Total	$44,869,849

"This means an increase over last year's assessment of $1,255,209.

"The total assessment of operative property which is taxed only for bonds issued prior to 1910 is approximately $2,500,000.

"The total assessment of operative property, non-operative and unsecured property is $48,197,249.

"The assessment of unsecured property for the fiscal year 1915-1916 is $1,827,400.

"The total number of statements received secured and unsecured is 4522.

"Berkeley has within its borders about 859.62 acres of tile lands assessed at $333,250.

"There are 1819 automobiles in Berkeley in 1916, which are assessed for $641,551.

PROPERTY EXEMPTED.

"Exemption of property permitted by the Constitution:

"Personal property of every householder to the amount of $100 each, $400,000.

"Exemption of veterans of the army and navy to the amount of $1000 each, $201,961.

"All land used exclusively for religious worship, $145,600.

"Property of schools of collegiate standing, $48,000.

"Property owned by the United States, $97,550.

"Property owned by the State of California (University of California), $3,072,400.

"Property owned by the city of Berkeley, $589,850.

ASKS FOR ADVISORS.

"There has been some criticism of the assessment of land values, particularly west of Grove street, in the last two years. The depreciation has undoubtedly been due to the nation wide financial depression. In conjunction with the owners, the assessor hoped that this was only temporary, but we see no hope of a change, so the commissioner of finance and revenue has asked the City Club, Chamber of Commerce, Civic Art Commission, Rotary Club, Berkeley Bank of Savings and Trust Company, Berkeley Branch of Oakland Bank of Savings, Real Estate Exchange and the Homestead Savings Bank, to each suggest a representative, who will be appointed by the mayor to work in conjunction with the city assessor in readjusting the assessment of land values in Berkeley, and thereby secure an equitable assessment."

Warrant Issued for Santa Fe Agent

ALAMEDA, Aug. 10.—Police Officer Richard Britt today swore to a complaint charging G. F. Sheran, a Santa Fe passenger agent in Oakland, with violating the Alameda speed law. The warrant will not be served until later, as Sheran is at his home, 5566 Taft avenue, Oakland, with a badly cut knee, sustained when his auto crashed into an iron pole at Ninth street and Central avenue on Tuesday night, during the pursuit of Sheran by Britt, who was in another automobile.

Britt alleges that Sheran attempted to draw a 45 caliber automatic revolver. The police officer in turn drew his weapon. Mrs. Sheran threw her arms about her husband to keep him from shooting and the auto, still in motion, crashed into the pole. Sheran claimed after the accident that he thought Britt was a hold-up man. Mrs. Sheran was also injured, one of her lips being cut entirely through by shattered glass from the auto windshield.

City Physician Arthur Hieronymus reported it would probably be two weeks before the couple could appear in court.

The next convention city will be Chicago. The constitution was amended so that the retiring president becomes for two years following a member of the executive committee. A resolution was adopted and sent to President Wilson and to Congress asking that an embargo be placed on the present wheat crop in order to prevent any further advance in the market price of wheat.

New Yorker Is Praised by France

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Lovering Hill of New York, who is in charge of one of the sections of the American field ambulance, has been cited for the third time in the French army orders. The citation, which is signed by General Novelle, is for "difficult and dangerous service during the period of the June 22 to July 2, in which he showed again forgetfulness of self and entire devotion to his services and his men."

HEALTHY SKIN

DEPENDS ON KIDNEYS.

The skin and the intestines, which work together with the kidneys to throw out the poisons of the body, do a part of the work, but a clean body and a healthy one depends on the kidneys. If the kidneys are clogged with toxic poisons you suffer from stiffness in the knees in the morning on arising, your joints seem "rusty," you may have rheumatic pains, pain in the back, stiff neck, headaches, sometimes swollen feet or neuralgic pains—all due to the uric acid or toxic poisons in the blood. This is the time to go to the nearest drug store and simply obtain a 50c package of "Anuric," the discovery of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y. Then drink a cup of hot water before meals, with an "Anuric Tablet," and notice the gratifying results.—Advertisement.

Campus Heroes to Join U. C. Faculty

Phleger and 'Rip' Rubke Become Educators

BERKELEY, Aug. 10. — While acquiring brawn and fame as athletic stars, "Rip" Rubke, now known as Francis W. Rubke, and Herman Phleger found time to prepare themselves for academic pursuits and they will return to their alma mater this fall as members of the faculty.

Rubke will return as assistant in history but will no doubt keep an eye on the baseball material of the coming team as he captained the baseball team of 1914 and played a star game.

Herman Phleger, who, in his undergraduate years, was a rugby star as well as a member of the intercollegiate debating team will lecture in law.

Among other new faces to be seen this year will be Austin Tappan Wright of Harvard University and a practicing lawyer of Boston, who will be associate professor of law, and Professor Edwin D. Hayward, who is to be assistant to Professor C. Derleth Jr., dean of the college of engineering.

AVENUE REMAINS IN BUSINESS ZONE

Protests of Residents on Telegraph Ave to Council Are Without Avail.

Residents of Telegraph avenue failed in their efforts to have that street taken out of the industrial zone today when the city council tabled a proposed resolution offered by Attorney J. J. McDonald, representing the petitioners. The proposed ordinance was laid on the table on motion of Commissioner W. H. Edwards and against the protest of Commissioner W. J. Baccus.

The attempt to have the street taken from the industrial zone was made in order to keep E. J. Finney from establishing an undertaking parlor at Twenty-seventh street. Finney explained that he had purchased the property only on the understanding that the district would remain in the industrial zone.

The council today adopted a resolution favoring the establishment of a one-half street car fare for school children in the city of Oakland. This action was taken at the request of a committee of women representing the mothers' organizations of Oakland and Berkeley and headed by Mrs. Alvina Beals.

Mrs. Beals explained that the mothers' clubs had gone to the State Railroad Commission with their petition. A hearing is soon to be held, she said, and the council resolution was desired as an aid to the petition of the women. No date has been set for the hearing, she said.

The council ordered the improvement of Arthur street, between Seventy-third avenue and Church street, when no one appeared to protest the work. A protest against the improvement of Second street, between Webster and Alice streets was overruled and the work ordered done on the recommendation of Commissioner W. J. Baccus.

Hatter Complains He Was Mulcted of Coin

A strange tale of alleged fraudulent methods and money obtained from him by Wallingford methods is being related by Theodore Rothschild, a San Francisco hat trimmer today, following suit filed by him in the Superior court to recover $7327 from M. Jackson, Isadore Ringel, John N. Miller, Mary Miller, Joseph Malnick, Harry Gottsefeld, the Parisian Hat Company and the Coast Linen Supply Company. At the same time, Attorney Joseph Golden has brought action before the federal bankruptcy referee, and filed suit in the Superior court against John N. Miller, Mary Miller and Isadore Miller to recover $5000, which he claims were received from Isadore Ringel, now in bankruptcy, to the detriment of legitimate creditors.

Rothschild invested $8593 of his savings, made in theatrical enterprises, in the Parisian Hat Company and the Coast Linen Supply Companies, which, he claims, were worthless corporations and were worthless at the time he invested his money. He also says that the following practices were used to get his money: Selling him spools of silk, covered by a thin layer of thread; making him borrow money from the businesses, but having it devoted instead to the personal uses of the defendants; selling him useless machinery; organizing false corporations; concealing assets; contriving in a false bankruptcy; making false transfers of ownership and robbing creditors.

Father to Contest Will of Mrs. Abrams

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Leopold S. Bachman, a capitalist of this city, filed a contest to the will of the late Mrs. Blanche B. Abrams yesterday, involving $300,000. It hinges on whether the will in which she omitted the plaintiff, her father, was executed a few minutes before or after her romantic marriage to Dr. Albert Abrams on September 28, 1915.

Bachman names his son, David Bachman, in the suit, and declares the latter took advantage of his sister and induced her, when ill, to make a will leaving the bulk of her estate to himself and Dr. Abrams. Bachman also declares that the laws of the state provide that marriage automatically nullifies a will previously made by a woman, and that in order to be valid a new will would have to be made and signed after the ceremony. Records show that both will and marriage took place on the same day, but the time of either has not beeen proved.

Prior to her marriage to Dr. Abrams the defendant was the divorced wife of Max Schwabacher.

News Link Between U. S. and Americas Praised

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—"It is with great satisfaction that I learn of the establishment of a direct news service between South America and the United States through an arrangement between the United Press Association and La Nacion of Buenos Aires," said Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, chairman of the international high commission, today, who recently headed a party that visited the principal South American countries. "It is a matter of real importance to the people of the two continents and is a very practical step toward that better knowledge and understanding of one another for which we have been striving for many years. It should facilitate the interchange of ideas and information. The better we know one another the better friends we'll be."

Automobiles in State Clear 200,000 Mark

BIG SHIP PLANT BOOM TO CITY

Alameda Exchequer Reaps Benefit From Union Iron Works Through Taxes.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 10. — With the first flush of satisfaction over the Union Iron Works victory is coming partial realization of a few of the different benefits to be realized by this city from the establishment of the big plant in Alameda.

The city assessor's office assessed the Union Iron Works on March 1 of this year for $98,626 of real estate, $54,000 of improvements and $15,000 of personal property. A single improvement made since that time, the building of a plate shop, has jumped the assessment $37,500, this increase being figured on a basis of 50 per cent of the building permit cost of $75,000. The equipment for this shop will be added personal property subject to assessment.

There are upwards of two miles of railroad track which was built since March 1. There is new equipment being added almost daily. At the city assessor's office today it was predicted that the assessment by next March on the plant would show an increase of $100,000 at least.

The increased assessment gained by the establishment of the plant is strikingly apparent when considered in connection with the growing exemptions, operative tax going to the state and other new conditions tending to reduce city assessment totals. The assessment rolls of the city assessor are ready to be turned over to the city board of equalization and show an increase of total city assessment of $20,820. The city suffered an assessment loss of $16,000 in soldiers' exemptions over last year's figures. There was a reduction of $122,000 on old buildings. New school properties now nonassessible, reduced the rolls $28,475 and the closing of the Taylor Mill plant caused a further loss of $23,400. The exempting of two ferry steamers under new state amendment reduced last year's figures another $78,000, while the $116,000 Eninger estate has been settled and distributed and partially lost to the city. The total assessed valuation is $21,633,728. The total real estate is $19,486,100; the personal property total is $515,000, and the operative roll is $1,628,534; soldiers' exemptions, $118,500. The new tax rate will be made on a basis of $19,998,200.

Women to Testify Regarding Officer

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—The courtmartial of Lieutenant Colonel Ogden Rafferty, retired, charged with conduct unbecoming an officer, will be reopened tomorrow at Fort Scott and three Los Angeles women will be present to testify regarding a visit the officer is alleged to have made to the wife of Captain James L. Robinson of the army medical corps, since divorced.

The court martial is said to have grown largely out of this alleged incident, following its relation by Captain Robinson in a Texas civil court, where he secured a divorce. Army officials then took up the matter. The case is being conducted with utmost secrecy.

Guard Officers to Face Rigid Tests

HEADQUARTERS CALIFORNIA NATIONAL GUARD, NOGALES, Ariz., Aug. 10.—Unless officers of the California units demonstrate their fitness to command troops, they will be eliminated from the service of the United States, by an order received here today.

The order calls upon inspectors of National Guard organizations to report to the military bureau of the war department, "covering the efficiency of officers of the National Guard with a view to eliminating militia officers who have demonstrated their incapacity to command troops."

The order is interpreted here to mean that officers will have to pass a rigid test. Those who fail will be discharged.

Commission Named to Talk Church Union

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 10. — A commission of 25 representative members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to confer with a similar commission from the Methodist Episcopal church to consider the union of the two branches of Methodism, was named at Tate Spring today by a committee of nine appointed for that purpose. The names of the commissioners will not be announced until their acceptances are received. The two commissios are to outline a plan of union for presentation to the quadrennial meetings of the two church bodies in 1918.

Can't Practice With Coast Defense Guns

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, Aug. 10.—Residents here will not hear the roar of Uncle Sam's new big coast defense guns, now being prepared for emplacement at Fort MacArthur, until an enemy fleet off the coast is actually shelled, it was learned today. One discharge of the big guns would shatter every window at the harbor, it was stated at construction headquarters. Target practice will be held with smaller calibers.

Yellow Fever Is Detected on Ship

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 10.—Two cases of yellow fever were discovered today among the crew of the Ward Line steamer Berglum, which arrived at the Federal quarantine station near the mouth of the Mississippi river yesterday from Progreso, Mexico. The sick men, the second mate and the second engineer, have been placed in isolation wards at the station.

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your blood and pass them into the blood where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Osgood Bros. Drug Stores and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.—Advertisement.

Society News Views of Activities of Women

Uncle Wiggily Cuts up for Kiddies

Society

Southern California is now claiming a place in the summer limelight, and society in many of the favored centers of gaiety has been ordering trunks packed for Coronado, for Catalina and Santa Barbara, where a series of festivities quite remote from rookie camps and that sort of thing is programmed.

At Coronado next Saturday night there is to be a brilliant pageant, a dance extravaganza and ball, with the American Red Cross as its inspiration. This enterprise, the most spectacular and ambitious one ever undertaken by the Pacific Coast society, has enlisted the talents of scores of lovely California society women. Its sponsors are the officers of the National Red Cross, including many of the most familiar names in official circles:

President Woodrow Wilson, Robert W. de Forest, Hon. John Skelton Williams, Hon. John W. Davis, Charles L. Magee, William Howard Taft, Major-General Arthur Murray, Robert Lansing, Major-General William C. Gorgas and Rear Admiral William C. Braisted.

There will, no doubt, be an interesting representation of naval officers at the ball, as a number are not far away. Among these is Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas G. Hanson, who has been at Coronado with Mrs. Hanson for several weeks since he was ordered to the border.

In charge of the social and financial details of the production is a resident committee of Red Cross officers that includes Mrs. George H. Ballou of Coronado and Mr. George W. Marston of San Diego, while the staging and costuming are under the supervision of Miss Dolly L. Schindler of Chicago, designer of the beautiful open air theater in the hills above San Diego. This is the theater that bears the surprising title of "Stratford Nature Theater," and it has been the setting for numerous successful dramatic enterprises.

The young women who are to appear in the extravaganza dance divertissements are among the most attractive and accomplished members of the exclusive summer colony at the great beach resort. Some of those in the cast are:

Mrs. Luther Kenneth, Miss Marjory Wyatt, Miss Helen Prentice, Miss Jeanette Prentice, Miss Elizabeth Griffith, Miss Dorothy Graham, Miss Marjory Graham, Miss Florence Daniels, Miss Dorothy Daniels, Miss Mary Osborn, Miss Mary Post, Miss Marguerite de La Motte, Miss Katharine Owers, Miss Enid Owers, Miss Alfreda Rooke, Miss Helen Daniels, Miss Dorothy Dunn, Miss Katherine Leovey and Miss Katherine Lloyd.

The proceeds will, of course, go into the coffers of the American Red Cross, that so yawn during these times.

At Catalina there is an exclusive colony also, and this has been augmented by the arrival of a party that migrated from Del Monte for a brief interval, bringing among its members Mrs. Willie J. Vanderbilt Jr., who has been the observed of the most observed at the polo matches and on the links since her coming to California.

She and her friends will spend some days fishing and enjoying the picturesque sports of the island.

✡ ✡ ✡

Santa Barbara's center of interest is, of course, the Little Theater of Mrs. William Miller Graham, where Felton Elkins' play, "Feet of Clay," was produced as a companion piece for Barrie's "Twelve-Pound Look" and the "Florist Shop." But there are other more frankly unintellectual diversions for society.

Clad in all the mad fantasies of costume that can be evolved by the clever—and otherwise—brains of Santa Barbara, the elect from many cities dance at a vivid futurist ball at the Hotel Potter. This is the kind of ball—but less so—than that promised for San Francisco late this autumn when society has returned to its winter haunts.

It was planned for the benefit of the National Commission for Belgian Relief, with the expectation of raising a noticeable sum toward the necessary $70,000 pledged by California to the relief workers in London. Thus far no report has been received, except that the function was a brilliantly amusing one. Many of the past bay summer residents at Santa Barbara were among the futurist figures, and of course many from the other side.

The patronnesses included: Mrs. Francis T. Underhill, Mrs. Oliver Dwight Norton, Mrs. A. D. Ireland, Mrs. Milo M. Potter, Mrs. Benjamin Brodie, Mrs. Walter Scott Kennedy, Mrs. George P. Talbant, Mrs. Charles Harris Hopkins, Mrs. Thomas Knight Culley, Mrs. Ferdinand Lungren, Mrs. John E. Beale, Mrs. Joel Remington Fithian, Mrs. R. P. Frazier, Mrs. Osthoutt, Mrs. William Miller Graham, Mrs. Ridgeway Trimble, Mrs. George Coleman, Mrs. William La Boyteaux, Mrs. Franklin Price Knott, Mrs. Helen Hecker, Baroness de Ropp, Miss Madeline Edwards, Mrs. W. B. Cunnane, Mrs. A. W. Bacon, Mrs. Ralph Hersey, Mrs. Otto R. Hansen and Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman.

Among the local society people summering down there are Mrs. William Griffith Henshaw and her daughters, Mrs. Charles Keeney and Mrs. Alla Henshaw Chickering; Mrs. George Greenwood and pretty Miss Suzette Greenwood and many others.

After dividing their time for the several weeks since their arrival from New York between the Hotel Oakland and the Fairmont, Mrs. William H. Breevort and her daughter, Miss Martha Breevort, have gone South to Montecito, where they will spend a month as the house guests of Mrs. William Griffith Henshaw at Montecito.

Both of the Eastern visitors were here during the Exposition for several months, and their return has been greeted enthusiastically by the hosts of friends they made at that time. Mrs. Henshaw entertained for the two last Monday at an elaborate luncheon on the veranda of Monte Vista. Forty or more guests at this affair were seated at a number of little tables gay with choice blossoms from the wonderful gardens of the Henshaw place.

Mrs. William Henshaw, Mrs. Alla Henshaw Chickering and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw were among the guests last Friday at an extremely picturesque garden tea given by Mrs. William Osthout, one of the leaders of the Santa Barbara exclusive set. Her grounds, like those of the Henshaws, are famous for their beauty. She, herself, is always much feted when she visits this part of the State, and is equally much entertaining those who travel down to the charming old town. Her guests included: Mrs. Horace Davis Pillsbury, Mrs. William Griffith Henshaw, Mrs. George Hood, Mrs. Henry Clarence Breeden, Mrs. Franklin Price Knott, Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, Mrs. William la Boyteaux, Mrs. George Pillsbury, Mrs. Alla Henshaw Chickering, Mrs. Charles Keeney, Mrs. Oliver Dwight Norton, Mrs. Tyler Henshaw, Mrs. William H. Breevoort, Mrs. Charles McNeil, Mrs. Elliot Rogers, Mrs. Francis Underhill, Mrs. Louis F. Long, Mrs. Louis Lombard, Mrs. Arthur Ogilvy, Mrs. Charles Edwards.

As a farewell to Mrs. Charles B. Seymour, who leaves Sunday for her home in Wyoming, and also in honor of two visitors here, Mrs. Archie Beckett (Bernice Randall) and Mrs. Leslie Henry (Gladys Bush), Mrs. Roy L. Shurtleff entertained two score guests at a bridge party yesterday at her home in Berkeley. The three honor guests are all young brides of a year or so with a wide circle of friends around the bay. Mrs. Seymour, who is a sister of Mrs. Shurtleff, has been spending several months here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Lawton in Berkeley.

Among those who greeted them yesterday were many of the young Berkeley matrons and others, including Mrs. Frank H. In a bower of pink and white blossoms, Miss Rose Margrave, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Margrave of Alameda, became the bride of Thomas Norman Lavery of Detroit last evening. Rev. E. W. Cooper, pastor of the Christ Episcopal Church was the officiating clergyman at this quiet ceremony, to which but twenty-five of the close friends and relatives of the young people had been invited.

The bride, who is remembered as one of the beauties of her class at the University of California and one of the most popular members of the Delta Delta Delta fraternity, was gowned in conventional white evolved from taffeta veiled in chiffon and ornamented with old lace. The bodice dropped in the quaint old mode from the shoulders; the sleeves were but small puffs of lace and chiffon, and a white tulle veil over the draped skirt that flared out over hoops of the '60 order was caught with lilies of the valley around the head in a coronet effect. With this was carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. Miss Valerie Foveaux, the maid of honor, offered a contrast in a frock of pink taffeta and silver, fashioned in the bouffant manner, and carried a great nosegay of Cecil Brunner roses. Edmund Margarve was the best man.

After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Lavery left for a four weeks' tour of Canada, planning to arrive at Royal Oaks, where they will live in the future, about September 1. Mr. Lavery, who has wide business interests near Detroit, has built a large stone house there for his bride.

Cameron Fraser Jr. entertained a score of young matrons and girls at tea this afternoon. Mrs. Jesse Knowles, her sister, and Mrs. Paul S. Orgren (Katherine Fink) assisted her in receiving.

✡ ✡ ✡

The wedding of Miss Ruth May McKenzie, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. McKenzie, and Leonard Wilbur will be quietly solemnized late this afternoon at the home of the Rev. Frank Pomeroy, who will read the marriage service. Only the members of the immediate families will be there, and afterward the bridal couple are to depart without delay on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a traveling costume of old rose corduroy and a hat to match. After two weeks at Tahoe Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur will make their home here in a Lakeside apartment.

✡ ✡ ✡

After a summer trip East, Robert Sheridan and his young daughter, Miss Roberta Sheridan, have returned to town. Morrill of the Pines, and were entertained by other friends in New York, Philadelphia, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

Gale Bedtime Story

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily! Uncle Wiggily!" called Jillie Longtail, the little mouse girl, one day, as she scampered up on the front porch of the hollow stump farm house, where the rabbit gentleman lived with Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady. "Oh, something terrible has happened!"

"You don't say so!" exclaimed the bunny uncle, and he was in such a hurry to get up and see what was the matter that he forgot his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch, and nearly slipped down the steps. "What has happened!" he asked.

"Oh, a whole lot of cows are in your corn field, and they're eating all the ears!" said Jillie, and she was so excited that she talked just like a piece of cottage pudding.

"Cows in my corn!" cried the rabbit gentleman. "That must never be. Whose cows are they?"

"I think they belong to Mother Goose," answered the little mouse girl, "but I'm not sure."

"Well, we'll go see," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "Mother Goose wouldn't let her cows go in my corn on purpose, if she knew it. I think there must be some mistake."

So the rabbit gentleman hurried off to the corn field, and there, surely enough, were the horned creatures, eating away as nicely as you please. And Little Boy Blue was not in sight to blow them away with his horn.

"Oh, my dear cows!" cried the bunny uncle, "You ought not come into my corn field. You will spoil that part of my farm. Pray tell how you got here."

"There was no fence to keep us out," said the spotted cow, "and so we thought, of course, that it was all right for us to come in. We are sorry if we did harm."

"Well, you haven't done so very much," said Uncle Wiggily, kindly, "but, of course, I shall have to ask us to go. And, when the corn is more ripe, I'll give you all you want."

Then the cows, quite sorry they had trampled down the bunny gentleman's corn even a little, went on to other green fields to eat the grass.

"Well, now to see how those cows got in my corn," spoke the bunny gentleman as he hopped along. And when he came to the fence, he saw that, indeed, it was all down. The wind had blown it over.

"I shall have to make a new fence," said Uncle Wiggily. "I must cut some fence rails and put them around my corn so the cows will not get into it. I'll go back to my hollow stump farm house, get an axe and split some fence rails."

It was not long after this before the bunny uncle was in the woods on the edge of his farm, cutting out the rails that could afterward be strung out into a fence.

"I don't believe, after I get this fence made good and strong, that any cows will get in my corn," spoke Mr. Longears out loud, as he sometimes talked to himself. "Yes, I'll keep them out; all right."

"And I'll keep you out!" suddenly exclaimed a voice. "I'll keep you out quite late, I'm afraid, for it is quite a way to my den. Still, it must be!"

"What must be?" asked Uncle Wiggily, sort of indisposed like, and, looking around, he saw the bad old ear-scratching cat, looking at him out of the corners of his green eyes.

"It must be that you are going with me," the cat said. "This is the best chance yet I've had to scratch your ears, and, as I'm all out of practice, it will do me good to begin on you. So come along out to my den!"

"Oh, dear!" sadly said Uncle Wiggily, who didn't at all want to go with the bad cat. The bunny gentleman looked at the logs he was splitting, or cutting, up into fence rails with his axe.

One big log was partly split, but it was such a long one that, while one end was broken open, the other was closed, and, to keep the open end from springing shut again, as a split log will do, Uncle Wiggily had left the axe sticking in the crack.

"Well, come along!" yowled the ear-scratching cat. "I must take you off to my den with me. Come on!"

Uncle Wiggily did not want to go, for he knew there were no moving pictures in the cat's den, and he dearly loved moving pictures. And he wanted to finish splitting rails for his fence to keep the cows out of his corn field.

"Come!" howled the cat.

Then Uncle Wiggily thought of something.

"I'll go with you," he said to the cat, "if you will help me split this log. Then I can leave it for Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy to make into fence rails. Help me pull the log apart and then I can go with you."

"All right," said the cat. "I will. What do you want me to do?"

"Put your paws in the crack in the log and pull as hard as you can," said the bunny gentleman. This the cat did, and, when its paws were in the crack, Uncle Wiggily suddenly took out his axe.

"Snap!" went the half split log, slamming itself together and catching the cat fast there.

"Oh, wow!" he yowled. "Oh, my goodness me sakes alive and some sour-milk pancakes! Let me go!"

"Not so," spoke Uncle Wiggily. "I am sorry to keep you here, but, if I let you go now, you'd get me. I'll see you later."

Then he ran off through the woods, safe and sound, not being a bit scratched, and, as for the bad cat, he had to stay with his paws caught fast in the crack in the log until the skillery-scalery alligator came along and sawed the wood open with his nutmeg grater tail.

So that time the cat didn't get Uncle Wiggily at all, and, if the sponge cake doesn't take all the raisins out of the rice pudding to give to the gold fish, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the water wheel.

The CONFESSIONS of ROXANE

By FRANCES WALTER.

I glanced at Mr. Gordon's face, but I could read nothing.

As we wandered back in Mariam's direction we were both silent, each occupied with grave thoughts. How nearly had we come to disaster? Or would it have been disaster? He had betrayed his secret to me in no uncertain manner. That he loved me there could be no possibility of doubt, but was his affection merely the passing whim of one who felt sorry for a neglected wife, or was it the abiding passion of a man calling for his mate? And I? How far had my admiration led me? A few minutes ago I was ready to throw myself into his arms and beg him to love and cherish me forever. Did I mean it? Was this infatuation to remain permanently with me, or was it merely the result of my own consciousness of Arthur's cruelty?

Was I willing to deliberately cancel my marital obligations and go with this new-found companion? Could he take the place that Arthur formerly filled? What would be in store for me if I took such a step? And if I did not, what would happen to the friendship which had sprung up between this marvelously magnetic man and me? Would he go from me and forget me, and if he did, would I forget him, or would his absence become more and more a source of bitterness as the days wore on and my woman's heart failed to find the comfort with which his presence had filled me?

These and a thousand other questions vitally pertinent to my present and future crowded upon me as we walked through the deep rich grass. I could not answer them. So many conflicting emotions were tossing me about that I had lost my perspective. I could not see my own affairs in their proper relation one to the other until I was alone and away from the influences which had led me to such lengths.

I glanced up at Mr. Gordon's face, but I could read nothing. What were his thoughts? Did he think less of me because of the weakness which had betrayed me, or had we been drawn closer together by that very weakness? Had he momentarily been willing to disregard the canons of conventionality and take me away from Arthur? If so, had he returned to the shrine of conventionality or was he still willing to become one of the central figures in a scandal?

My feeling as I write these words is very different from what it was that day. I have known several women who went away with other men before the divorce court had granted them a legal right to marry, and I have yet to know of happiness coming out of such a step.

It is a very different matter after the divorce is granted, even if, sometimes, there is little difference in the mortality involved, and second marriages after divorce often prove as happy as any marriage could be. Nor is this wonderful. It is largely a matter of self-control, of strength of character, of regard for the decencies of life. Take the case of two imaginary women. Both are married. Both realize they are not properly mated, and both determine upon separation from their husbands because they have found others with whom they know they were destined to be mated. One woman leaves her home secretly and flees with her lover. The other quietly seeks another domicile and files suit for divorce. Now watch what happens.

The woman who has fled with the man of her choice soon realizes that she is bound hand and foot. She is tied to her husband by every legal bond, yet she is living with another man. Her social status has become a minus quantity. She takes rank with the woman of the street. She dare not show her head among respectable people for fear of the treatment she would receive. She hides herself in her own home, chafing over the restraints which are thrown about her until she becomes morose or reckless. In either event she endangers the affection of the man with whom she has fled and to whom alone she may look for rehabilitation. If she loses his affection there is nothing left for her. Her only chance is that her husband quickly obtain a divorce, enabling her to marry before her lover's passion cools. This happens in rare cases. More frequently the unfortunate creature is deserted by the man who has been her companion in flight, and she ends it all with suicide, or else okes out a pitiable existence apart from those things which make life worth living—an existence which proves a living death.

In the other woman's case, she has had the courage to set deliberately about remedying an error. She has found herself mismated and she seeks a release in the only legal way possible. It is granted her, and she weds the man who, she is convinced, will make the remainder of her life happy. She may lose a few friends, but others will remain. She may regret the past, but she still has her self-respect. The worst that can be said is that she made a mistake in marrying her first husband. Above all, she is sure of the affection of the man who wed her under such circumstances. But none of these thoughts came to me as Mr. Gordon and I went to rejoin Mariam. My mind was too confused, too much occupied by the incidents which had just occurred, to dwell upon matters of pure speculation, to reason from cause to effect, or to generalize from the earlier observations of my life. I was taken up wholly by the emotions which swept upon me and which had all but carried me out into that sea of uncertainty and despair which I have just described. It is while one is in such a mental chaos that a slight incident sometimes occurs to affect one's whole after life.

Four, Count 'Em, Four Charges for Hadley

Following a police hunt which has lasted for more than a year, Albert Hadley, wanted in San Francisco, Portland, Los Angeles and Interior towns for bad check passing activities, was captured yesterday in Petersburg, Ill., where he had just cashed a worthless $500 draft. Besides, the chain of bad paper which it is claimed, he has extended over the West, Hadley is wanted by the United States Army for desertion; by the authorities of Hoquiam, Wash., for desertion of his pretty 18-year-old bride, whom he married there; and by the Southern Pacific Company for a false accident which the man was supposed to have been in, and from which he obtained a considerable sum.

WRITE FIVE ANSWERS IN HANDY REPLY BOOK

No Need to Buy or Draw Pictures by This Method

If you don't possess a Reply Book in the $1250 Picturegame you must provide a separate picture and answer blank on which to submit each answer you make to a picture. The rules permit you to make as many as five answers to each picture. Well, suppose you submit five titles for a certain picture, and don't have a Reply Book. You will have to provide yourself with a separate picture and answer blank on which to submit each title. You can buy these copies from the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, at the regular price of the paper per copy, or you can make a facsimile drawing of each picture and answer blank. You must sign name and address on each answer blank, too.

If you have a Reply Book (it comes with the catalog) you never need any pictures to submit. You don't submit any pictures at all, with the Reply Book. It consists of several pages of answer blanks. Each page has five spaces. In these spaces you write from one to five titles to each picture. Then you write your name and address on the front and back covers of the book—only TWICE—and submit it as your complete set.

That's the Reply Book method of submitting answers. Like it?

And attached to the Reply Book is the catalog, which is an alphabetical list of all the titles eligible to be submitted as answers for the pictures. These titles are identical with the titles which appear under the pictures in the paper, in thirty-five installments. Only the catalog titles are alphabetically arranged, and the titles are alphabetically arranged, and alog appeals to you also, doesn't it?

Well, you can get both books by taking up the offer we make in today's announcement. Turn to the announcement this moment!

JUDGE BORDWELL'S WITHDRAWAL.

Judge Walter Bordwell's withdrawal from the contest for the Republican nomination for United States Senator simplifies the situation by leaving only one Republican as an aspirant for the office. That Republican, Mr. Willis H. Booth, is opposed for the nomination by Governor Johnson, but the latter is not a Republican, nor does he claim to be, as is evidenced by his public declarations and his present registration as a Progressive.

Judge Bordwell is to be commended for his contribution to party success by withdrawing in favor of the candidate who had been longest in the campaign and who was unanimously endorsed at the State-wide conference of Republican committeemen held in San Francisco two weeks ago.

The contest for the Republican nomination is now narrowed down between a non-Republican of the North and a lifelong, tried and able Republican of the South. The Southern section of the State claims the privilege of electing a successor upon other grounds than the unwritten agreement which the North and South have faithfully adhered to for the last quarter of a century; it claims this obvious right upon the material advantage of providing one of the State's two representatives in the Senate. None can deny that Southern California possesses interests as deserving of conservation and aid in Congress as any in the North. It has its harbor projects, fortifications, irrigation systems and other matters imperatively demanding attention.

The arrangement of having one Senator from the North and one from the South has proven happy in spirit and beneficial in practice. Moreover, it is the only just and equitable arrangement possible, and the northern voters should not countenance any attempt of ambitious self-seekers to violate that understanding. If they do they will prove ungenerous to their neighbors of the South and unfaithful to the best interests of the whole State.

THE NEW FARM LOAN BOARD.

In accordance with the Federal land-aid act, which became effective July 17, President Wilson has created the new Farm Loan Board, which is to be charged with the duties of putting this important piece of legislation into effect. Charles E. Lobdell of Great Bend, Kansas; George W. Norris of Philadelphia; William S. A. Smith of Sioux City, Iowa, and Herbert Quick of Berkeley Springs, West Virginia, are the members. Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is ex-officio member of this board, which is to be the executive head of a new bureau of the Treasury Department.

The academic farmer has been given largest representation on the board. Mr. Lobdell is catalogued as a student of farm problems and has had extensive experience in farm loans. His practical experience in farming has been confined to the practice of law in Lane County, Kansas, ten years membership in the Kansas legislature and judge of the Thirty-third Kansas Judicial District. He has also been president of the Kansas bar association. Mr. Norris did his farming as a student of economic and social questions in the University of Pennsylvania, as member of a private banking firm and as director of municipal wharves, docks and ferries in Philadelphia. Mr. Smith is an expert in farm practice in the Department of Agriculture at Washington. Mr. Quick is a student of rural credits and until a few months ago was editor of "Farm and Fireside." Mr. McAdoo gained his farm experience digging tunnels under the East River at New York City.

This board will have charge of the organization of the various farm loan associations by districts, much after the procedure of the Federal Reserve bank system, in which the National government will purchase stock and for the benefit of which the Secretary of the Treasury may deposit government funds. Under the system no actual property security will be required to back up the negotiable paper the farm banks are authorized to issue. In the final analysis the unsecured promise of the farmers association is to be depended upon to give these notes circulation at par. The system is entirely experimental, as its creators have ignored most of the essential lessons of European rural credits systems, and promises to develop many complex propositions of financing and administration. It may be well, therefore, that the President has appointed to the Farm Loan Board, lawyers, bankers, students of social economy and tunnel builders.

DELAY IS WELCOME.

The whole country will feel relieved that the brotherhoods of railway conductors, engineers, firemen and enginemen, who number about 325,000 men, have agreed to accept the services of the Federal Council of Mediation and Conciliation in the controversy with the railroad operators. This will at least mean delay in carrying out the threat to call a nation-wide strike unless the demand of the brotherhoods for shorter hours is unconditionally complied with.

Conferences through the mediation council will serve more thoroughly to inform the country of the issues involved and, we hope, engender a disposition in both sides of the controversy to discuss their interests in a spirit of fairness and even-tempered mutual consideration. Whether the efforts of the federal arbitrators will be successful in preventing a strike cannot be predicted with reasonable assurance. In the negotiations conducted so far between the employers and employees directly, the latter have insisted that only their demand for shorter hours at present pay be admitted to discussion. They have refused to consider data offered by the railroads to show their alleged inability to meet the demands. In the face of this spirit the railroads have refused to make any concession and the brotherhoods have voted to submit a strike ultimatum. Statements by the railroad officials indicate that they may give in on some points through a neutral arbitral commission.

Both the railroads and their employees should bear in mind that the country does not want a strike. It is overwhelmingly opposed to it and is fearful of the results of a walkout of the employees and the consequent crippling of freight traffic facilities. California and other Western States depending on the transcontinental railway lines to market their products would be very heavy sufferers.

Not only should the railway operators and workmen strive to avoid a strike, but all lines of business, producers and consumers, should use all their influence to prevent such an outcome.

A new magazine has appeared in San Francisco which will go far in providing entertainment for its readers, even if it reveals many heretofore unsuspected dangers of art. The new journal bears the cheerful title of "Bohemia." It enters a well-populated field with apparent advantages over the ordinary journalistic beginner; imposing lists of patrons and patronesses, culled from the top of the social register, aid in decorating the cover and title page and we find recorded as contributing editors George Sterling, Jack London and others. With these guarantees of quality and authenticity we are, therefore, duly impressed with the perils abounding in Bohemia when we read that upon entering a certain studio, "the visitor's eye will be struck by a carved walking-stick of great weight and beauty." There is no stated way of avoiding this calamity, but if the wayfarer in Bohemia's devious streets should be so fortunate as to preserve his sight, let him beware, for in another studio he will encounter "the classical curves of a Greek goddess dressed in sunlight." A curve in any sort of costume is always dangerous. In order to be just, we will remind you that there are guide-posts in Bohemia—as described by the new fortnightly. Here is one of particular interest to fathers and mothers: "Natural talent in a child, when genuine, should never be submerged by the accumulating conventionalities of growth. When parents insist upon this, the result is always tragic to Art."

An agreement has been reached between the garment manufacturers and 40,000 garment workers in New York City by which the employees, who have been on a strike for fourteen weeks, will return to their work. The manufacturers' protective association and the garment workers' unions henceforth will deal with each other directly, the new agreement having abolished the council of conciliation which existed under the protocol established at the end of the 1910 strike. Thus an arrangement which was unique and which excited wide comment in this country has been abandoned. Employers and employees again stand face to face and on the surface it would seem they may have descended to that ground of almost perpetual warfare that existed prior to the creation of the council of conciliation. However, if a closer and proper understanding between employers and employees has been attained, the old conditions of disturbance may easily be avoided.

The TRIBUNE has received a communication signed "Taxpayer," which is a statement of opinions on the prohibition question. If we were informed of the full name and address of the writer the communication, as it is now signed, would be considered for publication in the "Forum" column of this page.

NOTES and COMMENT

All four of the Washington City newspapers are supporting Hughes this year, an unanimity that has not before been manifest since the civil war.

* * *

It is announced that the superdreadnaught California is to be made torpedo-proof. If they have found a way to do that something important in warfare has been discovered.

* * *

Invidious item from the Holtville Tribune: "If we could have persuaded the Irritation officials to take passage on the Deutschland we would take less interest in seeing that craft land in safety."

* * *

The initiative proposition to establish additional departments of the Appellate Court will not find a place on the ballot at the next election. In San Francisco the petition was liberally signed, but elsewhere it was a frost.

* * *

St. Louis has one, but it is different. It is the milk-wagon drivers. Milkmen figure to circumvent it by distribution through the parcel post. San Francisco might welcome St. Louis to the trouble zone and be fraternal.

* * *

The effort everywhere is to make things better. This is true as to living, working, educating; as to automobiles, dumb animals, and human beings. And we read that the Horticultural Commission is now to try and work up a better potato.

* * *

Gristly item from the Lapeer (Mich.) Clarion: "Many people are stopping in front of Kinde Bros.' meat market this week and taking a look at the relics of George Kerr which are on exhibition. The collection is an extremely interesting one."

* * *

The Redding Searchlight reports progress thus: "Willis H. Booth, the senatorial aspirant; Samuel Shortridge, Secretary of State Jordan and Edward O'Day spent Sunday on the Pit, where they had recreation a-plenty and some fishing. They came back telling thrilling stories of rod and reel. Booth was dubbed the 'boy fisherman.'"

* * *

They knew where to "converge." The Newman Register gives particulars: "Wm. C. Caton, the well known and popular employe of the Lewis & Byrd establishment, and Miss Mary Affonso, estimable one-time employe of the big store, went divers ways on divers pretexts several days ago but finally converged Monday at Oakland, secured a license and were wed."

* * *

The two Berkeley students who disapproved of the city manager of San Jose and for that or something else got arrested, found out what a city manager is like. This one is Professor Reed, formerly of the State University, who flunked the two students in political science. But that is declared to have nothing to do with the case.

* * *

The Kansas City Star, referring to a type of political patriot developed from the very modern movements of reform and "progress," says: "This newly developed political blatherskite is an enemy of popular government." So far as may be discerned from a casual reading, the Star was not discussing any political situation in California.

* * *

There was a statement by some political prognosticator, made immediately after the Chicago convention, to the effect that the Republican candidate would suffer because he was not a good campaigner. Advices and accounts so far on the route indicate that the fear or exultation, whichever it was, that prompted the prediction, is not being realized.

* * *

Notice that appeared in a South Dakota paper: "Married at Flintstone, by Rev. Windstone, Nehemia Mithstone and Wilhelmina Standstone." Here was a chance to vary the society report. Instead of being referred to as a "quiet wedding," without much justification from its character, perhaps, it might have been denominated a "rocky wedding."

* * *

President Wilson in discussing our acquisition of the Philippine Islands from Spain has had a good deal to say of the "iniquity" of one nation transferring to another the people of a dependent territory. But the Goldfield Tribune points out that by the purchase of the Danish West Indies his administration is committing this very "iniquity." But, of course, it is not an iniquity in either case.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

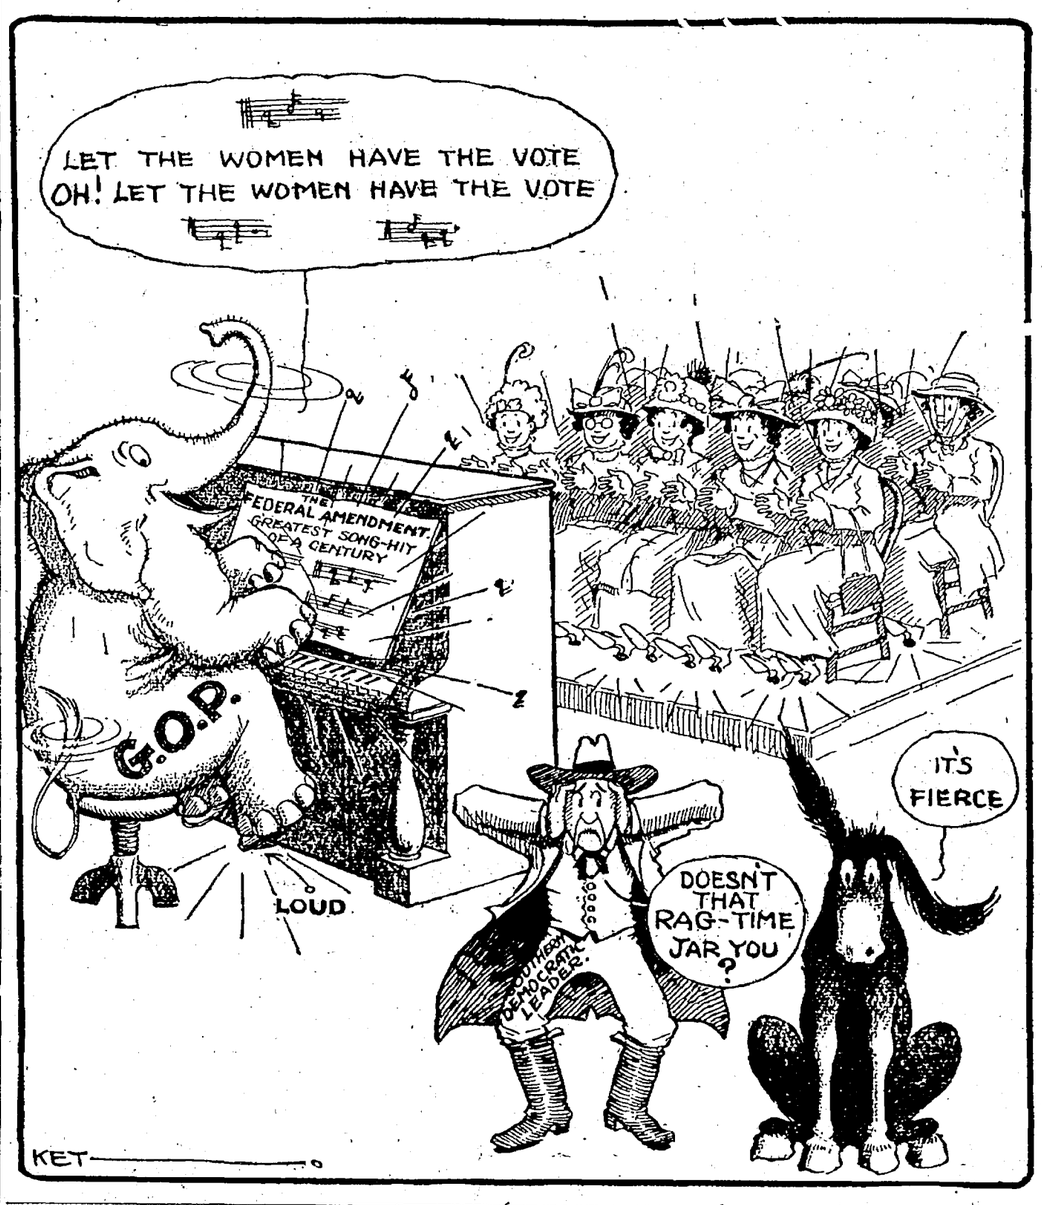

The House of Representatives has passed a bill limiting the amount of money which a candidate for Congress can spend to $2500, and a candidate for the Senate to $5000. This bill has gone to the Senate. It contains a provision of great interest to every newspaper publisher, in view of the fact that campaigning in these days must be largely by newspaper advertising and publicity.—Oroville Mercury.

Imperial county is not the only melon grower. We notice in one of the up-state papers a report that the Turlock section in Stanislaus county has shipped 2000 cars of melons this season.—Santa Ana Blade.

"I HATE YOU ARIZONA."

I hate you, Arizona,
You're the dryest state of all.
I hate you in the summer, winter, spring and in the fall,
I hate your desert valleys,
Your bare mountains I abhor,
I hate your guarded border
CHORUS.
Where your rock-crowned barren Sierras
Keep their watch o'er the cactus in bloom,
Far from there I could go far from old Mexico
Where the cannons unceasingly boom.
It is there that the hills are the barest;
It is far from home to me,
And I know if I die,
I will breath no last sigh,
For this joint called Arizona.

PIFFLING NAMES

In Glacier National Park, Montana, are peaks bearing such names as Rising Wolf Mountain, Bear Head Mountain, Going-to-the-Sun Mountain, Red Eagle Mountain, Almost-a-Dog Mountain.

In the same park are noble summits disfigured with such appellations as Stimson Mountain, Pinchot Mountain, and it is proposed to rename some crest with a sonorous or suggestive Indian name after our present inconsequent Secretary of the Navy. No wonder the Blackfeet Indians protest.

As one goes west across Montana, from the vast convex of the Great Plains there rises southward a mass called the Bear Paw Mountain, while a little farther rise upon the north the Sweet Water Hills. How euphonious, even poetic are these names!

There are in Montana counties named Silver Bow, Deer Lodge and Beaver Head, but even Montana could not get off without naming one county the eternal Cass. Just why there should be a Cass county in about every Western State no one knows, for Lewis Cass is now all but forgotten.

But the practice of disfiguring a noble landmark with the ugly cognomen of a piffling politician should be sternly repressed. The propensity is no more than the grown-up edition of the small boy's itch to scribble his name on the back of the barn. Henry Stimson, a worthy gentleman, was a good Secretary of War. But if he fancies that his family name is beautiful, his taste is small and his vanity great. Stimson is so ugly a word, indeed, that the mountain cursed by it ought to become a volcano in order to blow its own head off.

If these politicians had their way, they would rechristen the Sierra Nevada the Woodrow Wilson Range, call the Cascades the William Howard Taft Mountains, change the Bitter Root to Elihu, style the Colorado River the W. J. Bryan, our own Red River of the North or that of the South the J. Ham Lewis stream, and designate Great Salt Lake as Reed Smoot Pond.

Why should a politician be allowed to perpetrate his prosaic name by disgracing a splendid peak, already differentiated by an appropriate Indian appellation, that preserves some tradition or betoken some natural peculiarity?

Thank Heaven, Seattle was called after a "big Injun chief," and curses on the perversity that insists on changing Mount Tacoma into Rainier!

Our grandchildren are going to be more critical than we. They will better cherish their folk-lore and will have more regard for their America. When they run across Mount Josepheus Daniels and William Jennings Bryan Gulch, they will scoff at their grandfathers' taste. We hope they will do better still—take the Stimson and its stigma off one grand summit and restore the picturesque old Blackfoot Indian name.—Minneapolis Journal.

THE JESTER.

The "Maiden's Prayer."

An elderly bachelor and an equally elderly spinster sat in a concert hall. The selections were apparently entirely unfamiliar to the gentleman, but when the wedding march of Mendelssohn was begun he pricked up his ears.

"That sounds familiar," he exclaimed. "But I'm not strong on those classical pieces. That is a good un. What is it?" The spinster cast down her eyes. "That," she told him, demurely, "is the 'Maiden's Prayer.'"—Atlanta Journal.

A Fact as to Editors.

On rainy days, and also on other occasions which are not unconnected with the postman's visits, we find the whole of a truth in this from the Thomasville (Ga.) Times:

If you see an editor who pleases everybody, there will be a glass plate over his face and he will not be standing up.—Collier's Weekly.

A Question of Adjectives.

Choice of adjectives is largely a matter of proportion. The American telegrams report a "bloody battle" in Mexico; American casualties, 37. I wonder how many times that number were killed in France and Russia in one day in skirmishes which we don't even call slight?—London Observer.

Confirmed Pessimist.

"I never hear you discussing the weather."

"What's the use" the melancholy man asked. "Every time it rains somebody steals my umbrella and every time the sun comes out I get ink spots on my Palm Beach suit and have to send it to the cleaner."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Had It Marked.

A New Orleans cotton broker employed a young woman stenographer who was an acutely incorrect speller. She was so competent in every other way he bought her a dictionary and advised her to use it regularly.

The next morning when he came down to his office he noticed that to protect the new book from the constant wear she was expected to give it she had covered the backs with cloth, and across the cover she had written: "Dictionery."—Lamb.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Hayward day and Babies' day were celebrated at the Oakland Exposition today. Nearly 700 infants were present.

Lady Sholto Douglas is in Oakland again. Her husband is in Arizona and she will remain here for a while with her mother, Mrs. Mooney.

The University of California opened today and students are being rapidly enrolled. The entrance class will number about 500. Oriental languages have been added to the university studies.

Health Officer Bradley and Sanitary Inspector Smith this morning made a thorough examination of the City Hall sanitation and a recommendation to the Board of Health to placard the building may follow.

Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. George Swain of Berkeley were passengers on the Pacific Coast steamship St. Paul which went on the rocks near Monterey Saturday night. All the passengers were safely landed.

CHILDREN'S BAD MANNERS.

The North American child is too often merely the by-product of marriage. It serves as an outlet for that pride which its parents cannot always reasonably take in themselves. It is petted, cajoled, pampered, overdressed and underdisciplined till there is evolved a strange pygmy for whom the world soon grows banal, who is destitute of the petitionary appeal of childhood, and who surveys an already anticipated and thoroughly analyzed future with the cold eyes of unnatural knowledge. The world is its football. It is smart beyond description. But there is in the forced garden of its life no sheltered bed where may bloom the flowers of graciousness or peace. Of such will be the new aristocracy, and its traditions will be of grandfathers who, by virtue of that fine native American long-headedness, delivered the goods of their period and were promptly and suitably rewarded. But there will be few traditions of courtliness, scant reminders that noblesse oblige, and but scattered memories of inherited responsibilities. The sempiternal dollar will still dominate. One generation was too busy collecting and the other will be too busy spending. The second generation offers no promise, and the third but little. The fourth will probably open a new and finer cycle.—Harper's Magazine.

THE LAWS OF THE LAND.

The field secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Mr. Edward Trefz, has been counting the laws passed by Congress and by the State Legislatures in the last five years. He reports a grand total of 62,250. The contrast with the number of laws passed by the British Parliament in ten years, 1500 in all, is either painful or magnificent, as you choose to view it. To Mr. Trefz it is painful. He suggests that we, the people, are "law crazy." Perhaps he has not taken into account the fact that an American legislator measures his statesmanship by the number of bills he gets passed. "At last this district has come into its own," the hero tells the voters. "I have secured the passage of the bill permitting the taking of seven inch porgies in Buttermilk Brook on rainy Thursdays in May. In spite of the opposition of the bosses I have put on the books a statute allowing noiseless bouquet holders to be placed on motor cars costing less than $683. Send me back and I pledge you that I shall not rest until I have passed a law abolishing sharp corners on dog biscuits.'

What would happen to a legislator who went home at the end of a session and said to his constituents: "I did not make a new law, but I voted for the repeal of sixty-three idiotic ones, and I hope next year to prevent our august body from passing any laws at all"?

He would be stoned as a standpatter and obliterated as an obstructionist. Life will not be perfect until each citizen has a code of lawyer-made law applying to himself alone.—New York Sun.

BRITISH IN RUSSIA.

A British naval unit consisting of a large number of powerful armed cars and complete equipment under orders of Commander Locker-Lampson left England last November in a number of transports for Archangel. Ice in the White Sea prevented them from making that port. They therefore proceeded to Alexandrowsk (Lapland), which was open. Here the unit spent the winter and engaged in practice drills. Alexandrowsk has a population of 200, and the addition of several British sailors taxed its capacity. School buildings were used as barracks. In addition to drill some of the men were employed as guards for the German and Austrian prisoners engaged in the construction of the new Archangel railroad.

No hint has been given of the purpose of this unit in Russia except the statement that "the work was highly important and probably had a very material influence in the present condition of the Russian army." The unit was composed of soldiers representative of the whole British empire. Many of its members had fought in France, Belgium, Gallipoli and German Southwest Africa. At Moscow a great reception was tendered officers and men by the military and civil authorities. In every Russian town they passed through the sailors were cheered and pelted with flowers. The Grand Duchess Elizabeth received Commander Locker-Lampson and presented mementos to officers and men. The unit early in June proceeded from Moscow to the Russian headquarters; and is probably engaged somewhere in the Russian drive.—Halifax Chronicle.

COST OF HIGH CROSSINGS.

It is stated that since 1902 the Pennsylvania railroad has wiped out 1000 grade crossings at a cost of nearly $70,000,000, an average of $70,000. The elimination of five such crossings recently in Wilkinsburg, near Pittsburg, cost the company $3,000,000. A substantial addition to this number will be made by the completion of the South Philadelphia improvement, when the grade crossings on Washington avenue and a number of other streets will be removed. This work comes high, but civilization demands it.—Philadelphia Record.

SAUSAGES AT OFFICE; ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Not All of His Wife's Other Acts Were so Playful or Innocent as This, Claims W. J. Harris, Produce Dealer

Hyper-Jealousy Is Alleged to Have Made Apron String for Him, When Out of Town, That Were Uncomfortable

For the purpose of humiliating and annoying her husband Mrs. Alma G. Harris was in the habit of ordering miscellaneous articles such as sausages, brooms and coal scuttles and having them sent to his place of business C. O. D., according to the divorce complaint filed by W. J. Harris, a local produce merchant. These attentions were but playful compared with some of her other alleged acts, for the plaintiff accuses her of attempting to defame his reputation by calling up George Hatch, the prominent commission dealer, on the telephone, and making false accusations as to the plaintiff's character.

Home life was not pleasant, according to the plaintiff. On one occasion he came home, he declares, to find the door locked and fastened on the inside with a rope so that he could not enter. On June 29 of this year he says that he returned home as usual after the day's work and found the house empty, the furniture and household belongings having been removed to another location.

Harris says that his wife has been in the habit of writing letters to different points in the state to ascertain whether or not he had been to certain places where he had previously informed her he was going; that she would make long-distance telephone calls to see if he really was in hotels where he was supposed to be and that she employed a detective once to watch his movements.

Other charges made by the plaintiff are that his wife tried to shoot him, that she went through his pockets nightly in search of money, that she flew into rages in the presence of visitors to the home, that she wrote insulting letters to him and left them on his bureau, that she called his father a "rake" and that she spread scandals about him.

The couple were married in San Rafael, October 21, 1900, and have a daughter, 14 years of age. The plaintiff says that his wife is the owner of a valuable ranch in Santa Cruz county and that she has the exclusive use of the income from that property.

Suits for divorce were filed by Lucille Bouton against Charles L. Bouton, failure to provide and cruelty; Hazel Gamble against William J. Gamble, cruelty; John Rodrigues against Virginia Rodrigues, unfaithfulness; G. P. Webster against Bessie M. Webster, desertion; Anna H. Roache against Valton G. Roache, failure to provide; Florence E. Geney against Henry P. Geney, cruelty.

Lease Endorsed by Realty Exchange

The following resolution was passed by the Real Estate Association of Alameda County at its meeting this week. The resolution did not endorse the movement for the waterfront lease as a whole, but simply advocated a longer lease and an amendment to the city charter to be brought about by a city election:

"Resolved, That the Oakland Real Estate Board hereby approves the proposed amendment to the Oakland City Charter empowering the Oakland City Council to lease, for a period longer than 25 years, that certain portion of tide lands of the western water front, specified in the call for the election of August 22, 1916, reserving its approval of the lease itself until the terms of the said lease have been passed upon by this board."

FIGHT ENDS IN ARREST.

Giles Arthur, a broker, was arrested by Patrolman F. W. Burbank early this morning and booked at the city prison on a charge of driving his automobile while intoxicated. According to Burbank, Arthur was engaged in a fight with another man at Tenth and Washington streets and when the officer called to him to stop he ran to his automobile and started to drive away.

Blue Bird Bureau

Surely there is magic in the name "Blue Bird." People seem to yield to the spell of this agent of happiness more readily than to any other. For instance, we are able today to announce that our demand for a wheel chair has been satisfied. Not only that, but instead of one wheel chair we are going to get two, and this do more good than we had anticipated.

Both chairs will be loaned out by the month. The first goes to a young woman who has not been able to leave her bed for four months following an operation. A friend suggested to this girl the Blue Bird Bureau and undertook to pen the letter that set the wheels in motion. An express company which does Blue Bird errands free will deliver the chair today.

Another invalid chair will go to an invalid mother in East Oakland who is dependent on the wages of a manly little son. This woman has not been out of her house for two years. By means of the Blue Bird wheel chair she will accompany her son the very next fine morning on a pleasant journey through the neighborhood. Small wonder that letters come in every day saying: "God bless the Blue Bird."

Any quarrels we may have ever had with dentists we are sorry for. Any harsh things we may have said about the profession and its instruments of torture we take back. We can recall a time when our childish minds believed that the white-coated gentry who preside over the plush chairs were put on earth for the express purpose of punishing bad people, but we are learning to the contrary. Three Blue Bird dentists in the past month have shown themselves the best sort of Good Fellows. We raised what we regarded as the minimum sum needed for one case only to find that the dentist wouldn't take a 5-cent piece, and it was quite a job, too. So the money we raised goes to the patient, who is in sore need. One good turn, it appears, begets another. Isn't it the truth?

Today a little circle representing one of the women's organizations connected with Bushrod playground is working at the Harrison school, arranging what clothing has come in. Tomorrow is distribution day. We are sorry to say that the supply of apparel for school children is very scanty and many youngsters will be disappointed sorely. A small supply of new material suitable for girl's dresses came to us mysteriously the other day and the women will make these up this afternoon. We need good, clean children's clothing and need it urgently. Phone Lakeside 6000 if you cannot arrange to have the clothing brought direct to The TRIBUNE building. If you could have your own children bring down today after school a bundle of clothing they have outgrown it would be very welcome.

SUSPECT COUPLE OF SUICIDE PACT

Inquest Concerning the Death of Vancouver Man Halts for New Evidence.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Because of the continued illness of Mrs. Marie Davis, the inquest concerning the death of her husband, Morris Davis, was postponed today for a week after several witnesses had testified concerning the finding of his body in his apartment in a Michigan avenue hotel yesterday.

Mrs. Davis told the police yesterday that she and her husband had taken poison by mistake for salts, but detectives hint that financial reverses might have led the couple, who came here from Vancouver, B. C., to enter into a suicide pact.

John Russell, a detective from the South Clark street station, testified that his investigation so far led him to believe that Davis was temporarily embarrassed in finances.

Dr. P. B. Welch, the hotel physician, testified that he did not believe the couple had planned a suicide pact.

Hay Thieves Are Caught by Owner

E. F. Morrill, an Edith-street contractor, told the police today that he had intercepted four young men who had stolen two bales of hay belonging to him late last night. They were driving away with it after placing it in a light wagon, when he stopped them. The four fled, leaving the horse and wagon in his possession. The vehicle is believed by the police to have been stolen, and is being held at the Northern station.

Check Passer Makes Escape From Hospital

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Dr. John Harry Mellon, a dentist, sentenced recently to a two-year term at San Quentin penitentiary for passing alleged worthless checks, escaped today from the county hospital where he was confined pending an appeal.

A rope made from torn sheets hanging from a narrow ledge high above the ground, and footprints on the ground below, indicated the method of flight.

POPE FOLLOWING IRISH SITUATION

Pacification of Country Greatly Desired by Statesmen of Vatican.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Irish situation is being followed by the Pope with the keenest interest, according to the Liverpool Post, which states that the pontiff is most anxious for the "pacification of Ireland." In an article in today's issue, the paper says:

"The Pope and the statesmen of the Vatican are most anxious for what is described as 'the pacification of Ireland.' This anxiety has been made known to the Irish Catholic Hierarchy through the most direct sources, and, of course, it has not escaped attention. The rector of the Irish College in Rome has been in close association of late with the diplomats and statesmen of the Vatican and has conferred with divines who enjoy the Pope's confidence, including Cardinal Gasquet, who has recently been in England."

Clothesline Thief and Burglars Busy

A wide variety of articles, ranging from clothes on the line to jewelry, made up the loot of burglars who entered Oakland homes last night. Mrs. G. E. Sieman, 2834 Chapman street, told the police that a thief had taken $15 worth of clothes from her wash lines during the night. Clothing valued at $40 was stolen from the home of G. A. Landhraf, 1630 San Pablo avenue, while Frank Ashe, of Martinez, lost a silver watch from his room in a Twelfth street lodging house.

Revolvers and jewelry were taken from the home of W. E. Smith, 5113 Broadway; an alarm clock and clothing from the home of Orsi Bartolomer, Fourth and Broadway; clothing from the room of Tom Willard, 334 Broadway, and jewelry from the home of Mrs. Etta Smith, 5113 Broadway.

Mrs. H. D. Marion, 730 Twelfth street, had pity on a stranger who asked her for food last evening, and fed him. She later discovered the loss of property valued at $15.

Sunol Outing for Good Roads Is Merry

Events in the Oakland-San Francisco celebration of Good Roads Day went off according to schedule and an enthusiastic gathering was held at Sunol, the junction point. About thirty automobile parties joined the procession and attended the picnic.

Entertainment was furnished by games and speeches and a baseball game between the Auto Dealers and the Chamber of Commerce in which the former team won out in four hard-fought innings by the score of 9 to 5. Speeches were made by H. C. Ostermann, field agent for the Lincoln Highway; Congressman J. Arthur Elston; Mayor John L. Davie; W. R. Humphries, chairman of "Safety First Week," and W. D. Scott, chairman of the Inyo county Good Roads committee.

Joseph E. Caine, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, acted as chairman of the picnic.

FRICK SAYS HE'LL FIGHT ACCUSATION

School Board Members Declare "Conscience Clear," While District Attorney Insists They "Worked" County for Pay

Superintendent's Job at Stake, and Prosecutor Prepares to Offer Office Records to Prove Charges Laid Before Censors

There will be no resignations under fire on the part of the five members of the County Board of Education, who have been accused by the grand jury of willful misconduct in office. Each and every one of the educators has expressed the possession of a conscience free from guilt and the determination to fight the charges in court with the aid of legal counsel.

"The charges are absurd," declared County Superintendent of Schools George W. Frick. "I repeat what I have said before—that the board was only following a procedure which is common in all the counties of the state. The members of the board have not collected any more money this year than in years past, and I fail to see why an action which was not a crime last year has suddenly become a crime worthy of dismissal from office. It is strange that the district attorney did not investigate our conduct before, if it was so heinous. I shall employ counsel and fight this through to the finish."

William McDonald, former principal of the Livermore public school, who represents the southern end of the county on the school board, expressed his determination to battle for his good name by repulsing the accusations of the grand jury. "I have lived for fifty-seven years in this county," he said, "and there has never been a shadow of suspicion upon my acts. I do not propose to have a stain placed on my reputation at this late day by keeping quiet in the face of such an unjust charge. There will be a struggle as far as I am concerned."

Miss Genevieve McKeever of the Vocational high school, Principal C. L. Biedenbach of the Berkeley high school and Principal P. M. Fisher of the Oakland Technical high school, the other members of the board, have all announced that they intend to apepar in court on August 22 before Judge F. B. Ogden, provided with counsel and prepared to prove their innocence of all intent or act of wrong-doing.

FOUR FACE REMOVAL.

While four members of the board face removal in the event that the accusations are proved, and will lose nothing but the per diem compensation which they receive for attending meetings, Superintendent George W. Frick would be more seriously affected, as he would lose his position as county superintendent with its salary of $4000 a year. The statutes which make him a member of the board combine with those providing for his popular election in such a way that the two positions are legally one.

The expenses of the county board have not varied more than $1000 during the last five years, according to Auditor Frank Garrison. 'About $3000 has been the annual amount asked for and allowed to Frick for the current expenses of the board," he said, "and he has never gone over this amount. I think it is safe to say that the attendance fees have never fluctuated more than $100 during the five years, including the fees for 1916."

Regarding the specific charge in the formal accusation that 26 meetings in June and 17 meetings in May were never actually held, but that the per diem was collected, Frick said:

There is no doubt but that the meetings were held. Our minutes indicate that and all of the members were in attendance. And the reason that so many meetings were held in those two months is because of the fact that all of the examinations in the country school districts are held during that period and it is the duty of our board to correct the examination papers.

As a matter of fact, that is the period in which all of our work is practically done. It is true that the meetings were not extended ones. Sometimes they were very brief, but they were necessary toward the end of getting all of the examination papers corrected on time. It must be remembered in this connection that it is the duty of the County Board of Education to correct all of the examination papers of all of the pupils in all of the seventh and eighth grades in all of the county schools.

District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, who presented the case to the Grand Jury, makes a counter statement as follows:

Under Subdivision 1, Section 17 of the Code, the Board of Education must hold two meetings a year and may hold special meetings at any time when the exigencies of the school department may seem to require it. A special meeting may also be held upon the written request of three members. It is the theory of my office that all of these meetings in May and June were entirely unnecessary and were not called as provided for in the Code. In fact, the minute books show that the memorandum of the meetings was scribbed in the margin of the minute books.

It is pointed out that this thing has been going on for years. All I can say in regard to this is that it is not the duty of the District Attorney to act as a policeman and spy out these things. When it has been called to our attention, as in this case, of course, my duty is plain and I think I will, too, show that the meetings in May and June were called without regard to the actual needs of the county. The point is not that the members were not collecting fees for meetings which they did not attend, but that they worked the provision giving them the prerogative of calling meetings to the ultimate limit.

MISS McKEEVER'S STATEMENT.

Miss Genevieve McKeever, one of the members of the board, today issued the following statement:

"Because of a statement made about me in relation to the Alameda County Board of Education in a San Francisco daily, I make this statement. I have made no admission before the grand jury to having received any fees for any meeting which I did not attend. On the other hand I stated emphatically that I was present at every meeting for which I was paid.

"There are no admissions for me to make, nor any reasons for my not discussing the matter, as my business transactions with the county of Alameda have been as honorable as have each and every one of my private business transactions.

"GENEVIEVE McKEEVER."

BOMB PLOT PRISONERS FACE COURT

Graphic Presentation of Occurence of July 22 by Drawings, Photos and Copy of Bomb Is Among Plans

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—With the courtroom crowded to the doors, the five bomb suspects indicted for murder appeared before Presiding Judge George Cabaniss this morning. All save Thomas Mooney and his wife Rena were arraigned and were given time in which to enter their pleas. The Mooneys, having failed to obtain counsel, were given continuances.

The cases were called in Judge Franklin Griffin's court. Warren K. Billings and Israel Weinberg sat in the back row, and Thomas J. Mooney and Edward D. Nolan were in front of them in direct view of the spectators. Mrs. Mooney occupied one of the chairs reserved for counsel, accompanied by a county jail matron and her sister. The four men talked together while they waited for Judge Cabaniss, and Weinberg held the floor for a long period, speaking in whispers for the benefit of his three companions.

Mrs. Mooney was spoken to by several persons in the courtroom. When she approached the judge's rostrum for arraignment, her husband put his arm around her for a moment in an inconspicuous caress.

Billings was represented by Attorneys Edwin Lemasney and John Lawlor; Nolan by Attorneys William Hoff Cook and Albert Waldstein, and Weinberg by Attorney J. G. Reisner.

THREE INDICTMENTS.

There were three indictments on the calendar, one charging the murder of Captain Ruben J. Vaughn of 2917 Lorena street, Berkeley; the second the killing of Mrs. Hetta E. Knapp of 1436 Sixth street, Alameda, and the third the murder of Arthur Nelson of Larkspur. Billings, Nolan and Weinberg declared that those were their true names and the indictments were read to them.

Billings' case was continued until Tuesday, Nolan's until Wednesday and Weinberg's until Saturday for the purpose of entering pleas. When the Mooneys' cases were called both husband and wife stated that they had not obtained an attorney.

"We haven't had a chance to secure counsel yet," explained Mooney. "We are trying to arrange that now, but this is a big thing and I would like a continuance for two weeks."

The court instructed both as to their rights and put the matter over until Tuesday, advising them to obtain a lawyer in the meantime.

All of the members of counsel indicated that they would ask for separate trials and that they would want additional continuances in order that they might investigate all the facts of the case. They were served with copies of the grand jury indictments.

GRAPHIC DEMONSTRATION.

A visual picture of the exploding of the infernal machine at Steuart and Market streets will be prepared for the benefit of the jury who will try Warren K. Billings, Thomas J. Mooney, Rena Mooney, Edward D. Nolan and Israel Weinberg for murder. Not only will photographs of the scene, drawings showing the position of the injured and slain ones and specimens of the handwriting of poisoned pen writers be presented, but a bomb reconstructed in miniature will be shown in dummy form.

Captain Duncan Matheson has already prepared plans for the putting together of this most interesting and vital exhibit and the details of its getup will be carefully explained to the twelve men who must decide the guilt or innocence of the five defendants.

Police Photographer George Blum, Sergeant Russell of the department of drawing and handwriting expert Theodore Kytka have all been set at work on the details and the bomb building has been given over to the care of powder experts who are themselves to testify as to its construction.

Meantime Fickert's assistants today examined Mrs. Israel Weinberg, wife of one of the five suspects, in regard to letters she wrote her husband from Cleveland, Ohio, on July 23 and July 25. In the first of these, written the day after the bomb explosion, she said: "I have been uneasy. I have been reading about that bomb explosion." The second letter contained this question: "Have they arrested the Mooneys or any of the other boys?"

The expression of uneasiness the day after the dynamiting, before the police suspected Weinberg, is regarded as significant. Fickert declares that on July 25, when Mrs. Weinberg asked if the Mooneys had been arrested, she did not know her husband and Thomas Mooney and his wife were then under arrest and they believe this letter is another link in their chain of evidence indicating a conspiracy.

Mediation Board in Conference With Committee of Four Brotherhoods Involved in Threatened Rail Walk-out

Signing of Agreement, Arbitration or Failure in Each Effort Are Possibilities Before the National Body

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation held today its first conference with a committee representing the four brotherhoods of railway employees in their attempts to mediate the controversy between the railway men and the 225 railway systems over the demand for an eight-hour day and extra pay for overtime.

The mediators held their first conference with the National Conference Committee of Railway Managers yesterday. William L. Chambers, one of the mediators, said afterwards that the railroad managers told the mediation board how far they were prepared to go in an attempt to avoid a strike, and that the managers made their side of the argument plain. These deliberations are secret. Chambers said the mediators would have a much better idea of the situation after talking with the employees' committee today.

THREE POSSIBILITIES.

There are three possible results of the mediation. One is that the Federal board will be able to get the managers and workers to sign an agreement. Another is that the mediators will be able to induce both parties to consent to arbitration if mediation fails. The third possibility is that the Federal board will fail in both.

W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Enginemen and Firemen, said:

"Arbitration is a gambling game, even when the dice are not loaded. Railway employes have lost faith in the justice of arbitration boards. They believe arbitration is as fickle as chance. If there is arbitration of this eight-hour demand, and every effort is made to appear neutral and free from prejudice, it is but tossing pennies to decide the question. Why has none suggested that the matter be settled by 'pulling straws,' and relieve everybody of the bother?"

NO MODIFICATION.

Nothing was officially disclosed as to the success the mediators met, but it was learned on good authority that the brotherhoods had shown no disposition to modify their demands.

"The status is unchanged," was the only comment made by A. B. Garretson, head of the Conductors' Brotherhood, was willing to make after the conference adjourned.

"We have only scratched the surface," said G. W. W. Hanger, one of the three members of the mediation board, "the situation may be cleared up in twenty hours and then negotiations may continue for a week."

The mediators arranged for a second conference with the railroad managers this afternoon and to meet the brotherhoods' representatives again tomorrow morning.

PORTLAND PULLS VERNON DOWN IN PITCHERS' DUEL

Beavers Play in Traveling Suits of Tigers, and Then Hand Them Beating.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10. — Portland defeated Vernon in a ten-inning pitchers' battle between Decanniere and Houck by a score of 2 to 1. The visitors appeared on the field in the traveling uniforms of their vanquished hosts on account of the fact that the playing garb of the Beavers was left in San Francisco by mistake. When it began to look as if the game would be runless, Portland broke the ice in the seventh inning on two hits and an error by Mattick. Vernon evened up the score in their half on Bates' single, a sacrifice and an infield hit by McGaffigan. Vernon substituted Quinn for Decanniere in the tenth, but Portland clinched their victory in the same session after a batting rally. The score:

DALTON'S BUNT IN NINTH SHEARS THE WINGS OF ANGELS

Batting Brigades Have an Afternoon All to Themselves, Smearing 7 Pitchers.

The timely hitting of Ducky Jones and Biff Schaller crowned by Jack Dalton's clever bunt in the ninth, gave the Seals an 8-7 victory over Los Angeles yesterday. Twenty-eight base hits gave the afternoon a Verdun flavor and held the spectators in their seats for two hours and a half. Seven hurlers passed in and out of the box, and none of them could stop the attack of the batting brigade. Zabel and Couch began the flinging for their respective families. Zabel got into trouble right away when Jones walked and Schaller and Bodie singled, filling the pillows with none out. Here followed a freak play. Dalton lifted a fly to right, and the three Seal runners lowered their heads and stampeded for the plate. In the excitement, Bodie passed Schaller on the way home and had to be coaxed back into his proper place. Then Wolter got the ball, and with an easy triple play in sight, he heaved the pill into next week, permitting Schaller to retrace his steps to third, and then score, and allowing the other runners to get back to their bags safely. Bodie got a home in the fourth putting the Seals in the lead 6-2 and then Hogg replaced Zabel.

Couch walked two men in the fifth and Murphy filled the bags with a single. Ryan, pinch hitting for Butler, singled, scoring two, and Wolverton sent Spider Baum to the box. Baum allowed one hit and was yanked in favor of Oldham. Then came more hits and a double by Ellis and the Angel hung up five runs for the round.

Rounding into the ninth with one run against them, the Seals rushed forward another offensive. Jones and Schaller doubled, the former scoring. Biff took third on Bodie's fly and Downs was purposely walked. Then Dalton came through with a swinging bunt that no one could reach and the game was in the can. Score:

JOE GORMAN RETURNS FROM NORTHWEST

Joe Gorman, crack Oakland bantamweight, returned to this city from Portland yesterday with the Pacific Northwest bantamweight title attached to his name. Through his victory over Billy Mascott, who beat Johnny Coulon twice, Gorman won a great deal of prestige in the Northwest and he is very much in demand.

Gorman is here for only a two weeks' stay. He will return to Portland soon, where he will meet Mascott in a return match. Joe may be matched with Lee Johnson before the next Wheelmen Club show. Jimmy Dundee, local bantamweight champ, is after Gorman's scalp, too, and the pair may be brought together.

RITCHIE IN SHAPE FOR HOPPE

Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion of the world, wound up his training at the Olympic club yesterday and is ready for his scheduled four round tilt with Willie Hoppe at Daly City tomorrow night. Ritchie boxed four fast rounds with Soldier Woods and showed up splendidly. He is a bit lighter than he was when he fought Hoppe and will enter the ring weighing around the 142 pound mark.

Hoppe is training on his ranch at Windsor with Fighting Billy Murray. He is in good shape, too, and expects to beat the ex-title holder to the decision tomorrow night. Ritchie, however, is a 2 to 1 favorite to win.

Billy Alveris of Oakland and Jimmy Ford of North Beach tangle for the ninth time in the star special. There will be five other bouts and Promoter Louis Parente announced that there will be fast car service to and from the arena.

P. S.—The ball Smith hit in an earlier paragraph is still going up. It was that kind of a hit.

HERE IS A YOUNG ALL-COAST TEAM

Here is an all-star Pacific Coast League team picked by a fan who signs the initials "B. B." to the article. He explains that in selecting the outfit he gave the younger players the call on the positions. Speed, he said, is his first essential. Here is his team:

Pitchers — Martin, Horstman, Couch, Piercy, E. Johnson and Noyes.
Catchers—Bassler, Sepulveda.
First Base—Guisto.
Second Base—Risberg.
Third Base—Jones.
Shortstop—McGaffigan.

CALIFORNIA PLAYERS LOST AT LAKE FOREST

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 10.—California's hopes in the tennis championship here went glimmering today when Ward Dawson, Los Angeles, was beaten in the fourth round by the Illinois and Northwestern champion, Heath Byford of Chicago, 7-5, 6-0, and Kenneth Hawkes, Los Angeles, was eliminated in a belated first-round match by a Chicago youngster, W. A. Futterer, 4-5, 6-4, 7-5.

The first set in the Byford-Dawson match was brilliant with wonderful rallies and placements, Dawson failing in the last two games of the set which Byford won without giving his opponent a point. Dawson slumped completely then, and the second slumped to Byford, 610, Dawson banging point after point into the net.

Maurice McLoughlin arrived with Hawks, but defaulted his match with C. Cole, saying he was not in condition due to the long ride here from the Coast.

SPOKANE IS SELLING ITS BALL CLUB

SPOKANE, Aug. 10.—Outfielder Kenneth Williams of the Spokane Northwestern League team has been sold to the Portland Pacific Coast League team, and Pitcher "Rube" Evans has been sold to the Salt Lake team, according to announcement here by Nick Williams, manager of the Spokane Indians.

Deals are pending, Williams announced, for the sale to Pacific Coast League clubs of First Baseman Earl Sheely, Pitcher "Dutch" Reuther and Second Baseman Gard Gislason.

Kenneth Williams is to report to the Portland club at the beginning of the 1917 season, while Evans will go to Salt Lake at the end of the present Northwestern League season.

The terms of any of the deals were not divulged.

"TUB" SPENCER OFF TO JOIN DETROIT

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—Edward ("Tubby") Spencer, catcher for the Vernon team of the Pacific Coast League, left last night to join the Detroit American League team after obtaining the permission of Ed Maier, president of the Tiger team, to make the change. Spencer joined Vernon last year with the understanding he would be permitted to leave if an opportunity offered for him to better himself.

Honus Mitze, catcher, who was released by Vernon last May, is to rejoin the team it was announced today. J. P. Evans, third baseman, obtained from the Cleveland Americans, arrived today to join the Portland team.

MANDA NOW STAR IN TEXAS LEAGUE

Carl Manda, the second sacker who played with the Oaks for a while last year, being secured from the Chicago White Sox, may be in the big leagues again before long. Manda, after being let go by the local club, caught on in the Texas League, where this year he has been putting up the highest caliber of ball of any infielder in the league.

Carl is playing for Fort Worth and the latest batting averages give him a mark of .316. As he always was a remarkably clever infielder, Carl may find himself in the majors soon. Two or three big league organizations, including Washington, have already sent scouts to look him over.

Sietz, who also played the infield for the Oaks, is batting .301 for Houston, while Archie Tanner, shortstop, is hitting .282 for Waco.

JONES AND FERRO SPOIL W. O. CARD BY WRETCHED GO

Tavas Returns to Favor by Beating the Veteran Frank Rome.

Frankie Jones and Joe Ferro, San Francisco middleweights, put up a miserable four-round exhibition at West Oakland last night, spoiling what was otherwise a good card. The match should never have been made, as both boys are of the same style—clumsy and awkward, and relying on roundhouse swings and infighting. Their showing was so poor last night that half the spectators were convinced that the boys were faking. As a matter of fact both Ferro and Jones were trying, but neither could fight a boxer of the same style as his own. Jones got the decision, but there was no advantage. He appeared to be trying the hardest.

The preliminary bouts provided by Tommy Simpson were hum-dingers. Norman Stone and Willie Webb engaged in a tussle that should have been labeled as the main event. They fought toe-to-toe all the way, one rallying and then the other. Webb, who has picked up quite a bit of knowledge about the Marquis of Queensberry art, had the better of most of these rallies. He crashed rights and lefts square into Stone's face time and again. Stone fought hard all the time, but he couldn't solve Webb's rushing tactics and he had to be content with the worst end of the verdict.

Pete Tavas came back to life by beating Frank Rome to a pulp in four rounds. Tavas fought like a champion, never backing up a step and beating his opponent to almost every punch. Pete's great showing last evening should place him in good stead with the local fans.

Chris George and Joe Ketchell fought a hard bout, George being given the decision, though a draw verdict would have pleased the fans more. Battling Vieira beat Kid Erne, substituting for Clem Rodgers, in a good bout, in which Erne displayed plenty of gameness, while Danny Edwards beat George Brandon. Ray Rose stopped Kid Wales in the first round and Kid Bromes won from Kid Oliver.

Reading the Green

Portland borrow Vernon's clothes and then beat the Tigers. That's gratitude.

The Beavers' suits went astray, so McCredie's henchmen wore the Bengal's traveling blues. In the tenth Rodgers, Speas, Guisto and Roche singled in a row. Score 2 to 1.

Angels hit Couch and Oldham for five tallies in the sixth, but San Francisco clinched it in the eighth when Jones and Schaller doubled. Bodie homed.

Score at Salt Lake—Oakland 2, Bees 7. Hall heaved the Oaks into a state of coma and then drove in four of the seven runs with a triple and two doubles. He also made a run himself and Salt Lake made the other two.

Yesterday's big league hero was Elmer J. Smith, Cleveland, who came to the front as a pinch hitter in the seventh, and with the score tied, walloped the ball over the fence, sending a man in ahead.

The Red Sox in first and Cleveland in third place, are like the top and bottom crusts of boarding-house pie—yes, they are that close together. Look at the standings.

The Athletics won!

Fred Merkle suffered himself to be put out by the hidden ball trick. And right at the self-same second base about which Johnny Evers has written a book.

Larry Cheney held the Cubs to two measly singles, Brooklyn tightening its hold on first place as a result.

The Browns defeated Walter Johnson. Four of their seven hits were doubles.

FAST RACES IN SANTA ROSA MEET

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Aug. 10. — The Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association opened the 1916 season here yesterday with a meet which is to last four days. Yesterday's program included one pace, two trotting matches and two running races.

The feature race was the three-year-old pacing futurity No. 13, which was won by Rico, driven by C. J. Durfee. Captain Mack, driven by F. Woodcock, came in second and Surety, driven by A. McDonald, was third. The respective times of the heats were: 2:10¼, 2:10¾ and 2:09½. These, it was announced, were the fastest miles paced by three-year-olds in the United States this year.

YACHT COLUMBINE IS WINNER OF CUPS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 10. — The San Diego Yacht Club cup and the J. J. Hernan cup were won by the yacht Columbine of San Francisco in the race held today under the auspices of the local club. The Gretchen of this city was second.

The Genevieve, also of San Francisco, was awarded first place in Tuesday's race, the question of the winner having been in dispute because of it being larger than the other competing yachts.

ATHLETES HAVE MONTH TO PREPARE FOR BIG RACE

Tribune Marathon Training Will Occupy Time of California Distance Runners

One month from today the Fourth Annual Tribune Merritt Marathon will be history. The greta race is scheduled for Admission Day, the 9th of September, and during the nert four weeks two hundred and fifty of California's crack distance runners will be putting in hard licks for the six and a quarter mile run. Of course all the two hundred and fifty are not going to try to break the record of thirty-three minutes, ten and a fifth seconds set last year by Oliver J. Millard, the great Olympic Club runner, but even the boys who expect to win pries for finishing inside the one hour time limit must train. Then there are many crack runners of the bay cities who are going to fight for those first dozen places which bring with them handsome special prizes. High schools and cdlubs will also get into the training habit, as the prize offered for the best five-man team is bound to draw some hot competition, and local boys are sure that the Olympic Club is not going to hog the honors always.

FREMONT TEAM FORMING.

The Fremont High School athletic department, which in the past turned out the greatest high school distance teams of the State, is going to get into the team prize competition. When the cross country race was a classic of high school competition, Fremont used to come through with first prize almost every year. Since the high schools have abandoned the cross country race, Fremont has lacked competition for its crack runners, but this year they are going to get into The TRIBUNE race for all they are worth. Physical Director Blesse is already organizing his men, and not only will he make it a point to put a good five-man team in the running, but all the football men will be expected to take the run as a training stunt.

"I do not expect our boys to make a great showing against such men as Millard or Benneson," said Blesse, "but with five fair men in the race, I expect our team to come through with the big average that will win the prize. If we can get all five runners inside the twenty mark the team prize will be cinched for us."

FAT LARUE TRAINING.

Some of the runners who expect to get into the race are already training on the Lake Merritt course. These lads figure that they have the edge on the other runners, as by the time of the race they will have their feet hardened to the course, and will be familiar with all its turns and grades. Among those who are training on the Lake Merritt course is William "Fat" Larue, amateur heavyweight champion of the world, who expects to run in the marathon. Larue is a big fellow, but at that he is not going to be content with merely a time-limit bar.

"I am going after one of those first dozen prizes at least," said Larue. "I don't expect to finish with the first three, but when you get through greeting the winners at the finish, just look out for me. I will be hopping along among the leaders some place, and you may just as well order one of those silver buckled felts for a 44-size right now for I am out to cop one of them."

BATTLE OF "HOSES" IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—The tide of battle in the War of Hoses has turned again and today the Red Sox top the pinnacle of the American League, while the White Sox cling to a point half a notch below. Almost unnoticed, Lee Fohl's Indians have crept up on the field and today are only a game from the top.

The onrushing Browns are just on the verge of clambering into the first division over somebody—it looks now as though the Yanks would be the victims.

The Athletics won a game. After 20 straight defeats, which enabled them to tie the league record for failures, the Mack worm turned against the Tigers and slaughtered four pitchers for a victory.

GOOD RACING IN GREAT WESTERN CIRCUIT

GALESBURG, Ills., Aug. 10. — Good racing marked the second day of the Great Western Circuit program, run in connection with the Galesburg District Fair. Each finish was hotly contested. Results:

2:12 pace, purse $100—Ben Earle, won; Wattie McCluckey, second; Lottie, third. Best time, 2:07¼.

Free-for-all pace, purse $500—Lillian T. won; Sadye Densmore, second; Walter Cochate, third. Best time, 2:02¾.

Three-year-old pace, purse $500—E. J. L., won; Ella H., second; Walter Long, third. Best time, 2:12¼.

SIX O. C. MIXERS TO BOX IN SOUTH

Six Olympic club boxing stars, including three national champions, will represent the Post street institution at San Diego in the boxing tourney to be staged in conjunction with the far western track meet. They are S. Eckstein and W. Shiller, 125-pounders; H. Gleason, 135-pounder; F. Murphy, 145-pound mixer; Monte Wolgast, 175-pound crack and Rudy Peterson, light-heavyweight.

Gleason, Wolgast and Peterson are champions in their respective divisions and are expected to clean up easily in the south. The lads have been training hard under the supervision of George Green and will be in fine shape for the mills. Bill L'Heureux, Oakland heavyweight and former national heavyweight champion, would have made the trip but for his turning professional.

OAKLAND STADIUM CLUB TO ASK CITY COUNCIL FOR HELP

The Oakland Stadium Riding and Driving club, backed by a large number of citizens who enjoy outdoor sports, for the past three years, have been working hard to have the city council and board of park commissioners build a stadium for such purposes.

Both bodies have given them much encouragement as that was one of the proposed improvements when the city auditorium was built, the stadium to be built just south of the auditorium. The club has temporarily put a track in condition on the reclaimed marsh lands at Eighteenth and Peralta streets.

In the last six weeks the club has given three very successful matinees, large crowds of men and women attending. Next Sunday afternoon the club will put on another matinee of seven races. Thirty-two horses have been entered, owned by members of the club and residents of Oakland. Additional seating capacity will be built by the club this week.

Following is what the Breeder and Sportsman of San Francisco had to say of the matinee of July 30, last:

"There is no organization anywhere that promotes harness racing for the pure love of the sport more enthusiastically than the Oakland Stadium Riding and Driving club of Oakland, California. The only place this club has to hold its matinees is a half mile oval on the reclaimed marsh land at Eighteenth and Peralta streets. This land is owned by a railroad company which gives the club the privilege of using it, but will give no lease, so that the expenditure of any money for improvements is out of the question.

"The track is narrow, flat on the turns, is seldom sprinkled and infrequently harrowed or dragged, and is 200 or 300 feet over a half mile. There are a few rough boards made into "bleachers" that will seat probably 100 persons, and the judges' stand is a platform six feet square without cover.

"There are no stalls for the horses, a board windbreak about 50 feet long being all that the owners have to protect their horses from the wind between heats. The entire grounds within and surrounding this track are covered with weeds and are dusty and uninviting. Yet on Sunday afternoons when the club offers a program of racing from 500 to 1000 persons come to see the sport and, unless they come in autos or horsedrawn vehicles, or come early enough to get a seat on the "bleachers," they are compelled to stand during the two or three hours required to decide the races.

"The club is working to have the Oakland city council provide a track and stadium on land owned by the city in the rear of the $1,000,000 auditorium recently constructed just south of the Twelfth street dam on Lake Merritt. If the council can be persuaded to recognize the fact that 'a playground for grown-ups' is needed in Oakland the sport of harness racing, which is enjoyed by thousands, can be made one of the leading attractions of the city across the bay.

"On the Fourth of July this year at least 3000 persons stood around this crude track at Eighteenth and Peralta streets and witnessed excellent racing between the horses owned by members of the Oakland club, showing that good clean sport is enjoyed by the public even when there is no money to be won by the contestants and no wagering permitted on the results."

Following are the entries for Sunday's races:

First race—Andy O., W. M. Ray; Babe, J. Pitts; Babe W., Fred Wuescher; Just Mc., A. Stott.

Second race—Tom Wilks, H. Olsen; Harold G., J. Williams; Molly, M. Medau; King, J. Lanzer; Starlight, C. Gabrielsen.

Third race—Little Dick, Al Scott; Hallie's Star, A. Edstrom; Allegro, G. Schreiber; Francisco, J. V. Galindo.

Fourth race—Ailsa Page, P. W. Bellingall; Rhoda, George Meader; Teddy, W. Collins; Dinty Murphy, J. V. Galindo; Bell Sawyer, Al Hanks.

Fifth race—Burbank, R. Seale; Grand W., A. L. Hinds; Cleoverne, Mrs. Carlisle; Berkeley Girl, A. Reisman.

Sixth race—Clipper Jr., A. Bock; Lena Lee, T. Le Ballister; Teddy B., H. Buckley; Prince, H. C. Garrison; Sleepy Dick, W. Rutherford; General Villa, E. Johnson.

Seventh race—Ida May, A. Newbaumer; Willis Baldwin, W. D. Willis; Frankie Burns, W. G. Burgelric; Henri A., H. E. Audiffred.

ST. PAUL TEAM IS WINNER.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 10. — Loosely played contests in the Union Printers National League baseball tournament here yesterday St. Paul won from Cincinnati, 17 to 10, and Chicago defeated Pittsburg, 8 to 1. The St. Paul-Cincinnati game had been twice before postponed by rain and in today's contest neither team presented its regular lineup.

St. Louis and New York, and Chicago and St. Paul are scheduled to play tomorrow.

ONSLAUGHT OF ALLIES CONTINUES

From All Three Fronts Reports Are That Gains Have Been Made, but Germans Say Somme Attacks Repulsed

British War Office Asserts That Australians Penetrated 200 Yards on 600-Yard Front to Northwest of Pozieres

LONDON, Aug. 10. — New and striking successes for the allies in their great triple offensive were reported in official despatches from the war office this afternoon. On every front the allied capitals announced gains in the last twenty-four hours.

On the Somme front, both the British and French war offices announced slight gains. These statements, however, were contradicted by the German war office, which claimed the repulse of allied attacks on the Somme front.

Further progress northwest of Pozieres, where the Australians yesterday penetrated German trenches 200 yards on a 600-yard front, was reported by General Haig this afternoon. The Australians have gained all local objectives, which are rapidly being consolidated. The night was generally quiet except for the bombardment of British positions southeast of the Trones wood by German artillery, General Haig reported.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Despite fog and rain French troops made further progress in the allies' Somme offensive last night, advancing in the region of the Hem woods, taking 100 prisoners and six machine guns, it was officially announced today. South of the Somme a German reconnaissance was dispersed.

On the Verdun front no important fighting occurred during the night. There was an intermittent bombardment in the region of Fleury and the Vaux-Chapitre woods.

In the Vosges a German attack on French positions northeast of Altkirch failed utterly. Many air raids were carried on last night. On the Somme front three German aeroplanes were defeated.

Industries Visualized by College Exhibit

The San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and the California Development Board during the next ten days will feature the University Extension Division's traveling industrial exhibits at the office of the California Development Board, Ferry building, San Francisco. These exhibits have been organized by the Bureau of Visual Instruction, University Extension Division, University of California.

Each exhibit tells a complete story of an industry. Glass cases illustrate industries by means of articles in their various stages of development. Wing display cases show the steps in the preparation of different articles by means of photographs and descriptions.

Exhibits, during the past six months, have been circulated through the schools of the State, particularly in Alameda county. Commencing in September, they will be circulated in schools in all parts of California.

WOMAN PINNED UNDER AUTO.

Mrs. Annie Haverly of 1901 Lyon street was painfully injured this morning when a machine in which she was riding turned over on the Sloat boulevard near Nineteenth avenue. With her in the car were Frank Fauve of 1715 O'Farrell street and Otis Griffith of 620 Arguello boulevard, who were slightly bruised. The auto struck a pile of sand in the roadway, as it was dark, and the impact was so great that the light car capsized. Mrs. Haverly was treated at the Park hospital for bruises and abrasions of the body and general shock.

ELKS OVERWHELM OFFICERS.

Those who read The TRIBUNE ball columns knew there would be something doing Sunday at Goat island when the Oakland Elks paid the island their visit. Well, those who ventured for the splendid day's outing saw a victory for the horned tribe, to the tune of 26 to 0. They only regret their old pal, Woodward, was not in the lineup, as he is always in on the big scores. You are all invited to see the game next Sunday at the old Grove street grounds, when the antlered herd from San Mateo mix with our boys at 2 o'clock.

FITCHBURG BEATS NATIONALS.

The Fitchburg Merchants made it five straight by defeating the Nationals 3 to 2, at Fitchburg. Scott's hitting, combined with Arlett's pitching, was sufficient to take the Nationals into camp. Arlett is commencing to show the kind of pitching that made his brother recognized as one of the best bush pitchers in the state. Score:

MAXWELL HARDWARES TRIMMED.

The Maxwell Hardware team went out to Rust last Sunday to give the Praetorians a good beating, but were certainly disappointed as they were defeated by a score of 18 to 1. It was a regular merry-go-round. The Maxwell boys were so disgusted that they called the game in the seventh inning.

The Praetorian boys are making a name for themselves by the teams they are defeating. They have played 24 games and have lost two. The teams they lost to were the Sperry Flour and the Oakland Giants, but if they ever meet them again there will be a different score.

Andy Jackson's pitching is certainly great as he has only allowed four hits in three games. The Harris Tailors were lucky to get two hits off of him, and Maxwell got one hit and South City got one.

EL CAPITANS WIN.

The El Capitans added another game to their win column last Sunday when they defeated the Spreckels' Market team of San Francisco by the one-sided score of 10 to 1. The club men presented a new battery in Ed Nelson and Bill Keene. Nelson twirled a great game, allowing only two scratch singles, striking out 10, and only 29 men facing him over the whole route. Keene held Nelson up in great style and also cracked out a home run and a double.

The entire El Capitan team played good ball both at bat and in the field; making only one bobble and lining out 14 hits off Pitcher Welch. Lefty Hermle and Roy Nattinger led at the bat with three hits apiece. Nattinger and McChesney furnished the fielding features, both pulling down line drives by sensational one-hand catches. CALIFORNIANS FAIL TO APPEAR FOR LAKE FOREST TOURNEY

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 9. — Two out-of-town players remained in the men's singles after yesterday's play here in the twenty-ninth Western lawn tennis championship. The number will be increased to four if Maurice McLoughlin and Kenneth Hawkes of Los Angeles appear today, as expected. Ward Dawson of Los Angeles and Clifford Lockhorn of Kansas City went through their third round matches in good form. Dawson was the feature match of the day from A. L. Green Jr. of Chicago, runner up to Heath Byford in the Illinois championship, 3-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Dawson tried to play the base line exclusively in the first set, but Green was too active for him, covering the whole court. Dawson then settled to a waiting game, for he saw Green was wearing himself out and took the second set, evening it up by these tactics. Then came the deciding set, both fighting for every point. Dawson reached a 5-3 advantage, but the Chicago boy played the net so well that it went to deuce. Green had worked so violently for the two games that h was spent and Dawson quickly put over the deciding games.

Five Californians were entered for the singles, but failed to appear. They were: H. V. D. Jones, William M. Johnston (national champion), Roland Roberts, Willis Davis and Clarence Griffin, all of San Francisco. Maurice McLoughlin, former champion, and Kenneth Hawkes, his protege, both of Los Angeles, are expected today. Their matches are the only ones not defaulted in the opening rounds, each being paired with Chicagoans considered easy for them. Summaries:

WE WILL WIN IF WE KILL, SAYS DERBY

German War Methods Aid Allies, Asserts Under Secretary.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Lord Derby, Parliamentary under secretary of war, says in an interview in regard to the loss of men in the recent advance on the Somme:

"We are accomplishing what we set out to do. One must look at all fronts and consider them as a whole. The Germans last year had everything their own way. They were able to rush troops to any of the fronts, but now they cannot spare a single man from the west or east.

"The only way to win the war is to kill Germans. This we are doing and so are the Russians and Italians.

"Our advance has been slow. The Germans send waves of men against our positions, but each receding wave leaves us further on the way to victory. Every counter attack is welcome. It helps kill Germans. The situation on the whole is decidedly favorable for us."

Asked if the Germans are using their reserves of 19 years, Lord Derby said:

"They have boys younger than 19 fighting at the front now."

Gas Company Asks Right to Dissolve

MARTINEZ, Aug. 10.—After being in business practically six years, the California Natural Gas Company will go out of existence on September 11, if the application of the directors of the corporation is favorably acted upon by Judge A. B. McKenzie of the superior court of Contra Costa county.

Their position sets forth that the concern was incorporated on September 22, 1910, with $1,000,000 capital, of which $35,000 was actually paid in. The principal place of business is in Richmond, Cal. The four directors are H. P. Pillsbury, Alfred Sutro, Oscar Sutro and C. C. Sullivan.

Two Under Suspicion in Black Tom Probe

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Aug. 10.—Erling Iverson and Axel Larson, Norwegians, are under arrest here on suspicion of complicity in the Black Tom explosion and fire on July 30, which cost seven lives and did damage estimated at $20,000,000. Among letters and other papers found in possession of the prisoners were drawings of a submarine and other data. Neighbors of the two men reported to the police what they regarded as their suspicious actions, particularly on the night of the big explosion and the day following.

Stewart Appointed Director of Chorus

Alexander Stewart's appointment as director of the Alameda County Chorus, by the board of directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce is a step in the plan to make this city a great musical center. A discussion was held as to the possibilities of the plan and Stewart was empowered to increase the chorus from 250 to 300 members.

This chorus will take part in all public celebrations and will be the nucleus around which will be built other musical organizations and societies.

SHOPPING FIESTA OAKLAND PROGRAM

Merchants and Manufacturers Plan Industrial Exposition.

"Show Week for the Shops and Try Oakland First" for the shoppers has been announced as the slogan for the week of September 23 to 30. During this week the Oakland manufacturers will use banners carrying the emblem, "Oakland Does." There will be a great industrial exposition at the Municipal Auditorium.

Joint headquarters for the various committees were opened yesterday in room 901, First Savings Bank building, and plans were made for the festival week.

Under the auspices of the United Commercial Travelers and with Geo. W. Fitch as director general, the civic auditorium will be converted for the week into a place of industry. Every inch of floor space in the city's big show place is being sought for to prove that Alameda county can support its boast as a manufacturing center. For a week of parades and pageants the joint committees are preparing a program that will outdo anything ever attempted before.

Publicity on a grand scale as planned is now being carried out and will include posters and stickers, car cards and enormous fence signs. Store windows will be decorated to display the newest in frocks and gowns, in millinery and shoes.

One of the important musical features of the week will be band concerts, programs by the Alameda county chorus under Alexander Stewart.

Laughing Mask Mystery Cleared at Pantages

Oakland is this week learning the answer to the puzzle that has had the city guessing for the past few months. "The Laughing Mask" has unmasked.

Every day big crowds have thronged the Oakland Pantages, where "The Iron Claw," the remarkable film serial in which the mystery-man has baffled the imagination of hundreds of theater-goers, has been shown.

This week all is made clear. Many guesses had been made. And no matter how closely many may have guessed as to the identity of the mysterious stranger of the films, they were both right and wrong. "The Mask" proved the biggest surprise of the closing chapter of the film. The final chapter of the "Iron Claw" positively closes Saturday night.

In the meantime, according to statements from the Pantages offices, negotiations are under way for the showing of a serial even greater than "The Iron Claw." This film, now in the course of preparation, will be one of the most startling in the history of filmcraft.

Sea Rover Is Forced to Halt

'Captain Pike' Stopped by British

Fred Mortimer, "deep water mate," known as the original of "Captain Pike," in Jack London's story of the ship Elinor, and a figure familiar to the waterfront of many of the ports of the world, has, perforce, quit his roaming of the seas. Mortimer is at Fleetwood, where the entire crew of the Dirigo, on which he sailed, is interned by the British government.

The Dirigo, the largest steel sailing ship under the American flag, sailed for Sweden on October 25. In March, according to word received today by friends of Mortimer, the craft was seized by the British off the Shetland Islands and taken to Fleetwood.

DUEL TO DEATH FOUGHT IN DARK

Mexican Slain, Opponent Fatally Cut in Battle Fought in Bunkhouse.

VISALIA, Aug. 10.—Miguel Bragas was killed and Dominga Silva terribly cut when the two men, both Mexicans, fought a duel to death in the dark room of a bunkhouse on the Bliss beet ranch near here. They were alone and there is nothing to indicate how the fight started.

The body of Bragas, dead from a bullet wound, was found at daylight lying in the door of the bunkhouse.

A hundred yards away, in the alkali dust, Silva's form was found with half a dozen knife gashes on the body. He was in a pool of blood and has not recovered consciousness sufficiently to tell of the fight.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

5,000,000 MEN IN PRISONS OF WAR

Germany Has Largest Number, but Russia Is Close Second, Says Investigator.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—More than 5,000,000 prisoners, double the number of men engaged in any previous war that the world has known, are now confined in prison camps of the belligerent nations, according to Dr. John R. Mott, general secretary of the International committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, who arrived here today on the Danish steamship Oskar II from Copenhagen. Dr. Mott left here in May for Russia and has visited the prison camps of nearly all the countries of the war.

Dr. Mott said that of the prisoners Germany has the greatest number, approximately 1,750,000, Russia with about 1,500,000 comes next, then Austria with 1,000,000, followed in order by France, Italy, Great Britain and Turkey. Russia's prisoners, he added, are rapidly increasing, more than 400,000 having been added to the camps since the beginning of the last Russian drive. In six weeks, Dr. Mott added, 230,000 passed through Kiev.

Golf Expert and His Wife in Auto Wreck

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Douglas Grant, Northern California golf champion, and his wife were thrown from a touring car and slightly injured today when their automobile skidded and turned over at Slont boulevard and the Great Highway. John H. Briggs of Modesto and Miss Helen Dale of San Francisco, other occupants of the car, escaped unhurt. Grant and his wife were taken to the Park Emergency hospital, where their injuries were treated.

Grant recently achieved new golfing honors when he was runner-up to Heinrich Schmidt in the western amateur golf championship at Del Monte.

Say Whiskey Carrier Neglected Family

Louis B. Wells, a cook, was arrested early this morning as he was leaving a saloon at 473 Seventh street with a case of whiskey on his shoulder. When Patrolman W. I. Hodgkins took him to the central police station on a charge of petty larceny, Wells was recognized as a man wanted on a charge of failure to provide for his minor children. He will be arraigned on this charge as well as that of petty larceny.

ENGLAND AGAINST PEACE, HARDEN

Noted German Sees No End of War Except in Death Agony.

BERLIN, Aug. 10.—Maximilian Harden says in the latest issue of Die Zukunft:

"If Lloyd-George allowed himself to be persuaded into taking over the heavy burden of Kitchener it would be with the certainty of victory implanted in his mind, the certainty that his country, even though the present offensive may not be productive of great effect, will arm herself yet more formidably and that she will carry the industrial war to an unheard of point and will not stop until either she or the enemy has reached the death agony.

"To sue for peace at this juncture would heap shame on Germany. The enemy would regard it as a sign of impotence. Our prayer for peace would come either too late or too soon, according to the interpretation it would receive in the insane discussions on the extent of territory the German empire should or could add to its area.

"We shall not have peace this summer, even though we are ready to admit our guilt and do penance. This is not saying, however, that we should bury the sacred desire for peace. What we are living through is so inexpressibly atrocious that no dream of Satan has ever evoked anything comparable with it. Things are happening billions of times more horrible than all the murders committed since the days of Cain, and all the savagery of the naked Huns."

Elmhurst School in Need of Storm Sewer

The Elmhurst School Parent-Teachers' Association will meet in the domestic science room of the school on the evening of August 16, to discuss the proposed storm sewer, which is desired in front of the school to drain the rain waters. The meeting was postponed from next Friday evening until the later date.

The street department of the city favors the plan, and Perry Brown, city engineer, and Walter N. Frickstad, assistant superintendent of streets, will answer questions relating to sewer construction. For some time in the past school children have found difficulty in getting to the building from the street on account of the rain water which gathers in front of the grounds. It is planned to take up the matter immediately so that the drain may be constructed before the rainy season begins.

Trade With Russia Makes Great Gains

The trade of the United States with Russia, according to statistics compiled by a leading banking institution, shows a larger percentage of gain and a greater prospect of permanency than that with any of the other countries at war. The exports to Russia during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1916, were ten times as great as during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1914. Official figures for the eleven months ending May, 1916, show exports to all of Russia amounting to $281,000,000 against $29,000,000 in the same months in 1914.

What is most important, however, is the fact that the war exports from this country to Russia are largely of a class of merchandise of which she is more likely to continue a larger importer than is the case with the other European countries. The exports of steel to Russia in the five months ending with May, 1916, were approximately $9,000,000, while those to all foreign countries, including Russia, in the eleven months ending May, 1916, were but about $16,000,000.

The same is true on a lesser scale of other exports which are now going to Russia for use in warfare but which will also continue to be used by that country in times of peace.

STOCK MOVEMENTS DISAPPOINT BULLS

Dealings of Week Have Failed to Attract Any Genuine Public Demand

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Although there were indications in the character of the early trading that prices might move throughout the day toward higher levels on an expanding volume of business, general results were disappointing to the bull traders, particularly in respect of the amount of the outside in the dealings.

The dealings of the day before failed to attract a genuine public demand and to a great extent it was this absence of public response, together with realizing sales, that accounted for the heavy tendency of quotations following the forenoon improvement.

Prices in the opening dealings, generally were at small advances from the closing of the preceding day, with activity pronounced in the prominent issues, which were the leading features in the sharp upward movement in Wednesday's final operations. Although early afternoon trading accompanied a marked falling off in activity, in most parts of the list and a tendency to sag from the early high points, the general undertone remained firm with talk in the various commission houses favoring still further improvement. The expectation of a big British loan here against American securities as collateral created a favorable impression and in some quarters the idea that such a loan would eliminate for the present at least liquidation of foreign-held securities in this market was considered a strong enough argument upon which to base a real bull speculation.

In the greater part of the afternoon the general market was inactive.

Bonds were in relatively good demand, but the general investment buying was light. Money was easy while in foreign exchange sterling exchange and francs were slightly lower. Paris exchange was under pressure from selling by a large trust company.

AMERICAN STOCKS IN LONDON.

Movements of representative American securities on the London Stock Exchange today included the following price changes: Declines—Atchison, ¼; Erie, ⅜; Southern Pacific, ¼; Southern Railway, ¼; Union Pacific, ⅜; United States Steel, ⅛. Advances—Canadian Pacific, 1.

PROFESSIONAL COMMENT.

Raymond, Pynchen & Co.: The rise in the market came about logically as result of oversold conditions and belated recognition of the low levels to which seasoned securities had declined. We should anticipate some recessions of a moderate amount, but look for a good demand for any stocks which mai be offered.

E. F. Hutton & Co.: Yesterday's rise in nearly all stocks was a bear stampede. The next two or three days will show whether we can get the long buying which is necessary for a real movement. Short crops, both cotton and grain, are not a good foundation for a bull market. Many stocks are cheap, especially in railroad list. Europe selling and stagnation has kept them down. These will advance. War stocks do not furnish sufficient data on which to form any intelligent opinion. For that reason they are neglected.

NEW YORK STOCK RANGE.

WHEAT MARKET QUIETER TODAY

High Prices Are Still Maintained, but Trading Relatively Small.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Notwithstanding that the wheat market overtopped at times today the highest prices of the previous session, trading was relatively contracted in volume and the fortifications as a rule did not exceed the ultimate. Opening prices, which ranged from 1½c decline to 2c advance with September at $1.43 to $1.44 and December at $1.48 to $1.48½, were followed by a material setback all around and then a rise to well above yesterday's finish.

The market closed, after a turbulent day, 1⅝c higher for September wheat, ½c lower for December and 2¾c lower than the opening for the May future. Prices were $1.44⅝, $1.47½ and $1.52½ respectively.

Word of scattered showers had a brief effect on corn. After opening ¼c to 1½c lower, the market underwent a further sag, but later rallied to a moderate extent. Subsequently wheat weakness acted as more than an offset for increasing complaints of drought in Illinois. The close was nervous at 1c to 1½c and ⅜c net decline.

Heavy selling weakened oats.

Higher quotations on hogs lifted provisions.

COAST MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Wheat—Firm; no trading.

Barley—Firm; December, $1.60; May, $1.65¾.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 10.—Wheat—Firm; no trading; spot bids 8½ to 5c higher; bluestem, $1.17; fortyfold, $1.13; club, $1.11; red fife, $1.11; red Russian, $1.10.

E. F. Hutton & Co. have the following from their Spokane correspondent: Spokane Spokesman-Review this morning reports over 1,500,000 wheat sold by farmers in Washington at $1.10 for bluestem, 10c higher than last week.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

By Hutton private wires:

Liverpool spot wheat strong, 8 to 9c up.

Corn—1½ to 2c higher.

Broomhall cables from Liverpool: "Wheat opened strong and excited on strong American cables and further buying on the American government report. Later there was a pause in the demand, owing to what is considered a sensational American advance. Cargoes strong, Manitobas 1s 9d higher and winters 3s 9d up.

There was purchases of Manitobas at the rise, but offer nominal. Strength in Chicago and Winnipeg and further unfavorable reports from spring in both belts and dearness of export offers served to create feverish condition. Government report was bullish, but the extreme advance should be discounted by the damage.

FINANCIAL FLASHES.

National City Bank will establish a branch in Petrograd about September 1 and later another will be opened in Moscow.

San Ramon Steamship Line, to ply in lumber trade between New Orleans and Colon, has been formed. Six vessels will comprise the fleet.

United Cigar Stores has set a new record for Forty-second street rental values by agreeing to pay August Heckscher about $60 a square foot for a small store on southeast corner of Forty-second street and Madison avenue.

Bank of England rate remains unchanged at 6 per cent.

British steel trade workers have been granted advance of 10¼ per cent in wages.

Standard Oil of New Jersey made another cut of 1 cent per gallon in gasoline.

Silver Advance Is Looked for Soon

Higher prices for silver are expected in the near future by some authorities. A weekly bullion letter states that the situation in China is interesting, although it is difficult to predict what course the market will take there, adding:

"It is well known that over 35,000,000 ounces of silver have been shipped from China to India and Russia, and the stocks of the banks are unusually low. Even these stocks are not due to importations from elsewhere, but have been made up from meltings of the internal coinage.

"Since the war started exports of silver, both from England and the United States, have been extremely poor.

Holders of silver sold it in order to profit from higher prices. Now there seems to be no other course but to save the situation by getting silver from outside.'

COTTON MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Spot cotton, steady; middling uplands, $14.25; no sales.

By Hutton wires: Liverpool due 2 to 3½ higher. Opened barely steady, 3 down. Closed 6 to 6½ lower. Spots in more demand at 9 points decline. Mids, $8.62. Sales, 7000, including 6000 American.

S. B. Chapin & Co.: At the moment the trend seems higher but would not care to follow it.

E. F. Hutton & Co.: We favor the selling side now on rallies.

Shearson, Hamill & Co.: Inclined to advise caution in following the advance much further at present.

Hubbard Bros.: There is little or no local short interest, as bullish advices from Wall street houses is the dominating factor at the moment.

S. M. Weld & Co.: In our opinion a further substantial advance is likely and we recommend purchases.

The American Wool and Cotton Reporter says: The cotton goods market has shown more activity and there is every indication that buyers need merchandise and that the purchasing will continue to increase. The demand is enough to keep mills sold ahead.

Port receipts estimated 6000.

BIG OIL MERGER MAY TAKE PLACE

Important Developments Expected to Follow Visit of Magnates.

Important developments are expected to follow the visit of several of the biggest oil men of this country and England to the California oil fields. Andrew Weir, a big English ship owner and oil magnate, and N. A. McClelland, partner in the Duncan Fox Co., a British mercantile and banking house, are two English representatives now on the Pacific coast. The American oil men at present there include bankers who have been closely connected with Mexican Petroleum, California Petroleum and other Doheny enterprises.

Whether any attempt will be made to follow the lines of a merger of independent companies, as was done late in 1915 and in the first few weeks of this year, is unknown, but it is believed that developments of importance regarding Union Oil Co. of California are certain to take place.

Two years ago on a visit to this country Andrew Weir secured an option on the treasury stock of the Union company, amounting to $15,900,000. The authorized capital stock of the company is $50,000,000. The outbreak of the war forced the cancellation of this option. The present investment of the Weir interests in Union Oil Co. amounts to several million dollars and the present expectation is that the original plan of buying the unissued stock of the company will be carried through.

The Union Oil Co. of California is one of the richest and most successful independent oil companies in the country. For the six months ended June 30, last, it showed profits of $4,850,000 before depreciation, which is at the yearly rate of 25% on the stock. Net after depreciation was $3,150,000, or at the annual rate of 18½%. These earnings showed heavy increases over the corresponding period of the preceding year.

HOLD GENERAL PETROLEUM.

The Weir interests also have a large investment in General Petroleum, one of the largest of the California companies, which has just come through reorganization. Their holdings in this company are believed to be somewhat smaller than in Union Oil.

The proposed merger of independent companies which fell through early this year, largely because of litigation in the Union Oil Co., involved the California Petroleum Corporation, Union Oil and Independent Producers-Agency. The Associated Oil Co., it was planned, eventually would become a part of the combine.

If this plan is revived it will be for the same reasons that the earlier one was started, namely the more economic handling of the business by the independent companies in California, the most highly competitive oil state in the country. Because of the many small companies operating here, a large amount of competitive drilling is necessary for each company to safeguard its oil. The result is that while the independents produce four-fifths of the oil in California, they get only about one-fifth of the revenue.

FLOUR PRICE IS AVIATING AGAIN

Fifty Cents a Barrel Tacked on Today With Wheat Still Chasing Elevator.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Advancing wheat prices hit the American housewife today. Flour was advanced fifty cents a barrel on the Chicago wholesale market and the housewife who buys a "big sack" will pay ten to fifteen cents more for it than she did yesterday.

Flour today sold for $7.25 a barrel for the bakers' grade. Yesterday it sold at $6.75. In the last month flour has advanced $2 a barrel and the bakers already are considering abandonment of the time-honored five-cent loaf and sale of a ten-cent loaf, slightly smaller than the present dime loaf.

While the flour market was advancing today wheat prices alternately rose and fell amid excited buying and selling.

Scenes in the wheat pits were like those of the days when big traders sought to corner the whole world's wheat supply. Everybody was trying to buy wheat, except those conservative ones who sold today at prices ten to fifteen cents higher than they bought it at.

Just when things had quieted down to an ordinary din of trading, somebody busted into the pit with a rumor that the United States government had planned an embargo on shipment of wheat because the crops were so small. This started things again. The market soared for a minute. Then someone else had another flock of rumors, and prices dropped again. It was see-saw up and down throughout the morning.

Brokers in close touch with conditions discounted rumors that $2 wheat was in sight. They said it would stick somewhere around a dollar and a half a bushel until something, nobody knows what, throws another bomb into the market.

OIL ISSUE PERMITTED.

Liberty Bell Oil Company has been permitted by Commissioner of Corporations H. L. Carnahan to issue 50,000 shares of its capital stock to P. M. Bruner, G. A. Whitaker, M. E. Bruner, S. P. Freeman, John Brogg and others, in exchange for certain unpatented placer mining locations, comprising 2000 acres, situated in Kern county. The company is also permitted to sell 20,000 shares at the price of $2.50 per share, to net the company not less than 80 per cent of the selling price, the proceeds to be used for the purpose of purchasing necessary drilling machinery and equipment and sinking a well on one of the claims in search of oil. The stock permitted to be issued in exchange for the locations is required to be deposited as an escrow pending the further order of the commissioner.

RECORD GRAPE PRICES.

FRESNO, Aug. 10.—Higher prices are being received for Malaga and Thompson grapes than ever in the history of the valley, according to prominent fruit men here. Approximately 3500 cars will be shipped East during the next few weeks at prices double those of last year. An average of from $1 to $1.50 a crate more than last year is being received by vineyards.

CRUDE OIL PRICES REDUCED.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 10.—Another change in the price of all grades of crude oil but Ragland, was announced by the principal purchasing agencies today. Five cents a barrel was the posted reduction, making the new prices as follows:

Pennsylvania Crude, $2.35; Cabell, $1.87; Mercer Black, Corning and Newcastle, $1.85; Somerset, $1.70; Ragland remained at 75 cents.

OIL DEVELOPMENT WORK.

Development work in the oil fields during the week ending August 5, 1916, as reported by the operators to the State Mining Bureau, shows seventeen new wells started, making a total of 454 since the first of the year. There were thirteen wells reported as ready for test of water shutoff, six for deepening or redrilling and one for abandonment.

FLOUR ADVANCES SHARPLY.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Sharp advances in the price of flour were announced today as a result of yesterday's big upturn in the value of wheat. Altogether, the rise in flour during the last two months has been about $2 a barrel.

STOCK & BOND EXCHANGE

Sugar plantation stocks were weaker again this morning, following the further declines in the sugar market. Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar sold off six points, Paauhau lost a half and Hutchinson a further three-eighths. Associated Oil strengthened to 67¼ at the opening, sold down to 67 and recovered to 67⅛, yesterday's figure. Spring Valley Water was stronger by an eighth and Northern California Power gained a quarter to 14. Pacific Gas and Electric common was off three-eighths and the first preferred a quarter.

The bond market was quiet but steady.

LOCAL PRODUCE

The continued glut in canteloupes brought prices down again this morning until standards sold at a top price for the very best of 65 cents a crate; ponies a top price of 40 cents and as low as 30 cents, and river boxes 50 to 65 cents. This price, dealers say, will not pay for handling.

Short Weight Warning Is Sent Out by State

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 10.—For the protection of California retail coal dealers from short weight shipments, Charles G. Johnson, superintendent of weights and measures, wrote today to Heber C. Smith, Utah State superintendent, to learn the methods used by the coal companies in determining actual weights.

Superintendent Johnson's action is caused by a short weight shipment of a carload of coal from the Cameron Coal Company to Jacob Fischer of Ocean View, California. The car when weighed at the Utah mines showed a gross weight of 99,300 pounds, with tare of 33,300 pounds, or a net weight of 66,000 pounds. But when the car arrived in California there was a loss in the net weight of 3100 pounds of coal.

Superintendent Johnson says this shipment is now before the department for adjustment, and points out that the California law provides for the sale of coal and other commodities by a true net weight.

Commonwealth Club Favors Highway Bond

SAN FRANCISCO, August 10.—The committee on highways of the Commonwealth Club of California made a report here last night on the state highways now being constructed and on the proposal to vote another bond issue of $15,000,000, for highway purposes. The club in 1910 disapproved of the $18,000,000 now going forward, but the report of the committee presented to-night favors going ahead.

"Having gone into the highway building on an extensive scale," says the report, "it will be very unwise to interrupt this work or to stop it. There is no doubt in the minds of the committee that haphazard methods of providing inadequate roadways through all the past years have swallowed up many millions of dollars, and by this antediluvian system we would continue to do the work in the same slipshod way, without giving the people much of anything to show for the expended millions. Therefore, let us adhere to the principle of carrying on this great work until it is done, but let us see to it that the system of the highways to be given the state is what they want.

EXCHANGE 4 LETTERS AND WED.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Horace G. Sibley, aged 69, of Boise, Idaho, came here to marry Mrs. Annie Morris, aged 67, whom he had never seen. The courtship was by correspondence, and was quick and decisive, for only four letters were exchanged. They will live in Muncie, Ind.

Operatic Festival in Ewing Field Is Plan

An open air operatic festival, through which the Youths' Directory, San Francisco, and a fund for the preservation of California missions will benefit, is being planned for the evening of September 30, when "Aida" by Verdi will be sung at Ewing Field. Emmy Destinn, Clarence Whitehill, Julia Claussen and other Metropolitan Opera House stars will sing the leading roles, supported by 1000 musicians, dancers and supernumeraries. From a spectacular point of view it is thought by those in charge that this performance will take the lead over all other similar open air opera performances.

Through the patronage, which will likely result from music lovers, the Youths' Direotory, Rev. D. O. Crowley, director, gains needed funds for operating expenses. The mission restoration movement will also be given a necessary financial impetus.

PLAN FIRST THEATER PARTY.

St. Joseph's Athletic Club has arranged to hold its first annual theater party on August 15 at Pantages Theater. Special numbers on the program have been prepared in conjunction with the regular bill. Many organizations in tthe bay cities have secured boxes for the occasion, and they will be elaborately decorated with the clubs' respective colors. The committee in charge of the affair are: W. J. McNally, chairman, D. T. Fenelon, H. Stahr, W. Carter, A. Matson, B. Cullen, P. Cullen, H. Lemos and A. Vierra.

Assistance Is Given Man Hurt by Auto

Mrs. V. L. Aschambeault, driver of an automobile which yesterday struck W. Atkins of Berkeley, has replied to a man who styled himself an eye-witness to the accident and who said that the machine continued on its way without any offer of assistance being tendered to the injured man. She says that she stopped and that Atkins assured her that he was unhurt. Atkins stepped in front of the automobile, which hit a suitcase he was carrying and threw him to the pavement.

Don't Fear the Light of Truth for all the practices and malpractices of the clothing business and every other line of necessities should be open to you, clear and bright, so that you may look into some of the dark corners, into which your hard-earned Dollars roll, when—all the time—you think you are buying real merchandise.

TRUTH will show you that the customer pays for every penny of so-called "overhead" expense—probably first so called because the merchant's smooth explanation of its necessary (?) existence is designed to go "over your head." You, the customer, pay for every cent spent on marble columns and velvet carpets, on glittering chandeliers of crystal and new-fangled fixtures of German silver and cast bronze. The customer pays for the polished mahogany and for costly tapestries in elaborate show window displays—and why? Because, either the merchants are self-proud at your expense, or they use these fol-de-rol ideas to make their merchandise loom up more high grade than its plain, undecorated showing would make it appear.

In our plainly outfitted, extremely low rent Upstairs Stores, comprising our chain now stretching from the Pacific to the Atlantic coasts, you will find no clap-trap fixtures, clap-trap promises or claims or clap-trap merchandise. You'll find no fancy fixtures or fancy profits. You WILL find a veritable ocean of clothing, plainly displayed—clothing that gives itself its own certificate of really honestly being.

It is along that basis of inviting the Light of Truth, along the idea of saving the customer every penny of unnecessary "overhead," along the plan of substantial confidence-building business practices, that we have succeeded in building ourselves in seven short years from $310 cash capital into the Largest Exclusive Clothiers in the World.

Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture)

Here is a method for removing hair or fuzz that is unfailing and is quite inexpensive: Mix a thick paste with some powdered delatone and water and spread on hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes, rub it off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. No harm or inconvenience results from this treatment, but be careful to get genuine delatone.—Advertisement.
